Public Policy and the Mass Media Sigrid Koch-Baumgarten, Katrin Voltmer, 2010-02-25 This book explores the extent and circumstances under which the media affects public policy and whether the political impact of the media is confined to the public representation of politics or whether their influence goes further to also affect the substance of political decisions

Environmental Debates in Albania Deniz Çupi, 2023-09-30 This book investigates the role played by classical and digital media and social networks in shaping debates on the environment Providing a unique window of observation on environmental debates the book explores the media theatre from the post communist perspective of Albania The work navigates the creation and development of environmental debate in Albania using evidence based case studies investigating the role of actors involved who are closely related to the media such as in business or politics Environmental Debates in Albania offers an original insight on environmental debate which is closely tied to and influenced by the place and culture within which it originates Rich literature exists on global environmental issues protests policy and the rhetoric around climate change this book supplies another piece to the puzzle through its focus on the under researched area of environmental debate in post communist and Eastern European countries

The Haitian Media System and its Main Characteristics: A Model of the Precarious System of Democratic Transition Wisnique Panier, 2023-06-26 This book presents a new theoretical model of a media system called the model of the precarious system of democratic transition The latter is based on fifteen parameters that characterize the Haitian media system and the environment in which it evolves This is a significant contribution to advancing knowledge in media studies and public communication in general After carefully analyzing different models of media systems existing in the scientific literature including the three models proposed by Halin and Mancini 2004 the author concludes that none of them applies to the typical Haitian case His study confirms the limitations of media system models resulting from Halin and Mancini s comparative studies in the context of Western countries It is a real reference document that gives an unprecedented reading grid to analyze the media systems of non Western countries particularly African or Latin American countries which have characteristics similar to that of Haiti Indeed in his doctoral thesis the author concluded that the Haitian media system has transformed over the past 60 years under the influence of three sets of factors linguistics democratic and technological Nevertheless he comes to the conclusion that the changes observed are only in the relations between the actors of the system without leading to a reconfiguration of the system The main characteristics of the Haitian media system and its environment remained unchanged from 1957 to 2022 So there is an inertia that keeps the system in an initial state
