Constructing Field Ethnographic Fieldwork In Contemporary World:

Constructing the Field Vered Amit, 2003-12-16 Ethnographic fieldwork is traditionally seen as what distinguishes social and cultural anthropology from the other social sciences This collection responds to the intensifying scrutiny of fieldwork in recent years It challenges the idea of the necessity for the total immersion of the ethnographer in the field and for the clear separation of professional and personal areas of activity The very existence of the field as an entity separate from everyday life is questioned Fresh perspectives on contemporary fieldwork are provided by diverse case studies from across North America and Europe These contributions give a thorough appraisal of what fieldwork is and should be and an extra dimension is added through fascinating accounts of the personal experiences of anthropologists in the field Constructing the Field, 2000

Ethnographic Fieldwork Antonius C. G. M. Robben, Jeffrey A. Sluka, 2012-01-24 Newly revised Ethnographic Fieldwork An Anthropological Reader Second Edition provides readers with a picture of the breadth variation and complexity of fieldwork The updated selections offer insight into the ethnographer's experience of gathering and analyzing data and a richer understanding of the conflicts hazards and ethical challenges of pursuing fieldwork around the globe Offers an international collection of classic and contemporary readings to provide students with a broad understanding of historical methodological ethical reflexive and stylistic issues in fieldwork Features 16 new articles and revised part introductions with additional insights into the experience of conducting ethnographic fieldwork Explores the importance of fieldwork practice in achieving the core theoretical and methodological goals of anthropology Highlights the personal and professional challenges of field researchers from issues of professional identity fieldwork relations activism and the conflicts hazards and ethical concerns of community work Writing Anthropology F. Bouchetoux, 2013-12-03 A call for new methods for anthropology this book explores the nature of anthropological knowledge and the conditions of integration and communication with people Starting with an analysis of anthropologists' guilt Fan addresses issues of reflexivity reciprocity and respect then builds on this to evaluate how researchers generate knowledge

Fields in Motion Dena Davida, 2011-10-01 Fields in Motion Ethnography in the Worlds of Dance examines the deeper meanings and resonances of artistic dance in contemporary culture The book comprises four sections methods and methodologies autoethnography pedagogies and creative processes and choreographies as cultural and spiritual representations The contributors bring an insiders insight to their accounts of the nature and function of these artistic practices giving voice to dancers dance teachers creators programmers spectators students and scholars International and intergenerational this collection of groundbreaking scholarly research points to a new direction for both dance studies and dance anthropology Traditionally the exclusive domain of aesthetic philosophers the art of dance is here reframed as cultural practice and its significance is revealed through a chorus of voices from practitioners and insider ethnographers

The Cultural Politics of the Paralympic Movement P. David Howe, 2008-02-19 Raising questions and debates crucial to students of social and disability studies this book queries the Paralympic games development as a positive one and questions its role as a vehicle for the empowerment of the disabled community

Living Off-Grid in Wales Elaine Forde, 2020-10-15 It is the first detailed ethnography of living off grid in an ecovillage It is a useful detailed case study and readers can draw comparisons with other things they know about It examines a relatively new and still innovative Welsh planning policy OPD the policy has even had some attention from the World Economic Forum The book is detailed on the policy so potentially useful for policy makers

The Gloss of Harmony Birgit Müller, 2013-10-09 The Gloss of Harmony focuses on agencies of the United Nations examining the paradox of entrusting relatively powerless and underfunded organisations with the responsibility of tackling some of the essential problems of our time The book shows how international organisations shape the world in often unexpected and unpredictable ways The authors of this collection look not only at the official objectives and unintended consequences of international governance but also at how international organisations involve collective and individual actors in policy making absorb critique attempt to neutralise political conflict and create new political fields with local actors and national governments The Gloss of Harmony identifies the micro social processes and complexities within multilateral organisations which have up to now been largely invisible This book will have wide appeal not only to students and academics in anthropology business studies and sociology but also to all practitioners concerned with international governance

Native on the Net Kyrá Landzelius, 2004-11 The Internet is increasingly being used by marginalized ethnic groups to create a form of community and unified political voice This book explores the lives and agendas of these web users and the political effects of their online activity

