Mapping Arab Women's Movements Pernille Arenfeldt,Nawar Al-Hassan Golley,2012-05-01 This pioneering collection of analyses focuses on the ideologies and activities of formal women s organizations and informal women s groups across a range of Arab countries With contributions on Syria Jordan Lebanon Palestine Iraq Egypt Kuwait the United Arab Emirates Yemen and the Arab diaspora in the United States Mapping Arab Women s Movements contributes to delineating similarities and differences between historical and contemporary efforts toward greater gender justice The authors explore the origins of women s movements trace their development during the past century and address the impact of counter movements alliances and international collaborations within the region and beyond providing accessible accounts for scholars and others interested in the Middle East and in women s movements in other settings A Basic Bibliography for the Study of the Semitic Languages J.H. Hospers,2023-11-27 World Dictionaries in Print 1983 ,1983 Africans and Native Americans Jack D. Forbes,1993-03-01 Jack D Forbes s monumental Africans and Native Americans has become a canonical text in the study of relations between the two groups Forbes explores key issues relating to the evolution of racial terminology and European colonialists perceptions of color analyzing the development of color classification systems and the specific evolution of key terms such as black mulatto and mestizo terms that no longer carry their original meanings Forbes also presents strong evidence that Native American and African contacts began in Europe Africa and the Caribbean Arab News and Conflict Samia Bazzi,2009 The Arab Israeli struggle is not only a struggle over land but a struggle over language representations Arab reporters as well as politicians believe that their political discourses about the Middle East conflict are objective accurate and credible Arab News and Conflict critically examines the role of language in the representations of events and ideologies found in news media Drawing on socio political linguistic approaches combined with real case studies the author offers a unique discourse analysis model for analysing politically sensitive language in the media The focus in this study is on the Arab media discourse in times of conflict with Israel and the US spanning the years 2001 to 2009 Using rich examples from outspoken Arab media outlets the study explores ideological and language facts about the Arab Israeli conflict This book is compelling reading for students and researchers of media and cultural studies discourse analysis and sociolinguistics and translation It is of equal interest to political analysts political speakers journalists and news editors who need to understand more about the ideological function of the language they use or the political journalistic linguistic nexus of power

Close Relationships Geert Jan van Gelder, 2005-03-24 Close Relationships is Geert Jan van Gelder's groundbreaking and comprehensive study of the diverse facts and opinions concerning incest and close kin marriage found in literary and non literary pre modern Arabic texts The pre Islamic Arabs knew about the dangers of inbreeding the Qur'an formulates the basic principles of marriage impediments in Islam which were elaborated by generations of jurists Incest is a motif found in lampoons anecdotes stories legends dream interpretation and polemics with other religions in particular the Zoroastrians who in pre Islamic times allegedly recommended next of kin marriage Many of the relevant passages are presented as English translations in this richly documented book
