Aids Epidemic Private Rights And The Public Interest:

Public Power, Private Interests and Where Do We Fit In? Edmund F. Byrne, 1998 All over the world the statues of Mary are miraculously crying In the meantime a journalist in Washington D C is diverted away from her own personal demons when she takes it upon herself to question why the Vatican is not declaring these occurrences as miracles after witnessing the unexplainable phenomena herself The journalist suspects her nightly barrage of haunting nightmares about the violent murders of countless women from five thousand year old priestesses to women accused of being witches in the seventeenth century may have something to do with the answer as she investigates the biggest story of her life Women all over the world in the 21st century are feeling the awakening as the discovery of ancient artifacts are disproving the beliefs set forth by patriarchal religions for thousands of years When the journalist receives a visitation from a beautiful Goddess who at first appears to be the Virgin Mary she suddenly realizes that an ancient religious and political cover up has grossly distorted some very important historical truths As the journalist investigates and begins to publicly write about what she has uncovered death threats and terror follow next as powerful members of the world's patriarchal religions and the age old male run organizations that support them fight viciously to keep one of the world's oldest and most deceptive societal form of control against women hidden from the world But as intimidation and threats increase so too do the miracles and visitations from the real Sleeping Goddess as she awakens once again to bless and protect the world while igniting the hearts and souls of oppressed women everywhere

AIDS and the Hospice Community Madalon O'Rawe Amenta, Claire B. Tehan, 1991 With the rise of the AIDS epidemic hospice units and care centers play an important role in the care of terminally ill AIDS patients AIDS and the Hospice Community documents facts and discusses concerns in current AIDS hospice care It presents an authoritative commentary on many common AIDS perceptions held in the United States and describes research projects and findings that detail these and other barriers to AIDS hospice care This insightful book gives examples of hospices that have entered into AIDS patient care and shows that such programs can be extremely successful for everyone involved By describing successful programs and barriers that still need to be overcome it helps agency administrators plan AIDS policies and programs and promotes further research by identifying specific areas in need of study AIDS and the Hospice Community discusses all aspects of AIDS and hospice care including AIDS in prisons and rural areas eligibility criteria variations in the normal grieving process when the bereavement is a death from AIDS and the great need for education to dispel myths and misconceptions about AIDS Chapters also explore reasons hospices are often hesitant to take on AIDS patients such as confusion and fear of transmission of the disease the social stigma financial considerations and the severity of personal and professional demands on caregivers All professionals involved in AIDS care especially in hospice settings including clinicians managers educators planners and policymakers will become aware of the specific challenges they face in providing AIDS care and discover ways to successfully meet these challenges

The AIDS Crisis and the Modern Self S.

Rinken,2013-04-17 In industrialized countries HIV AIDS is now increasingly perceived as a chronic condition Yet initially before combination therapy became available this pandemic was widely associated with premature or even imminent death Receiving the diagnosis typically led to a dramatic biographical disruption This highly original book turns this basic feature of life with HIV into the vantage point for a fascinating analysis of Western subjectivity Combining a host of empirical observations with the debate on the modern self the author argues that the self construction of people with HIV highlights the precarious yet indispensable status of the self in contemporary Western society Constructing one s biography in terms of self actualization is in fact a manifestation of nihilism it evokes a standard of certainty which on closer examination cannot be sustained Written in a lucid style this unique book will appeal to scholars and students in the fields of sociology social psychology social anthropology social theory and philosophy as well as anybody interested in the relationship between the self and society or the experience of living with HIV AIDS AIDS Bibliography ,1993 AIDS Narratives Steven F. Kruger,2013-10-28 This is the first book length study of the rich fiction that has emerged from the AIDS crisis Examining first the ways in which scientific discourse on AIDS has reflected ideologies of gender and sexuality such as the construction of AIDS as a disease of gay men part of a battle over masculinity and thus largely excluding women with AIDS from public attention the book considers how such discourses have shaped narrative understandings of AIDS On the one hand AIDS is seen as an invariably fatal weakening of an individual s bodily defenses a depiction often used to reconfirm an identification between disease and a weak and vulnerable gayness On the other hand AIDS is understood in terms of an epidemic attributable to gay immorality or unnaturalness The fiction of AIDS depends upon these two narratives with one major subgenre of AIDS novel presenting narratives of personal illness decline and death and a second focusing on epidemic spread These novels also question the narrative structures upon which they depend intervening particularly against the homophobia of those structures though also sometimes reinforcing it AIDS and the Body Politic Catherine Waldby,2003-09-02 Catherine Waldby s informative study draws on feminist theory cultural studies the philosophy of science and gay and lesbian studies to problematise the factual scientific discourse about AIDS and interpret it as a political discourse Waldby argues that much AIDS discourse relies on an implicit and unconscious equation between sexual health and heterosexual masculinity In this equation between women bisexual and gay men are the targets of preventative programmes while heterosexual men tend to remain unaddressed by such programmes The Aids Epidemic Padraig O'Malley,1988 Collects articles on the AIDS epidemic and related topics from vaccine research and public health issues to the impact of the disease on literature and culture Confronting AIDS Through Literature Judith Laurence Pastore,1993 This anthology offers an array of viewpoints on the use of literature to confront AIDS In Part 1 the authors a o Michael Denny Paul Reed James W Jones chronicle the increasing significance of AIDS in fiction journalism drama and contemporary spirituality Part 2 offers a sampling of creative writing on AIDS with fragments by a o Paul Monette Melvin Dixon Joel Redon David Feinberg Part 3 shows how AIDS literature can enlighten and energize humanities composition and medical students

