from Diderot's Salons to the Postmodern Museum is a comparative interdisciplinary study tracing theories of the sublime and a history of spectatorship from Diderot's eighteenth century French Salons through art criticism by Baudelaire and Breton to Jean-François Lyotard's postmodern exhibition Les Immatériaux. In the Salons an exploration of the painted landscape becomes an encounter with both the limits of representation and the infinite possibilities of fiction. Baudelaire and Breton explore similar limits in their work set against the backdrop of the modern city. For them as for Diderot the attempt to render visual objects in narrative language leads to the development of new literary forms and concerns. Lyotard's concept of the postmodern museum frames the sublime encounter once again in terms that expressly evoke Diderot's verbal rendering of painted spaces as a personal promenade. According to Lyotard, Diderot ouvre par crit les surfaces des tableaux comme les portes d'une exposition; il abolit l'opposition de la nature et de la culture, de la réalité de l'image, du volume et de la surface. Reading the literary production of these four writers alongside their art criticism, Scapeland considers narrative responses to art as imaginative assertions of human presence against the impersonal world of objects.

Obscure Objects of Desire Johanna Malt, 2004. Publisher description.

The Haunted Self David Lomas, 2000-01-01. The question "Who am I?" resounded throughout the surrealist movement. The exploration of dreams and the unconscious prompted surrealists to reject the notion of a unified, indivisible self by revealing the subject to be haunted by otherness and instability. In this book, David Lomas explores the surrealist concepts of the self and subjectivity from a psychoanalytic viewpoint. Employing a series of case studies devoted to individual artists, Lomas arrives at a radically new account of surrealist art and its cultural and intellectual roots Weaving together psychoanalytic and historical material the author analyses works by Ernst Dali Masson Miro and Picasso with regard to such themes as automatism hysteria the uncanny and the abject Lomas focuses closely on individual artworks examines the specific circumstances in which they were produced and offers new insights into the artists and their projects as well as the theories of Bataille Breton and others Lomas demonstrates the powerful connection between the history of psychoanalysis and the history of surrealism and along the way shows the unique value of psychoanalytic theory as a tool for the art historian BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved The International Encyclopedia of Surrealism Michael Richardson, 2019 Surrealism has been a powerful and pervasive cultural movement for a century shaping painting literature film photography music theater architecture fashion and design as well as thinking about politics and culture The Encyclopedia presents the first comprehensive and systematic overview of surrealism across the world charting its development from its beginnings to the present day Volume 1 includes overviews of national surrealist movements surrealism s influence across the visual applied and performing arts and analyses of the concepts which underpin surrealism Volume 2 and 3 present an A Z of the individuals theorists critics novelists poets playwrights screenwriters designers painters collagists object makers sculptors film makers and photographers who have contributed and continue to contribute to surrealism Publisher s description The Collection of Mr. and Mrs. David Lloyd Kreeger Margy P.
