Constable's England Graham Reynolds, John Constable, 1983 John Constable's Skies John E. Thornes, John Constable, 1999-01-01 John Constable is arguably the most accomplished painter of English skies and weather of all time For Constable the sky was the keynote the standard of scale and the chief organ of sentiment in a landscape painting But how far did he understand the workings of the forces of nature which created his favourite cumulus clouds portrayed in so many of his skies over the landscapes of Hampstead Heath Salisbury and Suffolk And were the skies he painted scientifically accurate In this lucid and accessible study John Thornes provides a meteorological framework for reading the skies of landscape art compares Constable's skies to those produced by other artists from the middle ages to the nineteenth century analyses Constable's own meteorological understanding and examines the development of his painted skies In so doing he provides fresh evidence to identify the year of painting of some of Constable's previously undated cloud studies Art History of works of art and as a vehicle for the dissemination and reinterpretation of art This book provides the first definitive

Constable, 1990 This collection of 42 drawings never previously published together gives new insight into Constable's technical and emotional approach into his work With the help of copious comparative illustrations and exhaustively detailed research drawn from numerous contemporary sources the author builds up a portrait of the artist his background and family life The luscious quality of Constable's painting typifies an idealized image of the English countryside in the 18th century. Such familiar paintings as Greenham Lock and Flatford Mill were not captured in spontaneous bursts but were committed to canvas only after numerous working drawings and oil sketches had been completed. This is the first full length study of the subject presenting much hitherto unpublished material and offering a balanced and pertinent assessment of Constable and his work.

Constable and Salisbury Timothy Wilcox, 2011

Apart from the Stour Valley on the borders of Suffolk and Essex where he grew up, Constable made more paintings and drawings in and around Salisbury than in any other part of England. He was a regular visitor for nearly twenty years, staying in the Close first as guest of the bishop then with his nephew Archdeacon John Fisher. Paintings and drawings of Salisbury figure in every exhibition of Constable's art but they have never been considered in isolation. This new study examines every aspect of Constable's connections with Salisbury, casting new light not only on the places and people but on his intriguing interpretations of such familiar monuments as Salisbury Cathedral, Old Sarum and Stonehenge. Published to accompany the exhibition Constable and Salisbury: The Soul of Landscape at the Museum of Salisbury and South Wiltshire, situated within Salisbury Cathedral Close, it promotes a fresh understanding of Constable's art.

AUTHOR Timothy Wilcox is a writer and curator with a particular interest in British landscape painting and watercolours. He is the author of Samuel Palmer and The Glory of Watercolour and a contributor to Constable's Clouds and The Solitude of Mountains. Constable in the Lake District 157 colour illustrations
