Constable In The Wilderness:

Constable in the Wilderness Nicholas Rhea, 2004-07 The wild and rugged North York Moors remain one of the unexploited and least explored areas of England In the depths of winter with dark days villages cut off by snowdrifts and animals marooned amongst the heather it has all the appearance of a true wilderness For Constable Nick of Aidensfield however the fierce weather and wild terrain must not interfere with his police work But the superintendent is not pleased when he catches Nick building a snowman in the midst of a blizzard and Nick faces more resistance when he considers evacuating a market town because a farmer on the moors reckons there ll be a devastating flood within hours How can Nick convince the authorities the wise old farmer is right Nick copes with Claude Jeremiah Greengrass almost killing himself on a runaway double bass ponders why an ageing widower would want a beauty contest in Aidensfield and wonders why a beautiful Spanish senorita has come to visit a confirmed bachelor farmer on the moors There is crime too a young boy s precious bicycle is stolen there is a cruel burglary in an elderly lady s home while a fake policeman is fining people for traffic offences ominous goings on in a remote churchyard too and Nick has to cope with a spillage of mysterious liquid which threatens the water supply It s all part of constabulary duties for Constable Nick of Aidensfield Constable in the Wilderness Nicholas Rhea, 2003 The Superintendent is not pleased when he catches Constable Nick building a snowman in the midst of a blizzard and Nick faces resistance when he considers evacuating a market town because there is the possibility a devastating flood within hours Nick also copes with Claude Jeremiah Greengrass almost killing himself on a runaway double bass and ponders why an ageing widower would want a beauty contest in Aidensfield CONSTABLE'S ORIENTAL MISCELLANY OF ORIGINAL AND SELECTED PUBLICATIONS, 1893 Big Moose Lake in the Adirondacks Jane A. Barlow, 2004-06-01 Big Moose Lake in the Adirondacks is the lively and well documented story of the growth of the lake side community made famous by the incident that inspired Theodore Dreiser s An American Tragedy The rich history of the lake unfolds with stories of its early residents hunters and guides Jim Higby Billy Dutton Henry Covey and Bill Dartin the late 1870s of the lake s ownership by William Seward Webb of the construction of the first private camp Club Camp in 1878 and the coming of hotels and resorts beginning in 1880 with the construction of Camp Crag From a time when a telephone number was a simple 8F6 and the pickle boat brought supplies to camp to more recent stories of exuberant waterskiing and motorboat regattas the book includes a detailed history and descriptions of the camps and resorts on the lake persons and celebrities who made the lake their year round or seasonal home including actress Minnie Maddern Fiske and artist David Milne natural disasters and political events recreation and the work of the Big Moose Property Owners Association This is the story of Big Moose Lake brought to life by more than 275 family photographs antique postcards and previously unpublished memoirs oral histories diary entries and the personal correspondence of the men and women who settled the area and of those who call it home Holy Matter Sara Ritchey, 2014-03-29 A magnificent proliferation of new Christ centered devotional practices including affective meditation imitative suffering crusade Eucharistic cults and miracles passion drama and liturgical performance reveals profound changes in the Western Christian temperament of the twelfth century and beyond This change has often been attributed by scholars to an increasing emphasis on God's embodiment in the incarnation and crucifixion of Christ In Holy Matter Sara Ritchey offers a fresh narrative explaining theological and devotional change by journeying beyond the human body to ask how religious men and women understood the effects of God's incarnation on the natural material world She finds a remarkable willingness on the part of medieval Christians to embrace the material world its trees flowers vines its worms and wolves as a locus for divine encounter Early signs that perceptions of the material world were shifting can be seen in reformed communities of religious women in the twelfth century Rhineland Here Ritchey finds that in response to the constraints of gendered regulations and spiritual ideals women created new identities as virgins who like the mother of Christ impelled the world's re-creation their notion of the world's re-creation held that God created the world a second time when Christ was born In this second act of creation God was seen to be present in the physical world thus making matter holy Ritchey then traces the diffusion of this new religious doctrine beyond the Rhineland showing the profound impact it had on both women and men in professed religious life especially Franciscans in Italy and Carthusians in England Drawing on a wide range of sources including art liturgy prayer poetry meditative guides and treatises of spiritual instruction Holy Matter reveals an important transformation