Alcohol And Entertainment Licensing Law:

Alcohol and Entertainment Licensing Law Colin Manchester, Susanna Poppleston, Jeremy Allen, 2008-06-30 This comprehensive and authoritative guide to licensing law is co authored by the UK's only professor of licensing law and two eminent licensing practitioners It provides a detailed exposition and contextual analysis of the legal provisions governing the licensing of alcohol and entertainment under the Licensing Act 2003 encompassing both the legislative and decision making framework of the Act as well as its implications for human rights Fully updated and revised it covers the various forms of authorization for licensable activities and licence and certificate conditions that might be attached as well as the enforcement and appeal provisions of the Act This new edition building on the highly acclaimed original work published in 2005 includes subsequent legislative changes and case law decisions New additions to this edition include expanded coverage of enforcement provisions and police powers a revised and extended chapter on appeals in light of the practical and procedural developments that have evolved in the appeal process amendments to existing regulations and the revised Statutory Guidance issued in 2007 This book is essential reading for all local authorities legal advisers licensing policy advisors operators and the police as well as those applying for licences

Licensing Law Handbook Russell Hewitson, Tom Moss, 2006 The Licensing Act 2003 has introduced major reforms to licensing law and procedure There is now a completely new scheme for licensing the sale and supply of alcohol the provision of regulated entertainment and the provision of late night refreshment Licensing Law Handbook is a clear concise guide to both the new law and procedures It should be the first choice for any practitioner seeking up to date guidance on licensing practice

LICENSING LAW HANDBOOK RUSSELL. HEWITSON, 2024 Alcohol and Entertainment Licensing David A. Chambers, Roger Butterfield, 2006 Licensing applications have become increasingly complex with the advent of the new licensing regime resulting from the extensive Licensing Act 2003 This new text covers every type of licence application relating to liquor and entertainment Issues addressed include what are classed as licensable activities what kind of activities are exempt from licensing laws how should an application be made how are applications determined and how long will a licence last It also covers the more ambiguous aspects of licensing applications what happens when the licence holder dies what to do if the licence is lost etc Chapters on offences and hearings contain vital information with regard to breaches or suspected breaches of licensing law David Chambers and Roger Butterfield have used their vast experience in licensing training and consulting to produce this practical guide which will be of great use to applicants for licences publicans club secretaries etc as well as their professional advisers

Licensing Kerry Barker, Susan Cavender, 2003 The Licensing Act received Royal Assent on July 10 2003 The new Act will mark a major shift in licensing practice by establishing a unified system of regulation of the sale and supply of alcohol in the UK the provision of regulated entertainment and the provision of late night refreshment The new system of licensing will be operated through a range of authorizations to be granted by the local authority The reforms will affect all companies and individuals running activities within the ambit of the Act the lawyers advising them and local authorities charged with licensing powers This new work written by Kerry Barker a barrister with vast experience in the field and Susan Cavender a specialist licensing advocate will analyze the provisions of the statute and explain their implications for licensing practice The book will reproduce the Act     The Licensing Act 2003 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Culture, Media and Sport Committee,2009 This report examines the operation and impact of the Licensing Act 2003 In conclusion the Committee makes several recommendations These include that the Government should together with local authorities licence applicants and other stakeholders evaluate the licensing forms with the aim of making them more user friendly that in the case of not for profit clubs only the bar area should be taking into account when assessing the rateable value of the premises that sports clubs should be placed in a fee band based on 20 per cent of their rateable value that a national database of licence holders be implanted and that the allowable period for transferring a personal licence due to death should be increased to 21 days increasing the limit of Temporary Events Notices TENS to 15 per year whilst enhancing the ability to object to the granting of a TEN that the density of venues in a particular area should always be taken into consideration when granting a premises licence the exemption of venues with a capacity of 200 or less from the need to obtain a licence for the performance of live music and the reintroduction of the two in a bar exemption the introduction of portable licences for circuses and possible exemption of certain low risk small scale travelling entertainments the creation of a new category be created for adult clubs such as lap dancing clubs and that they be licensed in accordance with Government proposals under the Local Government Miscellaneous Provisions Act     Manchester on Alcohol and Entertainment Licensing Law ,2012

Regulating the Night Deborah Talbot,2016-04-08 The promotion of night time economies in town centres across Britain has sparked new fears about disorder violence and binge drinking However there has been little consideration of the social and cultural benefits of a diverse urban nightlife This timely work examines the processes that have led to a mainstreaming of subcultural expression at night and the impact of legislation aimed at providing the police and councils with new powers to manage and contain the social problem of contemporary nightlife Based on an ethnographic study of a London locality the book examines the unwitting consequences of local decision making and the contradictory struggles that ensued Utilizing the concept of the outsider area as a space that stands outside of conventional norms and where cultural innovation and transgression can occur it explores the social consequences of losing contact with the other     Alcohol Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Health Committee,2010 Incorporating HC 368 i to vii session 2008 09 An earlier volume of written evidence to this inquiry published as HC 368 II session 2008 09 ISBN 9780215529756     Conveyancing Handbook Frances Silverman,2015-12-08 The Law Society s Conveyancing Handbook is revised annually by a team of expert editors and contributors directed by an editorial board and edited by Frances Silverman Its up to date guidance on good practice makes it every conveyancers first port of call for the resolution of issues arising from day to day transactions

Among the changes to the law and practice covered by this 22nd edition are good practice regarding pre contract searches and enquiries the scope of Flood Re contaminated land practice note architects certificates after Hunt v Optima regulation affecting off mains drainage These developments and more are considered within a chronological account of a residential conveyancing transaction supported by comprehensive reference materials including all the relevant standard forms and guidance

Local Authority Alcohol and Entertainment Licensing Philip Hyde, 2005 The Licensing Act 2003 makes fundamental changes to liquor and entertainment licensing law shifting responsibility for issuing licenses from magistrates to Local Authorities and also changing the conditions for approval This is a detailed guide to this new alcohol and entertainment licensing regime providing a practical tool for navigating its complexities and putting them into practice Sets out the new approval procedures Explains the new conditions for approval and how they have changed from before Focuses specifically on the changes brought about by the new Act rather than licensing matters more generally Includes relevant text of the Act cross referenced to commentary on the main changes
