Constitutions Of Nations Volume 3 Europe:

National Constitutions in European and Global Governance: Democracy, Rights, the Rule of Law Anneli Albi, Samo Bardutzky, 2019-05-29 This two volume book published open access brings together leading scholars of constitutional law from twenty nine European countries to revisit the role of national constitutions at a time when decision making has increasingly shifted to the European and transnational level It offers important insights into three areas First it explores how constitutions reflect the transfer of powers from domestic to European and global institutions Secondly it revisits substantive constitutional values such as the protection of constitutional rights the rule of law democratic participation and constitutional review along with constitutional court judgments that tackle the protection of these rights and values in the transnational context e g with regard to the Data Retention Directive the European Arrest Warrant the ESM Treaty and EU and IMF austerity measures The responsiveness of the ECJ regarding the above rights and values along with the standard of protection is also assessed Thirdly challenges in the context of global governance in relation to judicial review democratic control and accountability are examined On a broader level the contributors were also invited to reflect on what has increasingly been described as the erosion or twilight of constitutionalism or a shift to a thin version of the rule of law democracy and judicial review in the context of Europeanisation and globalisation processes The national reports are complemented by a separately published comparative study which identifies a number of broader trends and challenges that are shared across several Member States and warrant wider discussion The research for this publication and the comparative study were carried out within the framework of the ERC funded project The Role and Future of National Constitutions in European and Global Governance The book is aimed at scholars researchers judges and legal advisors working on the interface between national constitutional law and EU and transnational law The extradition cases are also of interest to scholars and practitioners in the field of criminal law Anneli Albi is Professor of European Law at the University of Kent United Kingdom Samo Bardutzky is Assistant Professor of Constitutional Law at the University of Ljubljana Slovenia

Annuaire Europeen B. Lamdheer, W. Horsfall Chapter, 2012-12-06 Avec ce quatrieme volume l'Annuaire europeen entre dans la seconde phase de son existence A l'origine la publication de cet Annuaire avait ete a titre d'experience prevue pour trois ans Cette periode est deja depassee et le succes de l'experience est demontre par de nombreuses critiques elogieuses comme par l'accueil tres favorable que lui ont reserve les milieux interesses aux affaires europeennes En consequence le Comite des Ministres du Conseil de l'Europe decida en mars 1957 que l'Annuaire europeen continuerait a paraître sans limitation de duree Ainsi les assises de notre oeuvre sont pour ainsi dire devenues permanentes et ce fait meme prouve les progres realises dans la voie de l'integration europeenne En effet l'annee 1957 a ete extremement fructueuse en ce qui concerne l'integration europeenne et alors que dans l'ensemble ce volume IV devait etre consacre a l'evolution des faits en 1956 nous avons dll egalement porter notre attention aussi bien dans les articles que dans la partie documentaire sur les nouvelles institutions dont l'importance est capitale C'est pourquoi le Traite instituant la Communaute Economique Europeenne figure parmi les textes documentaires du present volume toutefois en raison du manque de place la publication du Traite instituant l'Euratom a ete differee jusqu'au prochain volume Etant donne l'importance de ces deux nouveaux traites pour l'integration europeenne le Comite de redaction demanda a M. Constitutions of Nations, 1974

National Museums and Nation-building in Europe 1750-2010 Peter Aronsson, Gabriella Elgenius, 2014-12-05 Europe's national museums have since their creation been at the centre of on going nation making processes National museums negotiate conflicts and contradictions and entrain the community sufficiently to obtain the support of scientists and art connoisseurs citizens and taxpayers policy makers domestic and foreign visitors alike National Museums and Nation building in Europe 1750 2010 assess the national museum as a manifestation of cultural and political desires rather than that a straightforward representation of the historical facts of a nation National Museums and Nation building in Europe 1750 2010 examines the degree to which national museums have created models and representations of nations their past present and future and proceeds to assess the consequences of such attempts Revealing how different types of nations and states former empires monarchies republics pre modern modern or post imperial entities deploy and prioritise different types of museums based on art archaeology culture and ethnography in their making this book constitutes the first comprehensive and comparative perspective on national museums in Europe and their intricate relationship to the making of nations and states

The Shape of the New Europe Ralf Rogowski, Charles Turner, 2006-11-23 The European Union and European identity were until recently the objects of separate branches of scholarship and inquiry With the entry of Central and Eastern European members into the EU it has become clear that the future of the European Union can no longer be considered in isolation from the future of European identity Taking Jürgen Habermas's plea for a European constitution and a normative foundation for the European Union as its starting point this volume brings together the ideas of distinguished scholars in philosophy political science sociology history law and theology in order to address the shifting relationship between constitutionality political culture history and collective identity The book argues that the future shape of Europe will not only result from external processes of globalisation but from the interaction between these social spheres within Europe

Constitutional Legislation in the United States John Ordronaux, 1891

Judicial Remedies in the European Communities Henry Schermers, 2013-11-11 Where rights are conferred and duties imposed where powers are exercised and obedience to rules of law required judicial remedies are an absolute necessity This statement was valid in 1969 when the first edition of this book appeared it is even more so now Though the political dynamism of the Communities has slackened the number and effect of their legal rules is still growing Practising lawyers need to be familiar with the possibilities for legal redress when rules of Community law are violated But interest in the judicial remedies available in the European Communities is not confined to them alone Many of the legal problems of the European Communities are problems which any supranational organization will encounter Any student of international institutional law will benefit from a study of the judicial remedies available in the European Communities Furthermore the subject forms a fascinating branch of comparative law Many of the solutions adopted in the European Communities can be regarded as resulting from a long development of administrative law

