Race and American Political Development Joseph E. Lowndes, Julie Novkov, Dorian T. Warren, 2012-11-12 Race has been present at every critical moment in American political development shaping political institutions political discourse public policy and its denizens political identities But because of the nature of race its evolving and dynamic status as a structure of inequality a political organizing principle an ideology and a system of power we must study the politics of race historically institutionally and discursively Covering more than three hundred years of American political history from the founding to the contemporary moment the contributors in this volume make this extended argument Together they provide an understanding of American politics that challenges our conventional disciplinary tools of studying politics and our conservative political moment's dominant narrative of racial progress This volume the first to collect essays on the role of race in American political history and development resituates race in American politics as an issue for sustained and broadened critical attention

Constitutional Law and Politics of Secession Antoni Abat i Ninet, 2023-07-31 This collection presents an analysis of the concept of secession and its constitutional accommodation alongside an assessment of the effects of secession in constitutional and international law The work proposes a new approach and insights into the existing literature that fill a gap from multidisciplinary and transdisciplinary perspectives The book approaches the topics of secession constitutionalism and their relationship from both theoretical and empirical perspectives including the analysis of particular secessionist examples such as Catalonia the

Basque Country Tigray the Palestinian minority in Israel Bosnia and Herzegovina and the Mapuche Nation from a comparative constitutional perspective Elucidating these issues from different methodological and conceptual perspectives produces novelties in the scientific and constitutional debate The interplay between constitutions constitutional law and secession is indeed explored from philosophical socio legal but also from strict constitutional law outlooks Written by constitutional and public international law experts the book will be of interest to students academics and researchers working in the areas of constitutional law legal theory theory of the state philosophy of law and political science

Comparative Constitutional Law in Latin America Rosalind Dixon, Tom Ginsburg, 2017-06-30 This book provides unique insights into the practice of democratic constitutionalism in one of the world's most legally and politically significant regions It combines contributions from leading Latin American and global scholars to provide bottom up and top down insights about the lessons to be drawn from the distinctive constitutional experiences of countries in Latin America In doing so it also draws on a rich array of legal and interdisciplinary perspectives Ultimately it shows both the promise of democratic constitutions as a vehicle for social economic and political change and the variation in the actual constitutional experiences of different countries on the ground or the limits to constitutions as a locus for broader social change A History of American Political Thought A. J. Beitzinger, 2011-08-05 This book provides a descriptive analysis and critical discussion of the origins development and interrelationships of American political ideas against the background of the birth growth and crises of the republic and the major historical movements of thought Main emphasis is on the idea of constitutionalism and related concepts of higher law liberty justice equality democracy and the balanced state as well as underlying notions of human nature motivation and behavior The Progressives' Century Stephen Skowronek, Stephen M. Engel, Bruce A.

Ackerman, 2016-01-01 Chapter 20 How the Progressives Became the Tea Party's Mortal Enemy Networks Movements and the Political Currency of Ideas Chapter 21 What Is to Be Done A New Progressivism for a New Century List of Contributors Index A B C D E F G H I J K L M N O P R S T U V W X Y Z The High Priests of American Politics Mark Carlton Miller, 2002-03

Using a multidisciplinary approach Mark C. Miller draws in large part on interviews he conducted with members of the U.S. House of Representatives the Ohio legislature and the Massachusetts legislature From this rich data he shows how American lawyers are socialized into a common legal ideology which in turn shapes the behavior of individual lawyer politicians legislative committees dominated by lawyers and the entire legislative institutions of government The Growth of American Government Ballard C. Campbell, 1995 This ambitious well written book will be a useful resource for scholars an excellent overview a fine readable introduction that presents its analysis in a straightforward manner free from ideological baggage Congress The Presidency A refreshingly unorthodox narrative Campbell explains in plain language how government grew His stance is neither liberal nor conservative but simply well informed and reasonable Walter Nugent University of Notre Dame The canvas is large but one comes away from the book with an understanding of what has happened the factors contributing to these developments and their consequences Strongly recommended Samuel McSeveney Vanderbilt University Ballard Campbell has synthesized an amazing range of material federal state and even local studies from history political science economics and assorted other specialized studies The product is a strikingly comprehensive and readable history of the rise of government in the USA Even better it provides a coherent explanation of why the state grew so large Richard Jensen University of Illinois Chicago His overview chapter 2 should be a compulsory assignment for any seminar on modern political culture The Journal of American History Campbell s book is a marvelous multidisciplinary synthesis that builds on the findings of historians of national state and local government along with those of economists and political scientists to provide a coherent account of the rise of modern American governing structures Journal of Interdisciplinary History The book should be useful in the classroom even for freshmen classes in U S history and government American Historical Review Readable and refreshingly unorthodox Campbell provides a coherent explanation of how and why government has become so large His book deserves inclusion in any undergraduate bibliography covering the development of American government Political Studies Association This engaging survey of the growth of government in America in the last century focuses on the evolution of public policy and its relationship to the constitutional and political structure of government at the federal state and local levels Science Policy Implications of DNA Recombinant Molecule Research United States. Handbook of Latin American Politics Peter Kingstone,Deborah J. Yashar,2013-03-05 Latin America has been one of the critical areas in the study of comparative politics The region s experiments with installing and deepening democracy and promoting alternative modes of economic development have generated intriguing and enduring empirical puzzles In turn Latin America s challenges continue to spawn original and vital work on central questions in comparative politics about the origins of democracy about the relationship between state and society about the nature of citizenship about the balance between state and market The richness and diversity of the study of Latin American politics makes it hard to stay abreast of the developments in the many sub literatures of the field The Routledge Handbook of Latin American Politics offers an intellectually rigorous overview of the state of the field and a thoughtful guide to the direction of future scholarship Kingstone and Yashar bring together the leading figures in the study of Latin America to present extensive empirical coverage new original research and a cutting edge examination of the central areas of inquiry in the region The Oxford