in late medieval devotional practice a shift from metaphor to material from gazing on images of a God made visible in the splendor of natural beauty to looking at the natural world itself and finding there God's presence and promise of salvation view of Canadian landscape art Emphasizing the ways in which social economic and political conditions determine representation Marilyn McKay moves beyond canonical images and traditional nationalistic interpretations by analyzing Canadian landscape art in relation to different concepts of territory Taking an expansive and inclusive perspective on Canadian landscape art McKay depicts this tradition in all its diversity and draws it into the larger body of Western landscape art broadening the horizon of future study appreciation and criticism Richly illustrated and filled with sophisticated and innovative commentary Picturing the Land provides new and distinct histories of the landscape art of French and English Canada Nature , Carl W. Peters Richard H. Love, Carl William Peters, 1999 Throughout his life Peters depicted the ordinary places and people of America From Rochester to Rockport Peters made an amazingly coherent group of fascinating masterful American pictures Test of the Professionals - Part 3: Leap Year Marcia Wilson, 2025-08-05 Nine amazing novels featuring Inspectors Lestrade Bradstreet Gregson and Hopkins along with Our Heroes Sherlock Holmes and Doctor Watson In 2008 Marcia Wilson began simultaneously writing a number of novels and short stories relating the stories of the Scotland Yard Inspectors who worked closely with Sherlock Holmes Over the next few years she completed a remarkably prodigious amount of work revealing previously unknown and fascinating details about the lives of Inspectors Lestrade Gregson Bradstreet and Hopkins and their vastly interesting families and backgrounds She wove this story into the escalating investigation of Professor James Moriarty and along the way she provided a different yet still heroic and respectful perspective of Our Heroes Sherlock Holmes and Dr John H Watson This vast interrelated narrative appeared online and a few pieces just the very beginning of the much bigger picture were published as books Then the online stories were taken down and none of the additionally planned books in the series were published to share the rest of the story until now Finally nine of the major novels in the Sherlock Holmes and the Scotland Yarders series by Marcia Wilson are being published in handsome uniform editions the first of a planned series which will include other volumes in the future Once these stories have been read you will never see Lestrade Gregson Watson Holmes and the others the same way again Truly Marcia Wilson has found Scotland Yard's Tin Dispatch Box BOOK IV Test of the Professionals Leap Year In early 1884 a temporary peace has settled over London as Lestrade's lifelong enemy seems to be defeated and his relationship with Clea Cheatham never boring is progressing satisfactorily But it quickly becomes apparent that Lestrade is in deadly danger when he's lured into a trap beneath London from which there is seemingly no survival Representing Place Edward S. Casey, 2002-01-01 You are here a map declares but of course you are not any more than you truly occupy the vantage point into which a landscape painting puts you How maps and paintings figure and reconfigure space as well as our place in it is the subject of Edward S Casey's study an exploration of how we portray the world and its many places Casey's discussion ranges widely from Northern Sung landscape painting to nineteenth century American and British landscape painting and photography from prehistoric petroglyphs and medieval portolan charts to seventeenth century Dutch cartography and land survey maps of the American frontier From these culturally and historically diverse forays a theory of representation emerges Casey proposes that the representation of place in visual works be judged in terms not of resemblance but of reconnecting with an earth and world that are not the mere content of mind or language a reconnection that calls for the embodiment and implacement of the human subject Book jacket      The Book of Encouragement and Consolation Goscelin (of Saint-Bertin), 2012 Goscelin of St Bertin's Book of Encouragement and Consolation Liber Confortatorius is extraordinary both as an example of high medieval spiritual practice and as a record of a personal relationship Written in about 1083 by the monk Goscelin to a protegee and personal friend the recluse Eva it takes up the tradition of St Jerome's letters of spiritual guidance to women and anticipates medieval advice literature for anchoresses As a compendious treatise incorporating numerous exempla excerpts from theological discussions and advice on meditative practice it has much to tell us about the intellectual interests and preoccupations of religious people in the late eleventh century As a personal document it allows a fascinating and uncommonly intimate insight into the psychology of religious life the sense of self the construction of gender and the relationships between men and women in the high Middle Ages Back cover
