Agent for Change Harvey Steele, Agent For Change Gary MacEoin, 2021-04-18 Few people deserve a biography once observed a British writer and of those even fewer get the biographer they deserve Such happily has not been true of Harvey Pablo Steele He richly deserves a biography and has found in Gary MacEoin a writer eminently equipped to understand and tell his story It is the story first of a priest who has always managed to be where trouble is First China during the Japanese invasion then a stint as an Air Force chaplain in the China Burma India theater Next to the Dominican Republic under Trujillo and presently in Panama where the church seems set on a collision course with the state Pablo Steele has had an interesting life and Gary MacEoin unfailingly catches the excitement of mine strikes in Nova Scotia in Steele s boyhood the terror of Japanese air raids and the Graham Greene atmosphere of living under several different types of totalitarianism An interesting life yes but more significantly an important one Harvey Steele has been an agent for change a stubborn social reformer who has never let realism darken his bright vision of what could be and whose idealism insists that the future must be shaped now through study work and sacrifice Credit unions and cooperatives unlocked the doors to a more human future for the miners of his native Nova Scotia They could do the same in the Dominican Republic or Panama argued Steele and he has spent much of his life proving that argument He has also embodied in his life the massive shift in attitude and awareness which has taken place within Christianity itself the realization that the proper concern of the church is in the street as well as in the sanctuary and that slum housing and hunger are religious issues *Catalog of Copyright Entries.
