Agenda For The Nation Papers On Domestic And Foreign Policy:

Economic Events, Ideas, and Policies George L. Perry, James Tobin, 2010-12-01 In November 1999 the Brookings Institution and Yale University jointly sponsored a conference to reconsider the national economic policies of the 1960s and the theories that influenced them in light of subsequent events in the economy and of developments in economic theory and research This volume contains the papers and comments of the participants The 1960s were years of difficult challenges to U S policymakers and of important initiatives to meet them The economic doldrums at the start of the decade gave way to strong expansion and prosperity which however ended with excessive inflation The decade that followed was the most turbulent of the postwar period with global shock waves from oil prices two deep recessions and historic changes in the international financial system Both policymaking and economic thinking have evolved since the 1960s The papers gathered in this volume examine the economics of the 1960s as the starting point in this evolution Several of the contributors to this volume were involved in policymaking in the 1960s Their papers provide firsthand insights to the analyses and priorities of that period and a prelude to examination of subsequent ideas and policies Younger scholars represented in the volume bring different perspectives All participants have been active in economic research since the 1960s collectively they represent a wide range of expertise in economic analysis This volume is dedicated to the memory of Arthur Okun a major figure in economics and economic policy throughout the Kennedy Johnson era at Yale at the Council on Economic Advisers and at Brookings He served as chairman of the council and chief economic adviser to President Johnson At Brookings he and George Perry founded the Brookings Panel on Economic Activity and its journal Brookings Papers on Economic Activity

Riker, 1993 Experienced politicians and legislators have always known that by shaping the agenda they can influence decisions In the past experienced politicians knowledge has been mostly anecdotal The development of social choice theory provides a basis for a fuller and more systematic understanding of the effects of agendas on outcomes In this book the appreciation of the role and workings of agendas that has been developed using social choice theory is presented in a nontechnical way This collection of essays explores several features of agenda formation by developing ideas such as that most issues are one dimensional agenda items and issues are certain to change because losers have an interest in changing them domestic concerns at least partially determine agendas and issues in international politics and new issues and arguments can abruptly change the expectations about winning The distinguished contributors argue that the knowledge needed to compete includes knowing what the possible agenda items or issues are where they come from and how to manipulate them advantageously BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved The Europeanization of National
