Resources in Education ,1991-07      Wildlife Damage Management Russell F. Reidinger,James E. Miller,2013-11
Reidinger and Miller argue that in recent years the rate of undesirable human wildlife interactions has risen in many areas owing in part to the expansion of residences into places formerly wild or agricultural making wildlife damage management even more relevant From suburban deer eating gardens and shrubs to mountain lions threatening pets and people to accidentally introduced species outcompeting native species Reidinger and Miller show how proper management can reduce wildlife damage to an acceptable cost effective level An extensive section on available resources a glossary that explains terms and concepts and detailed figures will aid both students and seasoned professionals Instructors will find this text arranged perfectly for a semester long course The end of chapter questions will allow students to ponder the ways wildlife damage management concepts can be put into practice      CMJ New Music Report ,2002-10-14 CMJ New Music Report is the primary source for exclusive charts of non commercial and college radio airplay and independent and trend forward retail sales CMJ s trade publication compiles playlists for college and non commercial stations often a prelude to larger success
