Constitutional Review in Central and Eastern Europe Kálmán Pócza, 2024-02-13 Recent confrontations between constitutional courts and parliamentary majorities in several European countries have attracted international interest in the relationship between the judiciary and the legislature Some political actors have argued that courts have assumed too much power and politics has been extremely judicialized This volume accurately and systematically examines the extent to which this aggregation of power may have constrained the dominant political actors room for manoeuvre To explore the diversity and measure the strength of judicial decisions the contributors to this work have elaborated a methodology to give a more nuanced picture of the practice of constitutional adjudication in Central and Eastern Europe between 1990 and 2020 The work opens with an assessment of the existing literature on empirical analysis of judicial decisions with a special focus on the Central and Eastern European region and a short summary of the methodology of the project This is followed by ten country studies and a concluding chapter providing a comprehensive comparative analysis of the results A further nine countries are explored in the counterpart volume to this book Constitutional Review in Western Europe Judicial Legislative Relations in Comparative Perspective The collection will be an invaluable resource for those working in the areas of empirical legal research and comparative constitutional law as well as political scientists interested in judicial politics Chapters 1 5 and 12 of this book are freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license

Proceedings of the 2nd International Conference on Changing of Business Law (ICOCLB 2024) Edy Lisdiyono, Ade Saptomo, Faisal Santiago, I Nyoman Budiarta, Ahmad Sudiro, Zaenal Arifin Hoesein, Laksanto Laksanto, Wasis Susetio, Zulfikar Judge, 2025-02-08 This is an open access book Currently the influence of

shifts and changes in the legal system due to global political social and economic dynamics demands significant changes to harmonize and adapt the various realities of human relations which are currently dominated by various activities in cyberspace Law is the most important and strategic instrument in organizing the space for social interaction and changes in other social institutions and institutions in the current era Therefore it is not only about 3 legal instruments such as norms legal institutions and their enforcement but the most important thing is legal education which will build not only legal instruments and systems but also awareness of a new legal culture Thus structuring legal education and its educational ecosystem which is connected to other aspects such as economics social cultural religious political and so on is a necessity that continues to be developed Law is also the glue and device of a world that is all connected and cross border connected to the digital world as well as an interconnected global society making an agreement on a common global goal help individuals institutions and governments throughout the world to agree on the direction of development focusing on things that are truly beneficial for the future directing all parties to focus on the same thing mobilizing all resources and making it easier to organize and implement so that all parties can move together towards the achievements they hope for By having a common goal every policy and development step taken by every national leader will always be tested by the public This means that a common goal provides a common opportunity for all elements of society to control the entire development process in order to remain faithful to the path towards mutual achievement encouraging mobilization all networks of expertise knowledge and practices to overcome various difficulties faced in implementing sustainable development and mobilize all stakeholder networks This multi stakeholder process is critical to addressing complex challenges in sustainable development and the fight against poverty hunger and disease In line with the global agenda called Sustainable Goals Development especially point 4 of SGD s goals which sets the goal of providing quality education this is also included in the world of legal education The SDGs goals above are interconnected and influence each other To achieve the SDGs goals collaboration and cooperation are needed These SDGs are a global commitment to achieve better sustainable development Every country including Indonesia has a responsibility to achieve the SDGs goals By paying attention to sustainability aspects in every decision and action we can build a better and more sustainable future for future generations Thus there is a need for strategic partnerships especially at the national and regional levels which will harmonize various curricula and learning methods especially in the field of law in order to achieve a parameter of success in the development of national and regional law which is one of the elements of the resilience of a country or region This is considered necessary and strategic considering that currently the dynamics of the region are being influenced by global turmoil in various fields as well as the ongoing struggle for hegemony among world geopolitical and geoeconomic forces in the new world balance order Therefore this international seminar and call for papers is an opportunity for participants to find out about harmonization and strategic cooperation in legal education especially in the era of disruption economic and digital and to know its relevance for development at the ASEAN level      The Most Activist Supreme Court in History Thomas M. Keck, 2010-02-15 When conservatives took control of the federal judiciary in the 1980s it was widely assumed that they would reverse the landmark rights protecting precedents set by the Warren Court and replace them with a broad commitment to judicial restraint. Instead the Supreme Court under Chief Justice William Rehnquist has reaffirmed most of those liberal decisions while creating its own brand of conservative judicial activism. Ranging from 1937 to the present The Most Activist Supreme Court in History traces the legal and political forces that have shaped the modern Court. Thomas M. Keck argues that the tensions within modern conservatism have produced a court that exercises its own power quite actively on behalf of both liberal and conservative ends. Despite the long standing conservative commitment to restraint the justices of the Rehnquist Court have stepped in to settle divisive political conflicts over abortion, affirmative action, gay rights, presidential elections and much more. Keck focuses in particular on the role of Justices O'Connor and Kennedy whose deciding votes have shaped this uncharacteristically activist Court.

