Regional Production of Red Figure Pottery Stine Schierup, Victoria Sabetai, 2014-10-27 In the latter part of the fifth century BC regional red figure productions were established outside Attica in regional Greece and in the western Mediterranean propelled by the impact of the art of Attic vase painting. This collection of papers addresses key issues posed by these production centres. Why did they emerge? To what degree was their inception prompted by the emigration of Attic craftsmen in the context of the weakened Attic pottery market at the onset of the Peloponnesian War? How did Attic vase painting influence already existing traditions and what was selected, adopted or adapted at the receiving end? Who was using red figure in mainland Greece and Italy and what were its particular functions in the local cultures? These and more questions are addressed here with the presentation not only of syntheses but also primary publication of much newly discovered material Regional production centres covered include those of Euboea Boeotia Corinth Laconia Macedonia Ambracia Lucania Apulia Sicily Locri and Etruria

Round Trip to Hades in the Eastern Mediterranean Tradition, 2018-08-13 Round Trip to Hades in the Eastern Mediterranean Tradition explores how the theme of visiting the Underworld and returning alive has been treated transmitted and transformed in the ancient Greek and Byzantine traditions The journey was usually a descent katabasis into a dark and dull place where forgetfulness and punishment reigned but since everyone was there it was also a place that offered opportunities to meet people and socialize Famous Classical round trips to Hades include those undertaken by Odysseus and Aeneas but this pagan topic also caught the interest of Christian writers

The contributions of the present volume allow the reader to follow the passage from pagan to Christian representations of Hades a passage that may seem surprisingly effortless
