Aging In Ontario Diversity In The New Millennium:

Aging in Ontario Wendy Lynn Maurier, Herbert C. Northcott, 2000 Geographically Ontario is the largest province in Canada with a seniors population exceeding 1.3 million persons. These seniors are diverse in terms of age, gender, ethnicity, socio-economic status, geographical location, and health. The authors examine the effects of this diversity on the aging experience and further explore the health and human service needs of these diverse groups. In addition, policy implications and challenges facing health and human service providers are also addressed. The book concludes with an overview of the availability and accessibility of services provided for Ontario seniors and evaluation of the relevance of each service or program and suggestions for prospective programs intended for the diverse population of older persons living in Ontario.

The Culture of Welfare Markets Ingo Bode, 2007-10-24 This book examines the rise of welfare markets in Western societies and explores their functioning, regulation, and embeddedness by addressing the particular field of old age provision, including both retirement provision and elderly care. It goes beyond a mere social policy analysis by investigating major cultural underpinnings of the new quasi-markets, with these underpinnings embracing collective normative representations of how societies should institutionally handle old age. The book looks at whether pension and care systems are converging under the influence of globalization, with marketization being a key phenomenon and to what extent this is creating a transnational culture of welfare markets. This book is the first to systematically describe and analyse the phenomenon of welfare markets, elucidates the complex cultural underpinnings of care and pensions systems in an era of marketization, arguing that we are facing a cultural struggle over the way late modern societies conceptualize institutional old age provision.

Global Realignments and the Canadian Nation in the Third Millennium Karin Ikas, 2010 With aggravating global realignments, the dynamics and contradictions of a world risk society are looming ahead in the unfolding Third Millennium, while globalization is gaining further steam. To this bears witness a potpourri of often frightening geopolitical, social, cultural, economic, demographic, ecological, and other changes and challenges that gives substantial cause for concern about getting lost in a trans-whatever sea of turmoil, uncertainty, and indeterminateness. The resultant current backlash or rather renewed interest in the nation as a collective identity-establishing category is an effort to gain some anchorage in ever more disintegrating times and proves especially those theoreticians wrong for whom the whole concept of the nation has worn off since long ago. In 16 resourceful essays, internationally distinguished Canadian and European experts from a variety of fields take a fresh look at these developments by focussing on one of the most fascinating multicultural and multifaceted nation-states in the world: Canada in the Third Millennium. The topics they discuss include, among others, Canada's difficult dissociation from Europe and the USA, the reframing and reclaiming of the Canadian story, the role of nations within the nation, the efforts to transcend the nation, pending geopolitical and geo-ecological crises, global issues, and new wars. Collectively, the entries prove that Canada is a very progressive nation and opens up new perspectives for other collectives currently reassessing their national identities in a global environment Thus the book reaches well beyond the study of Canada and will be valuable to academics professionals teachers and students of various disciplines coping with the issue at stake as well as the general reader Canadian Books in Print Marian Butler,2000 The Oxford Handbook of Diversity in Organizations Regine Bendl,Inge Bleijenbergh,Elina Henttonen,Albert J. Mills,2015 Description of the foundations of organizing and managing diversities and multidisciplinary intersectional and critical analyses on key issues Competitive Industrial Development in the Age of Information Richard J. Braudo,Jeffrey Macintosh,2005-08-19 This book examines how transnational corporations small to medium enterprises and governments have emerged as the principal players in industrial development This valuable work examines this trend with particular reference to the role of the tax policy in technology development the financing of technology sector SMEs the role of government policy and the relationship between competition and co operation

Geography in America at the Dawn of the 21st Century Gary L. Gaile,Cort J. Willmott,2004-02-05 Geography in America at the Dawn of the 21st Century surveys American geographers current research in their specialty areas and tracks trends and innovations in the many subfields of geography As such it is both a state of the discipline assessment and a topical reference It includes an introduction by the editors and 48 chapters each on a specific specialty The authors of each chapter were chosen by their specialty group of the American Association of Geographers AAG Based on a process of review and revision the chapters in this volume have become truly representative of the recent scholarship of American geographers While it focuses on work since 1990 it additionally includes related prior work and work by non American geographers Includes a foreword by the eminent geographer Gilbert White Family Ties and Aging Ingrid Arnet Connidis,2010 This advanced textbook covers issues of family ties and aging broadly the goal being to provide an integrated and thorough representation of what we know from the current research Whereas books on families and aging have traditionally focused on ties to a spouse and to children and grandchildren Family Ties Aging is more extensive and more reflective of contemporary society The text includes groups and relationships that typically receive short shrift exploring such neglected populations as single divorced and childless older people and their family relationships as well as sibling relationships among the elderly live in partnerships not formalized by marriage and the kinds of family ties forged by gay and lesbian persons over the life course The book weaves the vast range of information we now have about the many facets of family relationships and aging into a critical comprehensive and integrated whole Resources in Education ,2001-10 Canadian Cinema in the New Millennium Lee Carruthers,Charles Tepperman,2023-01-15 At the turn of the millennium Canadian cinema appeared to have reached an apex of aesthetic and commercial transformation Domestic filmmaking has since declined in visibility the sense of celebrity once associated with independent directors has diminished projects garner less critical attention and concepts that made late twentieth century Canadian film legible have been reconsidered or displaced Canadian Cinema in the New Millennium examines this dramatic transformation and revitalizes our engagement with Canadian cinema in the contemporary moment presenting focused case studies of films and filmmakers and contextual studies of Canadian film policy labour and film festivals Contributors trace key developments since 2000 including the renouveau or Quebec New Wave Indigenous filmmaking i docs and diasporic experimental filmmaking Reflecting the way film in Canada mediates multiple cultures forging new affinities among anglophone francophone and Indigenous language examples this book engages familiar figures such as Denis Villeneuve Xavier Dolan Sarah Polley and Guy Maddin in the same breath as small budget independent films documentaries and experimental works that have emerged in the Canadian scene Fuelled by close attention to the films themselves and a desire to develop new scholarly approaches Canadian Cinema in the New Millennium models a renewed commitment to keeping the conversation about Canadian cinema vibrant and alive American Book Publishing Record ,2001 Handbook of Research on Educational Leadership for Equity and Diversity Linda C.