Complete Criminal Law Janet Loveless, 2016 Complete Criminal Law provides a student centred straightforward approach to the criminal law LLB GDL syllabus. The author's lucid commentary clearly explains the general principles whilst the structured learning features enable students to interact and engage with the integrated case extracts and academic materials.

Comparative Constitutional History Francesco Biagi, Justin O. Frosini, Jason Mazzone, 2022-12-05 Constitutions are a product of history but what is the role of history in interpreting and applying constitutional provisions? This volume addresses that question from a comparative perspective examining different uses of history by courts in determining constitutional meaning. The book shows that there is considerable debate around the role of history in constitutional adjudication. Are, for example, historical public debates over the adoption of a constitution relevant to reading its provisions today? If a constitution represents a break from a prior repressive regime should courts construe the constitution's provisions in light of that background? Are former constitutions relevant to interpreting a new constitution? Through an assessment of current practices the volume offers some lessons for the future practices of courts as they adjudicate constitutional cases. Contributors are Mark D. Rosen, Jorge M. Farinacci, Fern S. Justin Collings, Jean-Christophe Bédard, Rubin Cem Tecimer, Nigel Aday, Jimenez Alemán, Ana Beatriz Robalinho, Keigo Obayashi, Zoltán Sente, Shih-An Wang and Diego Werneck Arguelles.

Constitutional Review under the UK Human Rights Act Aileen Kavanagh, 2009-05-07 Under the Human Rights Act British courts are for the first time empowered to review primary legislation for compliance with a codified set of fundamental rights In this book Aileen Kavanagh argues that the HRA gives judges strong powers of constitutional review similar to those exercised by the courts under an entrenched Bill of Rights The aim of the book is to subject the leading case law under the HRA to critical scrutiny whilst remaining sensitive to the deeper constitutional political and theoretical questions which underpin it Such questions include the idea of judicial deference the constitutional status of the HRA the principle of parliamentary sovereignty and the constitutional division of labour between Parliament and the courts The book closes with a sustained defence of the legitimacy of constitutional review in a democracy thus providing a powerful rejoinder to those who are sceptical about judicial power under the HRA

The Oxford Handbook of Comparative Administrative Law Peter Cane, Herwig Hofmann, Eric C. Ip, Eric Chi Yeung Ip, Peter L. Lindseth, 2021 In this Handbook distinguished experts in the field of administrative law discuss a wide range of issues from a comparative perspective The book covers the historical beginnings of comparative administrative law scholarship and discusses important methodological issues and basic concepts such as administrative power and accountability

The Language of Law and the Foundations of American Constitutionalism Gary L. McDowell, 2010-06-28 For much of its history the interpretation of the United States Constitution presupposed judges seeking the meaning of the text and the original intentions behind that text a process that was deemed by Chief Justice John Marshall to be the most sacred rule of interpretation Since the end of the nineteenth century a radically new understanding has developed in which the moral intuition of the judges is allowed to supplant the Constitution's original meaning as the foundation of interpretation The Founders Constitution of fixed and permanent meaning has been replaced by the idea of a living or evolving constitution Gary L McDowell refutes this new understanding recovering the theoretical grounds of the original Constitution as understood by those who framed and ratified it It was he argues the intention of the Founders that the judiciary must be bound by the original meaning of the Constitution when interpreting it West's Federal Supplement, 2002

Cases decided in the United States district courts United States Court of International Trade and rulings of the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation Poznań School of Legal Theory Paweł Kwiatkowski, Marek Smolak, 2021-02-08 This book grew out of the conviction that the original concepts of the Pozna School of Legal Theory are still perfectly suited for application in the era of moral pluralism and multicentric legal systems Moreover the legal theoretical proposals put forward by the circle of Pozna legal theorists and supported by firm methodological foundations have not by any means lost their value Although each of the authors tackles issues from different perspectives there is a discernible unity in their approaches expressed in the conviction that modest analysis makes more sense than ambitious analysis of the concept of law or the nature of law The Pozna School has made several valuable contributions to contemporary legal theory its works have drawn from Polish philosophy of language and therefore embedded its theoretical and legal considerations in the Polish philosophical culture it created an original model method which consists of considering ideal situations in which dependencies are not disturbed by the influence of other factors and it treats the human being as a rational person and thus as a cognizing subject and a rational agent