International Organizations and the Idea of Autonomy Richard Collins, Nigel D. White, 2011-04-20 This volume explores the idea of intergovernmental organizations as autonomous international actors Including contributions from leading scholars in the fields of international law politics and governance it addresses themes of institutional autonomy in international law and governance from a range of theoretical and subject specific contexts The collection looks internally at aspects of the institutional law of international organizations and the workings of specific regimes and institutions as well as externally at the proliferation of autonomous organizations in the international legal order as a whole

European Constitutional Language András Jakab, 2016-04-15 Provides a systematic analysis of both the historical development and current interpretation of constitutional law discourse in Europe

Regulation, Enforcement and Governance of Environmental Law Richard Macrory, 2008

Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1900 The Congressional Record is the official record of the proceedings and debates of the United States Congress It is published daily when Congress is in session The Congressional Record began publication in 1873 Debates for sessions prior to 1873 are recorded in The Debates and Proceedings in the Congress of the United States 1789 1824 the Register of Debates in Congress 1824 1837 and the Congressional Globe 1833 1873

Constitutionalising Europe Michael Andrew Longo, 2006 The European Union EU is in a state of transformation with its constitutional future the subject of much heated debate This book provides a durable authoritative and comprehensive account of constitutional development examining the pivotal roles of law and judicial politics in establishing the EU constitutional edifice Michael Longo demonstrates and substantiates the arguments for and against constitutionalisation through the development of a theoretical framework drawing on theories and empirical research in both law and political science to understand this new process of European Integration Ex-Ministers as Constitutional Judges Mathias Möschel, 2025-02-11 The appointment of former politicians to constitutional courts is a global phenomenon While ex politician appointees may bring status visibility knowledge and political awareness to the job their previous roles may influence their assessment of legislations constitutionality Ex Ministers as Constitutional Judges sheds light on this practice in four of the world's oldest and most established constitutional courts Austria France Germany and Italy Weaving together legal political sociological and historical sources including press articles surveys and interviews with constitutional judges and high level personnel the book provides the first comprehensive exploration of ex politicians becoming constitutional court judges It analyses the advantages and disadvantages such personalities bring to constitutional courts as well as assessing what limitations supranational law may set for such participation Whereas the participation of ex ministers does not seem to have posed serious structural issues to constitutional courts so far this volume posits that the risks have been underestimated In this context Ex Ministers as Constitutional Judges ultimately suggests normative steps for minimizing such risks and strengthening the independence and impartiality of constitutional courts in view of democratic and constitutional backsliding

Fundamental Rights in Europe Federico Fabbrini, 2014-02 This book examines the European system for the protection of fundamental rights The aim is to identify the constitutional dynamics that occur as a result of the interaction between state and transnational human rights standards Fabbrini compares the European system with the US federal system based on four case studies

Evolving Constitutions of International Organizations Tetsuo Sato, 2023-09-14 This book analyzes the law creating process relating to the interpretation of constituent instruments of international organizations This topic is one of the key issues concerning the structures and activities of international organizations It differs from other books in the field by suggesting that under the influences of the inherent dynamism of international organizations the interpretative framework of their constituent instruments is not the same as that of ordinary treaties It also concludes that the interpretation of the constituent instruments of international organizations deviates from the interpretative framework regulated by the law of treaties as codified by the Vienna Convention on the Law of Treaties The book will be of prime interest to academics in the fields of international law and international organization and treaty law

The Tangled Complexity of the EU Constitutional Process Giuseppe Martinico, 2022-08-05 Offering a fresh view on the EU constitutionalisation process the new edition of The Tangled Complexity of the EU Constitutional Process presents three main points the idea of constitutional complexity the tension between constitutional evolutionism and constitutional constructivism in the process of European integration and the functional nature of conflicts in the evolution of the EU Because of its prodigiousness European law produces consternation among constitutionalists accustomed to traditional patterns of power This book argues that while constitutional conflicts have frequently been depicted as elements of disturbance along the path towards legal coherence they are physiological and might even be functional to the development of the European legal order which should not be understood in a deterministic manner The new edition will be of particular interest to academics and students in the disciplines of law international relations and political science Political and Constitutional Transitions in North Africa Justin Frosini, Francesco Biagi, 2014-12-05 The transformations which are taking place in the Arab world are dynamic processes characterised by a number of variables that one can refer to as actors and factors The implications of the Arab uprisings are important for the world at large the Arab world's successes and failures at this crucial moment may well serve as a model for other nations Political and Constitutional Transitions in North Africa focuses on five Northern African countries Tunisia Egypt Morocco Libya and Algeria examining specific institutions and actors participating in the political upheavals in North Africa since 2011 and placing them in a comparative perspective in order to better understand the processes at work This book addresses issues pertinent to North African and Middle Eastern Studies comparative constitutional law political science and transitional studies and it contains contributions by experts in all these fields Providing a significant contribution to the understanding of events that followed the immolation of Mohamed Bouazizi in Tunisia this book is a valuable contribution to North African Studies Middle Eastern Studies Comparative Constitutional Law and Transitional Studies The American Bibliography of Slavic and East European Studies Patt Leonard, Rebecca Routh, 2020-02-27 This bibliography first published in 1957 provides citations to North American academic literature on Europe Central Europe the Balkans the Baltic States and the former Soviet Union Organised by discipline it covers the arts humanities social sciences life sciences and technology