Tillman,James Joseph Scheurich,2013-08-21 The rapid growth of diversity within U S schooling and the heightened attention to the lack of equity in student achievement school completion and postsecondary attendance has made equity and diversity two of the principle issues in education educational leadership and educational leadership research The Handbook of Research on Educational Leadership for Equity and Diversity is the first research based handbook that comprehensively addresses the broad diversity in U S schools by race ethnicity culture language gender disability sexual identity and class The Handbook both highly values the critically important strengths and assets that diversity brings to the United States and its schools yet at the same time candidly critiques the destructive deficit thinking biases and prejudices that undermine school success for many groups of students Well known chapter authors explore diversity and related inequities in schools and the achievement problems these issues present to school leaders Each chapter reviews theoretical and empirical evidence of these inequities and provides research based recommendations for practice and for future research Celebrating the broad diversity in U S schools the Handbook of Research on Educational Leadership for Equity and Diversity critiques the inequities connected to that diversity and provides evidence based practices to promote student success for all children

Place, Health, and Diversity Melissa D. Giesbrecht, Valorie A. Crooks, 2016-06-03 Although health equity and diversity focussed research has begun to gain momentum there is still a paucity of research from health geographers that explicitly explores how geographic factors such as place space scale community and location inform multiple axes of difference Such axes can include residential location age sex gender race ethnicity culture religion socio economic status marital status sexual orientation education level and immigration status Specifically focussing on Canada's rapidly changing society which is becoming increasingly pluralized and diverse this book examines the place health diversity intersection in this national context Health geographers are well positioned to offer a valuable contribution to diversity focussed research because place is inextricably linked to differential experiences of health For example access to health care and health promoting services and resources is largely influenced by where one is physically and socially situated within the web of diversity Furthermore applying geographic concepts like place in both the physical and social sense allows researchers to explore multiple axes of difference simultaneously Such geographic perspectives as presented in this book offer new insights into what makes diverse people in diverse places with access to diverse resources un healthy in different ways in Canada and beyond The Dawn of Canada's Century Gordon Darroch,2014-01-01 Sir Wilfrid Laurier famously claimed that the twentieth century would be Canada s century and indeed its opening decade witnessed remarkable territorial demographic and social transformations Yet the lives of those who lived and laboured to fashion these changes remain largely hidden from historical view The Dawn of Canada s Century presents close and systematic interpretations of everyday lives based on the first national sample of the 1911 census Written by many of Canada s leading historical researchers The Dawn of Canada s Century demonstrates the wide ranging and revealing social histories made possible by the new Canadian Century Research Infrastructure an innovative database of national samples of decennial census microdata from 1911 through 1951 This revealing collection sheds new light on topics including identity and language the socio demography of aboriginal populations national labour market dynamics earnings distributions social mobility gender and immigration experiences and the technologies of census taking Situating early twentieth century Canada within international historical population studies these essays provide new ways to understand individuals lives and connect them to larger structural changes Contributors include Peter Baskerville Alberta Claude Bellevance Universit du Queb c Trois Rivi re Sean T Cadigan Memorial Gordon Darroch York Lisa Dillon UdeM Chad Gaffield SSHRC Danielle Gauvreau Concordia Gustave Goldmann Ottawa Adam J Green Ottawa Kris Inwood Guelph Charles Jones Toronto Richard Marcoux Laval Mary MacKinnon McGill Chris Minns London School of Economics Byron Moldofsky Toronto France Normand Universit du Queb c Trois Rivi re Stella Park Toronto Terry Quinlan Newfoundland and Labrador Statistics Agency Laurent Richard Laval Katharine Rollwagen Ottawa Evelyn Ruppert Goldsmiths University of London Eric W Sager Victoria Marc St Hilaire Laval and Patricia Thornton Concordia
