sacrifices throughout history and fire in its fundamental role in rites and religious practices this book analyses fire rituals as the unifying structure in time and space in Indo European cultures from the Bronze Age onwards It asks the question how and why was fire the ultimate power in culture and cosmology Fire as an agent and divinity was fundamental in all major sacrifices In Europe ritual fires in relation to agriculture and fertility may also explain the enigma of cremation Cremated remains were ground and used in fertility rituals and ancestral fires played an essential role in metallurgy and the creation of cosmos Thus the role of fire rituals in culture and cosmology enables a unique understanding of historic developmental processes For students and academics studying Indo European culture history from the Bronze Age onwards this book has a broad interdisciplinary audience including archaeology ethnography folklore religious and Indo European studies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license
