Lawrence,2014-07-14 Focusing on the Supreme Court as an integral part of the policy making process Susan Lawrence examines how a change in who has access to the Court and the nature of the institutions that structure that access has affected its agenda setting and doctrinal development In her analysis of cases sponsored by the Legal Services Program LSP before the Supreme Court during the 1966 through 1974 terms she explores the effect of this agency in creating a voice for the poor in the judicial policy making process The Court s response to cases presented by the LSP as exemplified in its decisions to invalidate residency requirements for welfare recipients Shapiro v Thompson 1969 but uphold maximum family grants Dandridge v Williams 1970 is described as emerging from a timely combination of new litigant claims available legal bases and judicial values and role conceptions all of which were shaped by the political climate of the era Lawrence convincingly argues that litigation before the Court is a powerful method of political participation for the disadvantaged Originally published in 1990 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905      Family Law in America Sanford N.
