Fins de siècle : Terme-évolution-révolution ? Société française de littérature générale et comparée, 1988-12-31T23:00:00+01:00 Cet ouvrage étudie dans les textes littéraires et dans les œuvres picturales et musicales les marques et les signes par lesquels au XIXe siècle mais aussi dans les siècles antérieurs et l'époque contemporaine s'exprime la pensée d'une fin de terme d'une époque qui n'aurait plus rien dire que son extinction sentiment d'un passage d'une évolution vers d'autres temps ou imminence d'une rupture annonce d'une révolution Constantinople fin de siècle Pierre Loti, 1991

Decadence and Orientalism in England and Germany, 1880-1920 Katharina Herold-Zanker, 2024-04-05 Decadence and Orientalism in England and Germany 1880 1920 examines the Orientalist portrayal of Middle Eastern cultures in Decadent Literatures in England and Germany at the turn of the century This book argues that the role of Orientalism in literary Decadence uniquely exposes its paradoxical engagement with other cultures In bringing together two fin de siècle European literatures this comparative study makes a case for the transnational if not imperial nature of Decadence The East emerges as an indispensable mediator between various versions of European Decadence The book examines the role of the East with specific reference to selected English and German authors starting from Oscar Wilde's Victorian vision of Egypt and Arthur Symonds's and Violet Fane's image of Constantinople it moves to Paul Scheerbart's and Else Lasker-Schüler's Decadent Babylon and Assyria and concludes by turning to Stefan George's exclusion of the East from his poetic practice The geographical reach of the East focuses on regions of the Eastern Mediterranean and Northern Africa The cultural translation of specifically the Middle East into different European national contexts gains new sometimes oppositional meanings avoiding a one-sided representation of both the East and the two national literatures that absorbed it In arguing for a Decadent cosmopolitanism as a model of heterogeneous inclusivity that reaches beyond the binaries established by Edward Said's Orientalism the present book brings twenty-first century theories of cosmopolitanism into dialogue with art history and literature to uncover striking synergies and interdependences between the different manifestations of Decadence in England and Germany

French Trade in Istanbul in the Eighteenth Century Edhem Eldem, 2023-08-28 This work deals with French trade in Istanbul in the eighteenth century using French and Ottoman sources and integrating the political and social dimensions of the question It also sheds light on the financial dimension of trade particularly that of bills of exchange and monetary trade linking Istanbul to other Ottoman cities and to European financial centers Finally it tackles the issue of western economic penetration arguing that despite some signs of domination French control over the market was efficiently opposed by local actors that economic integration with the West was often realized on equal terms and that much of the domination witnessed toward the end of the century was in fact the result of French diplomatic leverage and of the gradual estrangement of non-Muslim traders from the Ottoman commonwealth

Venetians in Constantinople Eric Dursteler, 2006-05 Historian Eric R Dursteler reconsiders identity in the early modern world to illuminate Veneto Ottoman

cultural interaction and coexistence challenging the model of hostile relations and suggesting instead a more complex understanding of the intersection of cultures Although dissonance and strife were certainly part of this relationship he argues coexistence and cooperation were more common Moving beyond the clash of civilizations model that surveys the relationship between Islam and Christianity from a geopolitical perch Dursteler analyzes the lived reality by focusing on a localized microcosm the Venetian merchant and diplomatic community in Muslim Constantinople While factors such as religion culture and political status could be integral elements in constructions of self and community Dursteler finds early modern identity to be more than the sum total of its constituent parts and reveals how the fluidity and malleability of identity in this time and place made coexistence among disparate cultures possible The Inequality of Pay Henry Phelps Brown,1977 This book examines late nineteenth and early twentieth century literature written in England and Germany exploring the relationship between Orientalism Decadence and cosmopolitanism arguing that representations of the East played a critical role in the literary landscape of Decadence over this period
