The Developing Place of Portugal in the European Union Jose Magone, 2017-12-02 After decades of isolation and a turbulent transition to democracy Portugal's integration into the European Union has given political economic social and cultural stability to a country that had to overcome the trauma of losing an empire This volume clearly is a major contribution to the study of how Portugal became part of the European Union as a political system and its development towards Europeanization and domestication Magone first lays a theoretical framework for the study of Europeanization and discusses political parties the political system and Portuguese society in terms of Europeanization He then examines public administration how the European Union and the OECD impacted on the modernization agenda and includes a discussion of the national EU policy coordination Magone also considers the Portuguese Euro elite and how they interacted with the Portuguese presidency and the processes of decision making going on among the different levels of the governance system of the European Union He highlights a case study of the Portuguese presidency of the European Union which took place in the first half of 2003 In addition Magone discusses the impact of the EU structural funds on Portugal and scrutinizes Portuguese foreign and defense policies in particular its reconstructed foreign policy which was clearly instrumental in achieving the independence of East Timor He reviews the growing integration of Portugal into the emerging structures of the Common Foreign and Security Policy CFSP concluding with the challenges that Portugal will face in the future in the education health and business sectors An interesting finding is the growing alienation of the population from the political class who clearly make all the decisions in relation to the European Union without proper consultation of the population through referenda In sum this book is vital to understand one of the oldest nation states of the world Jos M Magone is senior lecturer

CSR and Sustainability in the Public Sector David Crowther, Shahla Seifi, 2020-08-27 This book focuses on CSR in the public sector in all its manifestations around the world in order to consider its application in practice and its connections to sustainable objectives This book is unique in that all chapters were written by members of the Social Responsibility Research Network Their ideas have been tested and refined through the feedback given after they were presented at the 16th International Conference The approach used in this book is based on the tradition of the Social Responsibility Research Network a worldwide body of scholars that over its 20 year history has sought to broaden the discourse and to treat all research as inter related and business relevant The book examines diverse aspects of how CSR and sustainability apply to and are applied by a variety of public bodies in a variety of ways Thus the authors focus on the priorities of these organisations in order to consider the extent to which the focus has changed so much that we need to think about new approaches to our understanding of CSR and sustainability and differing effects in practice The international mix of authors makes this an original contribution sharing some of the best ideas from around the world Educating

European Citizens Gordon H. Bell, 2025-09-12 Educating European Citizens 1995 explores problems and issues in citizenship education in the context of the move towards European cultural economic and political union An international group of educators address questions such as the contribution of schools to the maintenance of peace and security education beyond nationalism and the relationship between the theory and practice of citizenship and the European dimension

European Strategies in Lifelong Learning Licínio C. Lima, Paula Guimarães, 2011-08-30 Lifelong learning and education is a key concept for the development of adult education as an area of practice and theoretical consideration In recent decades meanwhile the idea of lifelong education and learning has been central to the guidance of various international organisations of many countries European Social Charter European Committee of Social Rights, Council of Europe, 2003-01-01

Didactics of Polish as a Foreign and Second Language against the European Background Przemysław E. Gębal, Władysław T. Miodunka, 2024-11-18 This volume starts with an overview of the history of teaching Polish as a foreign language from the beginning of the 16th century to 1939 The authors then present the rapid development of teaching Polish as a foreign language from 1992 to 2015 This is supplemented by information on the methodology of teaching Polish In the next part they describe the didactics of the Polish language abroad followed by the introduction of the Polish language policy and the promotion of Polish outside Poland Then they present the teaching of Polish as a second language and the problems of communication At the end information is given about the achievements of European didactics in the field of teaching Polish as a foreign and second language The volume concludes with a proposal for the creation of a didactics of European languages including Slavic languages as well Macroeconometric Models and European Monetary Union Ullrich Heilemann, Stephen G. Hall, Peter Pauly, 2004-02-02 This volume contains the contributions of a conference dealing with the consequences of the European Monetary Union for the macroeconometric modelling of the Euro area which took place in Essen in 2000 At the end of the conference the participants were convinced that the discussions including a great variety of theoretical methodical and factual aspects from the producers as well as the consumers perspective will not fail to have a certain impact on the future development of macroeconometric modelling in the Euro area Once more it became clear however that an ideal way to a solution of the problems is still not in sight The future development will be characterized by a plurality of approaches and models Thus trends continue which have had a more or less strong durable or temporary influence on the model landscape since the emergence of the monetarist revolution the rational expectations or the real business cycle models We are still at the beginning of the theoretical and empirical exploration of the macroeconomic development of the Euro area it is not always clearly perceptible what is transitory and what is permanent and this openness should facilitate the reception of the experiences and results which have been presented The idea for this event was developed in the course of the Project LINK One of the highlights of the conference was the participation of the nobel prize winner Professor Dr Lawrence Klein pioneer and Nestor of macroeconometric modelling who as his contribution shows is following up the creation of the European Monetary Union with critical interest