Handbook of American Political Development Richard M. Valelly,Suzanne Mettler,Robert C. Lieberman,2016 Scholars working in or sympathetic to American political development APD share a commitment to accurately understanding the history of American politics and thus they question stylized facts about America s political evolution Like other approaches to American politics APD prizes analytical rigor data collection the development and testing of theory and the generation of provocative hypotheses Much APD scholarship indeed overlaps with the American politics subfield and its many well developed literatures on specific institutions or processes for example Congress judicial politics or party competition specific policy domains welfare policy immigration the foundations of equality in American politics the distribution of wealth and income race ethnicity gender class and sexual and gender orientation public law and governance and representation What distinguishes APD is careful systematic thought about the ways that political processes civic ideals the political construction of social divisions patterns of identity formation the making and implementation of public policies contestation over and via the Constitution and other formal and informal institutions and processes evolve over time and whether and how they alter compromise or sustain the American liberal democratic regime APD scholars identify in short the histories that constitute American politics They ask what familiar or unfamiliar elements of the American past illuminate the present Are contemporary phenomena that appear new or surprising prefigured in ways that an APD approach can bring to the fore If a contemporary phenomenon is unprecedented then how might an accurate understanding of the evolution of American politics unlock its significance Featuring contributions from leading academics in the field The Oxford Handbook of American Political Development provides an authoritative and accessible analysis of the study of American political development

Keeping the Republic: Power and Citizenship in American Politics, 6th Edition The Essentials Christine Barbour, Gerald C. Wright, 2013-01-15 Keeping the Republic's lively discussion of who gets what and how develops students' critical thinking abilities in the intro American government course Every section and every feature in the book has one goal in mind to get students to think critically and be skeptical of received wisdom Serving as a true aid to teachers each chapter is designed to build students' analytical abilities By introducing them to the seminal work in the field and showing them how to employ the themes of power and citizenship this proven text builds confidence in students who want to take an active part in their communities and government to play their part in keeping the republic and to consider the consequences of that engagement

The Oxford Handbook of Political Science Robert E. Goodin, 2011-07-07 Drawing on the rich resources of the ten volume series of The Oxford Handbooks of Political Science this one volume distillation provides a comprehensive overview of all the main branches of contemporary political science political theory political institutions political behavior comparative politics international relations political economy law and politics public policy contextual political analysis and political methodology Sixty seven of the top political scientists worldwide survey recent developments in those fields and provide penetrating introductions to exciting new fields of study Following in the footsteps of the New Handbook of Political Science edited by Robert Goodin and Hans Dieter Klingemann a decade before this Oxford Handbook will become an indispensable guide to the scope and methods of political science as a whole It will serve as the reference book of record for political scientists and for those following their work for years to come What If the American Political System Were Different? Herbert M. Levine, 2015-02-24 First Published in 2015 This unique book is an ideal supplement for an introductory American politics course Each chapter considers a basic aspect of the American political system or historical tradition and speculates as to the consequences were that aspect fundamentally different Engagingly written by political scientists historians and a legal solicitor the book is non ideological throughout and invites reflection and discussion Each chapter will encourage readers to think critically about the American political system elate the relationships between different political structures and policy outcomes and in general consider American politics in an exciting new way
