Hygiène des plaisirs selon les âges, les tempéraments et les saisons ... Deuxième édition Auguste Debay,1867 Cosmopolis ,1896 The French Invention of Menopause and the Medicalisation of Women's Ageing Alison M. Downham Moore,2022-10-06 Doctors writing about menopause in France vastly outnumbered those in other cultures throughout the entire nineteenth century The concept of menopause was invented by French male medical students in the aftermath of the French Revolution becoming an important pedagogic topic and a common theme of doctors professional identities in postrevolutionary biomedicine Older women were identified as an important patient cohort for the expanding medicalisation of French society and were advised to entrust themselves to the hygienic care of doctors in managing the whole era of life from around and after the final cessation of menses However menopause owed much of its conceptual weft to earlier themes of women as the sicker sex of vitalist crisis of the vapours and of astrological climacteric years This is the first comprehensive study of the origins of the medical concept of menopause richly contextualising its role in nineteenth century French medicine and revealing the complex threads of meaning that informed its invention It tells a complex story of how women s ageing featured in the demographic revolution in modern science in the denigration of folk medicine in the unique French field of hygi ne and in the fixation on women in the emergence of modern psychiatry It reveals the nineteenth century French origins of the still current medical and alternative health approaches to women s ageing as something to be managed through gynaecological surgery hormonal replacement and lifestyle intervention
