Aspects of Aristocracy David Cannadine, Professor of History and Director of the Institute of Historical Research David Cannadine, 1994-01-01 He reconstructs the extraordinary financial history of the dukes of Devonshire narrates the story of the Cozens Hardys a Norfolk family who played a remarkably varied part in the life of their county and offers a controversial reappraisal of the forebears lives work and personalities of Harold Nicolson and Vita Sackville West a portrait notes Cannadine of more than a marriage

The Air Transport Industry in Africa William Kiema, 2025-11-05 This book provides legal analysis of the multilateral liberalisation of the air transport industry in Africa within the framework of the African Union Agenda 2063 initiative the Single African Air Transport Market SAATM Offering a detailed examination of the regulatory framework and policy considerations that have shaped the political economy of air transport in Africa the book offers a comparative analysis with the European Union EU and the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN By highlighting the need for a tailored approach to air transport liberalisation in Africa it underscores the importance of considering the continent s unique socio political context diverse values identities circumstances and challenges arising from its vast and varied landscape The book proposes a principled approach to the implementation of the SAATM initiatives and calls on stakeholders to consider holistic implementation that favours the principle of variable geometry stakeholder engagement and alignment with Agenda 2063 It also emphasises the significance of supporting aviation policies such as safety security financing competition and environmental sustainability The Air Transport Industry in Africa will be of interest to researchers in the fields of aviation law economic law and regional integration in Africa

Design in Airline Travel Posters 1920-1970 David Scott, 2021-01-18 This book studies design in airline travel posters of the 1920 1970 period It is both a semiology and a sociocultural cultural history that explores the way advertising posters combine information and fantasy to create seductive images texts The book is lavishly illustrated in colour the images constituting part of the overall argument The field of poster studies is vast but it is surprising how little work has been done till date on the fundamental structures semiotic and semantic that underpin the visual messages posters produce Most studies of posters focus either on their history on specific themes politics travel sport cinema or on their status as collectable items Though such approaches are valid they hardly account for the specificity of the poster s appeal or for the complex semiotic and cultural issues poster art raises This book sets out to tackle these latter issues since they are fundamental both to the deeper significance and to the wider appeal of the poster as a cultural form In doing so it focuses on the field of airline travel posters which developed precisely in the period of the twentieth century 1920 1970 that coincided with the onset of mass travel

Empire of the Air Jenifer Van Vleck, 2013-11-01 Jenifer Van Vleck s Empire of the Air reveals the central role commercial aviation played in the U S ascent to global preeminence in the twentieth century as the federal government partnered with the aviation industry to deliver American power across the globe and sell the idea of the American Century to the public at home and abroad

Empire in the Air Chandra D. Bhimull, 2017-12-12 Honorable Mention 2019 Victor Turner Prize in Ethnographic Writing given by the Society for Humanistic Anthropology Honorable Mention 2019 Sharon Stephens Prize given by the American Ethnological Society Examines the role that race played in the inception of the airline industry Empire in the Air is at once a history of aviation and an examination of how air travel changed lives along the transatlantic corridor of the African diaspora Focusing on Britain and its Caribbean colonies Chandra Bhimull reveals how the black West Indies shaped the development of British Airways Bhimull offers a unique analysis of early airline travel illuminating the links among empire aviation and diaspora and in doing so provides insights into how racially oppressed people experienced air travel The emergence of artificial flight revolutionized the movement of people and power and Bhimull makes the connection between airplanes and the other vessels that have helped make and maintain the African diaspora the slave ships of the Middle Passage the tracks of the Underground Railroad and Marcus Garvey's black owned ocean liner As a new technology airline travel retained the racist ideas and practices that were embedded in British imperialism and these ideas shaped every aspect of how commercial aviation developed from how airline routes were set to who could travel easily and who could not The author concludes with a look at airline travel today suggesting that racism is still enmeshed in the banalities of contemporary flight

Airline Operations and Management Gerald N. Cook, Bruce G. Billig, 2023-05-04 Airline Operations and Management A Management Textbook presents a survey of the airline industry with a strong managerial perspective It integrates and applies the fundamentals of several management disciplines particularly operations marketing economics and finance to develop a comprehensive overview It also provides readers with a solid historical background and offers a global perspective of the industry with examples drawn from airlines around the world Updates for the second edition include Fresh data and examples A range of international case studies exploring real life applications New or increased coverage of key topics such as the COVID 19 pandemic state aid and new business models New chapters on fleet management and labor relations and HRM Lecture slides for instructors This textbook is for advanced undergraduate and graduate students of airline management but it should also be useful to entry and junior level airline managers and professionals seeking to expand their knowledge of the industry beyond their functional area Hong Kong Takes Flight John D. Wong, 2024-11-01 Commercial aviation took shape in Hong Kong as the city developed into a powerful economy Rather than accepting air travel as an inevitability in the era of global mobility John Wong argues that Hong Kong's development into a regional and global airline hub was not preordained By underscoring the shifting process through which this hub emerged Hong Kong Takes Flight aims to describe globalization and global networks in the making Viewing the globalization of the city through the prism of its airline industry Wong examines how policymakers and businesses asserted themselves against international partners and competitors in a bid to accrue socioeconomic benefits negotiated their interests in Hong Kong's economic success and articulated their expressions of modernity Subject Index of Modern Books Acquired British Museum, 1946 The Flight

