handbook a leading group of experts improve our understanding of the challenges faced by children when coping with death dying and bereavement Organized into three parts the volume addresses specific issues involved in confrontations with death discusses the role of bereavement and explains specific therapeutic interventions for caregivers The reader is introduced to four distinct periods within childhood infancy toddlerhood early childhood and middle childhood Through case examples the contributors illustrate a child s experience with death and bereavement in all four areas The book s practical orientation and emphasis will appeal to a broad array of caregivers including counselors therapists nurses and mental health practitioners concerned with child and adolescent death and bereavement African American Grief Paul C. Rosenblatt, Beverly R.

Wallace, 2021-08-11 African American Grief is a unique contribution to the field both as a professional resource for counselors therapists social workers clergy and nurses and as a reference volume for thanatologists academics and researchers The classic edition includes a new preface from the authors reflecting on their work and on the changes in society and the field since the book s initial publication This work considers the potential effects of slavery racism and white ignorance and oppression on the African American experience and conception of death and grief in America Based on interviews with 26 African Americans who have faced the death of a significant person in their lives the authors document describe and analyze key phenomena of the unique African American experience of grief The book combines moving narratives from the interviewees with sound research analysis and theoretical discussion of important issues in thanatology as well as topics such as the influence of the African American church gospel music family grief medical racism as a cause of death and discrimination during life and after death Invisible Children in the Society and Its Schools Sue

Books, 2015-04-24 The authors in this book use the metaphors of invisibility and visibility to explore the social and school lives of many children and young people in North America whose complexity strengths and vulnerabilities are largely unseen in the society and its schools These invisible children are socially devalued in the sense that alleviating the difficult conditions of their lives is not a priority children who are subjected to derogatory stereotypes who are educationally neglected in schools that respond inadequately if at all to their needs and who receive relatively little attention from scholars in the field of education or writers in the popular press The chapter authors some of the most passionate and insightful scholars in the field of education today detail oversights and assaults visible and invisible but also affirm the capacity of many of these young people to survive flourish and often educate others despite the painful and even desperate circumstances of their lives By sharing their voices providing basic information about them and offering thoughtful analysis of their social situation this volume combines education and advocacy in an accessible volume responsive to some of the most pressing issues of our time Although their research methodologies differ all of the contributors aim to get the facts straight and to set them in a meaningful context New in the Third Edition Chapters retained from the previous edition have been thoroughly revised and updated and five totally new chapters have been added on the topics of young people pushed into the school to prison pipeline the environmental landscape of two out of school Mexican migrant teens in the rural Midwest the perceptions and practices in and outside schools that construct African American boys as school failures negative portrayals of blackness in the context of understanding the collateral damage of continued white privilege and working class pregnant and parenting teens efforts to create positive identities for themselves Of interest to a broad range of researchers students and practitioners across the field of education this compelling book is accessible to all readers It is particularly appropriate as a text for courses that address the social context of education cultural and political change and public policy including social foundations of education sociology of education multicultural education curriculum studies and educational policy

Children and HIV/AIDS Gary Anderson, Constance Ryan, Susan Taylor-Brown, Myra White-Gray, 2017-11-30 In December 1982 the Centers for Disease Control received the first reports of cases of children with HIV AIDS Since that time the child welfare system as well as other human service organizations have been coping with and responding to the crises of children and families living with HIV AIDS including the considerable number of children affected by AIDS through the illness of their parents siblings or other family members This volume is intended as a resource for personnel within the child welfare field serving children and families whose lives are touched by HIV and AIDS The contributors add insight to and fuel the discussion of the fight against AIDS They provide tools to help better serve the children and adolescents that the current epidemic so tragically affects Chapters and contributors include Factors Associated with Parents Decision to Disclose Their HIV Diagnosis to Their Children by Lori S Wiener Haven B Battles and Nancy E Heilman Custody Planning with HIV Affected Families by Sally Mason Correlates and Distribution of HIV Risk Behaviors Among Homeless Youths in New York City by Michael C Clatts W Rees Davis J L Sotheran and Aylin Attillasoy and HIV Prevention for Youths in Independent Living Programs by Wendy F Auslander Vered Slonim Nevo Diane Elze and Michael Sherraden Originally published as a special issue of Child Welfare this volume examines lessons learned from a variety of perspectives and settings and identifies a number of continuing challenges facing the field Children and HIV AIDS is an invaluable compendium that should be read by social workers and health specialists and all those affected by the epidemic

Adopting the Song of Expression: An Emotional Symphony within Aids And The New Orphans Coping With Death

In a global eaten by screens and the ceaseless chatter of fast connection, the melodic elegance and emotional symphony produced by the written word usually fade in to the back ground, eclipsed by the constant sound and disturbances that permeate our lives. But, set within the pages of Aids And The New Orphans Coping With Death an enchanting literary value brimming with raw emotions, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced.