The Heavens Are Falling Walter J. Karplus, 2013-11-11 Each day we are bombarded with news of a new catastrophe of worldwide proportions promising to obliterate a part if not all of humankind Confronted with these warnings of impending doom our best defense is to understand how valid or invalid these predictions of calamity are By perceiving these threats in a wise and sagacious way we can best meet future challenges by not earmarking precious resources for wrong or misleading reasons Walter Karplus a professor of computer sciences at UCLA in his 35 years of experience has made predictions for all kinds of phenomena by generating models and computer simulations His decades of experience have taught him what we can and cannot predict with any accuracy Dr Karplus surveys the most hotly debated catastrophes that many scientists have predicted will imminently endanger the lives of countless people all over the globe These catastrophes include the depletion of the ozone layer the Greenhouse Effect nuclear radiation acid rain the AIDS epidemic the population explosion another Great Depression and earthquakes Drawing on his superb background he assesses the strengths and weaknesses of arguments propounding the seriousness of these calamities All the while he never allows us to lose sight of the profound shortcomings of scientific prediction In his singularly engaging manner Dr Karplus traces the fascinating art of prediction from our earliest ancestors to today He pronounces at what point prediction even within science becomes a black art He elucidates the problems that computer simulations have in predicting events and goes on to pinpoint when and where these models lapse into the area of pure conjecture Through reason and wit Walter Karplus teaches us how to bring a trained eye to the predictions of disaster that unceasingly assault us The Heavens Are Falling is an illuminating and entertaining work that bestows on us the wisdom to make informed judgments before taking arms against a sea of troubles

Women Transforming Politics Cathy Cohen, Kathleen B. Jones, Joan C. HIV/AIDS in Sport Gopal Sankaran, Dale R. Bonsall, 1999 Now you can sort through the many complex issues regarding HIV AIDS and sport with this definitive multidisciplinary book You ll learn the medical facts about HIV and AIDS and discover the important role you play in prevention and control of HIV HIV AIDS in Sport debunks common myths and enables you to establish standardized guidelines that take medical ethical and legal concerns into account You will also learn the personal stories of high profile athletes who have been afflicted with HIV including Earvin Magic Johnson Arthur Ashe and Greg Louganis Health Services Reports ,2005 An International Law Perspective on the Protection of Human Rights in the TRIPS Agreement Ping Xiong,2012-03-20 This book analyses the relationship between the TRIPS Agreement and the right to health and relevant human rights norms by using the tools of treaty interpretation of public international law Private Rights and Public Illusions Tibor R. Machan,2018-04-17 When members of the media address politicians or report on social problems they assume that whatever issues are important in society must be a matter of public or state concern Yet the state or government is but a small part of any human society Machan asserts that while the exact nature of government is a complicated question only a totalitarian government aims to assume responsibility for every possible concern of its citizenry Machan believes that the concept public is too broadly used to mean any problem that vocal citizens want government to address Private Rights Public Illusions focuses on the proper scope of government authority especially in regard to people s economic or commercial affairs The public realm is one wherein we must act collectively and subordinate individual will to a common purpose But according to Machan in the rest of our spheres of concern no such subjugation is necessary or even desirable Because he sees the public realm as smaller than is generally believed he argues that if government continues to intervene in affairs outside this public realm then restrictions on individual liberties will become an obstacle to society s important progress Private Rights Public Illusions combines empirical with philosophical analysis and argument Its radical critique of government intervention will be of interest to policymakers philosophers and political scientists and theorists From the foreword by Nicholas Rescher Machan clearly sees that the state that protects is a state that controls and that an all controlling state is to all intents and purposes a prison Deeply rooted in a widely informed background in political philosophy and American constitutional thought Machan s book issues a clarion call against such an assault on citizen sovereignty and individual rights He proceeds to examine a great host of issues in the domain of contemporary public policy disputes governmental regulation prior restraint occupational health and safety the right to know pollution control product liability freedom of expressions and various others His discussion does not simply ride some ideological hobby horse as so many in this area do but is deeply concerned to ground its deliberations in a combined care for philosophical principles empirical realities and contemporary texts AIDS, Drugs and Prevention Richard Hartnoll,Tim Rhodes,2002-03-11 Strong international focus with high profile contributors from the UK US France Spain and the Netherlands Lack of material attempting to evaluate critically health promotion and health service responses particularly with regard to community based interventions among hard to reach populations Richard Hartnoll is Co central feature of relationships within the Mafia oppressed minorities kin groups everywhere among dissidents nationalist freedom fighters ethnic tourists ethnic middlemen exchange networks of Kalahari Bushmen and families subjected to Stalinist social control Each of these types of trust is examined by a leading scholar and compared with the expectations of neo Darwinian theory in particular the theories of kin selection and ethnic nepotism The result is a fascinating theoretically focused yet empirically eclectic contribution to the overlapping fields of human ethnology evolutionary psychology and bio politics The common thread uniting these diverse phenomena is a trusting relationship predicated on altruism Chapters examine the strengths and limits of human trust under various stressors and temptations to defect By exploring the relationship between kin and ethnic altruism and showing its sensitivity to culture Risky Transactions recasts the evolutionary approach to ethnicity as a blend of primordial and instrumental factors