Attendant's Shoe Prudence Black, 2011-09-01 Come fly come fly away Stiletto heels miniskirts bobbed wigs shiny new technology and exotic locations were all part of the cosmopolitan life style of the Qantas flight hostesses Today there are over 9000 flight attendants in Australia traversing the skies all wearing a corporate uniform The Flight Attendant's Shoe is the story of the Qantas uniforms and the uniforms of other airlines It is a story about etiquette and protocol about nationalism and internationalism and the way the Australian fashion industry and international designers such as Emilio Pucci and Yves Saint Laurent created a range of designs for flight crew from khaki military style to burnt orange miniskirts and on to the Morrissey designed Indigenous boomerang print Through their uniforms the men and women of the Qantas cabin crew wore the hopes of a young nation forging its identity Stitching together fashion history social history and industrial history this book celebrates an era when flying was truly glamorous

History of Air Cargo and Airmail from the 18th Century Camille Allaz, 2005-03 It was first published in French by the Institut du Transport Aerien in 1998 and received very favourable reviews Through the publication of the English language edition this remarkable work is now accessible to many more readers around the world In addition the author has expanded the book with new sections and he has extensively updated it to bring the story of air cargo into the twenty first century concluding with a look into the future The author Camille Allaz served as Senior Vice President Cargo at Air France for 10 years which gave him an insider's close up view of his subject a privilege not enjoyed by many historians There is no aspect of mail or cargo transport by air that has not been thoroughly researched and documented by Allaz from the first brief transport of animals by balloon in France in 1783 to the vast global networks of the integrated express carriers in the 21st century As a true scholar he fits his narrative into the larger framework of political military economic and aviation history This book should stand for years as the definitive work on the history of air cargo and airmail and will be of immense value to the academic community to the air cargo industry the postal services and to the general public

The Aeroplane, 1951 Airliners of the World Stewart Wilson, 1999 Airliners of the World is a comprehensive directory of the world's airliners since the inception of air transport through to the early days of the 21st century with special emphasis on the about to be launched projects Airline Manual United States. Aeromobilities Bart Paul Vanspauwen, Iñigo Sánchez-Fuarros, 2025-06-23 This edited collection explores how national airlines in postcolonial states operate at the complex intersection of corporate branding cultural governance tourism development and national identity formation It conceptualizes airplanes and airports as both tangible infrastructural spaces and symbolic domains that connect geographically distant regions while embodying aspirations of political sovereignty and cultural unity Through diverse case studies spanning multiple continents the book examines how commercial aviation's physical and cultural spaces either reinforce or challenge colonial histories and imperial legacies The volume reveals how modern Western imperial narratives were shaped through specific cultural and social negotiations that played out in airline branding route networks service standards and cultural policies It analyzes how airlines serve as vehicles for projecting soft power and cultural diplomacy while mediating between local traditions and global modernity Drawing on rich empirical examples from Angola Argentina Australia Belgium Brazil Jamaica Kenya France Hong Kong Indonesia Lebanon Mexico Peru South Africa Turkey and the United States this collection demonstrates how airlines employ sophisticated cultural management and corporate branding strategies to shape national and regional identities By examining airlines as sites where business strategy cultural policy and identity politics intersect this collection advances our understanding of how transportation infrastructure shapes social imaginaries and power relations in our increasingly connected yet culturally diverse world The research has important implications for scholars of business history cultural studies postcolonial theory and transportation geography while offering practical insights for policymakers and airline industry leaders

Aviation in the Literature and Culture of Interwar Britain Michael McCluskey, Luke Seaber, 2020-12-01 Aviation in the Literature and Culture of Interwar Britain looks at the impact of aviation in Britain and beyond through the 1920s and 1930s This book considers how in this period flying went from a weapon of war to an extensive industry that included civilian air travel air mail delivery flying shows and campaigns to create airmindedness Essays look at these developments through the work of writers filmmakers and flyers and examines the airminded modernism that marked this radical period Its fourteen chapters include studies of texts by Virginia Woolf George Orwell Elizabeth Bowen W H Auden T H White and John Masefield accounts of the annual RAF Display at Hendon and the Schneider Trophy and the achievements of celebrity flyers such as Amy Johnson This collection provides a fresh perspective on the interwar period by bringing analysis of aviation and airmindedness to the study of British literature history modernism mobilities and the history of technology and transportation

Subject Index of the Modern Works Added to the British Museum Library, 1961 Palestine in the Air Chin-chin Yap, 2025-01-23 As the first cultural history of Palestinian aviation Palestine in the Air reveals civil aviation's role in the question of Palestine over the past century How do Palestinians as individuals communities and as a nascent state engage with the air How does their systemic exclusion from aerial agency inform dominant and counter narratives of culture and modernity International civil aviation is a powerful tool for the disenfranchisement of Palestinian statehood connectivity and mobility Yet Palestinians have constantly sought to harness aviation as a legitimate component of modern state building They have also creatively appropriated aviation technologies including balloons kites and drones as instruments of resistance exploiting flight's symbolic qualities of escape and liberation to highlight the injustices of occupation Using an interdisciplinary approach that draws on media studies cultural studies critical theory diplomacy and history Palestine in the Air examines civil aviation's political social and cultural impact upon the Palestinian quest for sovereignty The book makes use of an unprecedented range of aviation related sources spanning unpublished memoirs print and image archives interviews art film literature poetry and stand up comedy
