Saints & Seasons Nasario García, Ana Pacheco, Richard McCord, 2005 Insiders' Guide® to Albuquerque Tania Casselle, 2010-04-13 Insiders Guide to Albuquerque is the essential source for in depth travel and relocation information to one of New Mexico's most colorful cities. Written by a local and true insider, this guide offers a personal and practical perspective of Albuquerque and its surrounding environs. New Mexico Death Rituals Ana Pacheco, 2019-11-25 A look at the Land of Enchantment's burial customs from the Pueblo Indians and Spanish colonists to Jewish immigrants and American veterans. New Mexico's harsh terrain, countless wars, and epidemics were a challenging and fascinating environment for the many cultures and peoples who settled there. When tragedy struck, their faith and religious rituals allowed them to mourn, celebrate, and commemorate their dead. From Pueblo Indians and Spanish colonists to Jewish immigrants and American veterans, many old traditions have endured and blended into modern society. The area is also home to many unique death sites, including the graves of Smokey Bear and Billy the Kid, and the largest contemporary collection of human bones in the world. Author Ana Pacheco guides you through the history of Christmas death rituals, roadside descansos, communal smallpox graves, Civil War memorials, and more. La Herencia, 2000 Beyond My Adobe Schoolhouse Nasario

García, 2024-09-01 Nasario García dedicated his life to educating others in a variety of settings, including universities and prisons. A native of rural New Mexico and a beloved writer and folklorist, in Beyond My Adobe Schoolhouse García reflects on his experiences of being educated and of being an educator. He takes readers from his childhood in a one-room schoolhouse through graduate school and to universities and other settings in Pennsylvania, Illinois, Colorado, and New Mexico, all places in which he spent time teaching in various capacities. Beyond My Adobe Schoolhouse is a love song to education and a reminder to everyone that it is possible to find a life, love, and purpose beyond the circumstances into which they were born.

Tradición Revista, 2005 Paths to Discovery Norma E. Cantú, 2008 In Paths to Discovery, a group of extraordinary Chicanas trace how their interest in math and science at a young age developed into a passion fed by talent and determination. Today, they are teaching at major universities, setting public and institutional policy, and pursuing groundbreaking research. These testimonios, personal stories, will encourage young Chicanas to enter the fields of mathematics, science, and engineering and to create futures in classrooms, boardrooms, and laboratories across the nation.

Sport and Apartheid South Africa Michelle M. Sikes, Toby C. Rider, Matthew P. Llewellyn, 2021-11-29 As athletes of today grapple with how to use their public platforms to fight for activist causes, Sport and Apartheid South Africa: Histories of Politics, Power, and Protest examines a set of longer histories of sport, race, and activism. The book seeks to uncover and understand new historical aspects of apartheid and sport, challenge myths, and rethink dominant narratives. It examines the subject of racially segregated sport in South Africa from national and transnational perspectives, asking questions about how athletes and administrators, transnational anti-apartheid groups, and activists and politicians around the world interpreted and internalized racial segregation in South Africa By connecting the local to the global this book illuminates the ways in which apartheid sport animated national and international debates ranging from racism and human rights to Cold War politics and post colonialism Sport and Apartheid South Africa is a significant new contribution to the study of race and politics in sport and will be a great resource for academics researchers and advanced students of History Politics International Relations Sociology and Political Geography The chapters in this book were originally published in The International Journal of the History of Sport Latina ,2003-08
