With His Pistol in His Hand Américo Paredes, 2010-03-01 Gregorio Cortez Lira a ranchhand of Mexican parentage was virtually unknown until one summer day in 1901 when he and a Texas sheriff pistols in hand blazed away at each other after a misunderstanding. The sheriff was killed and Gregorio fled immediately realizing that in practice there was one law for Anglo Texans another for Texas Mexicans. The chase capture and imprisonment of Cortez are high drama that cannot easily be forgotten. Even today in the cantinas along both sides of the Rio Grande Mexicans sing the praises of the great sheriff killer in the ballad which they call El Corrido de Gregorio Cortez. Américo Paredes tells the story of Cortez the man and the legend in vivid fascinating detail in With His Pistol in His Hand which also presents a unique study of a ballad in the making. Deftly woven into the story are interpretations of the Border country its history its people and their folkways