An Anthropology of the Irish in Belgium Sean O' Dubhghaill, 2019-07-22 The first anthropological account of the Irish diaspora in Europe in the 21st century this book provides a culture centric examination of the Irish diaspora Focusing less on an abstract or technical definition of Irish self identification the author allows members of this group to speak through vignettes and interview excerpts providing an anthropological lens that allows the reader to enter a frame of self reference This book therefore provides architecture to understand how diasporic communities might understand their own identities in a new way and how they might reconsider the role played by mobility in changing expressions of identity Providing firsthand experiential and narrative insight into the Irish diaspora in Europe this volume promises to contribute an anthropological perspective to historical accounts of the Irish overseas theoretical works in Irish studies and sociological examinations of Irish identity and diaspora

Reflexivity in Language and Intercultural Education Julie S. Byrd Clark, Fred Dervin, 2014-04-03 With the impact of accelerated globalization digital technologies mobility and migration the fields of Applied Linguistics Language and Intercultural Education have been shifting One shift in need of further exploration is that of systematic and coherent reflexivity in researching language and culture This unique and timely book thus examines the significance of reflexivity as an integral process particularly when researching the multifaceted notions of multilingualism and interculturality in education It also contributes to current critical approaches to representations of languages and cultures in identity politics As such the authors offer innovative ways of engaging with reflexivity in teaching learning and research through multimodal and complex ways The chapters span a diverse range of educational settings in Asia Australia Europe and North America     The State Otherwise Alice Stefanelli,2024-08-01 The city of Beirut is increasingly congested polluted and suffocating Its already limited green public spaces are under growing threat of privatisation and redevelopment The State Otherwise examines the difficult predicament of Beirut s public green spaces from the vantage point of the civic campaign to reopen Horsh al Sanawbar the city s largest public park Analysing the relationship between neoliberal sectarianism private interest and political action the book asks questions about the nature of privatisation of public property civic society s potential to mobilise individuals and the role of public authorities in promoting the public good     Building peace for a living Mojca Vah Jevšnik,2009-01-01 Using Kosovo as a case study the book illuminates the interplay of some of the most controversial concepts in postcolonial times including humanitarian intervention peacebuilding nation state building and doing development in war torn states A special focus is on development professionals mandated to build peace and implement development projects in war torn or failed states The book seeks to uncover the complex nature of doing good for others especially when development efforts are serving the political and economic interests of donor states and when the social status attained by the expatriate development workers tends to improve upon migrating to and working in war torn states     Electronic Tribes Tyrone L. Adams,Stephen A. Smith,2009-06-03 Whether people want to play games and download music engage in social networking and professional collaboration or view pornography and incite terror the Internet provides myriad opportunities for people who share common interests to find each other The contributors to this book argue that these self selected online groups are best understood as tribes with many of the same ramifications both positive and negative that tribalism has in the non cyber world In Electronic Tribes the authors of sixteen competitively selected essays provide an up to the minute look at the social uses and occasional abuses of online communication in the new media era They explore many current Internet subcultures including MySpace com craftster org massively multiplayer online role playing games MMORPGs such as World of Warcraft music downloading white supremacist and other counterculture groups and Nigerian e mail scams Their research raises compelling questions and some remarkable answers about the real life social consequences of participating in electronic tribes Collectively the contributors to this book capture a profound shift in the way people connect as communities formed by geographical proximity are giving way to communities both online and offline formed around ideas     Permanent Exclusion from School and Institutional Prejudice Anna Carlile,2013-02-11 Permanent exclusion from school and institutional prejudice Creating change through critical bureaucracy Anna Carlile This book tells the story of permanent exclusion from school from within an urban children s services department It focuses on two areas what contributes to instances of permanent exclusion from school and what the effects are of its existence as a disciplinary option The book questions how and why local government officers make particular decisions about children and young people Rather than focussing on what children and young people did behaviourally to get excluded the book adopts a Foucauldian analysis to concentrate on their place within a larger policy community which includes professionals and policy makers It adopts a critical bureaucratic exercise in studying up on powerful organisations an informed approach to ameliorating social inequity The findings described here suggest a broad deep and opaque seam of institutional prejudice permanent exclusion from school can be understood to be both caused by this and to intensify its effects This has implications for the voices of young people subject to or at risk of permanent exclusion from school and the final chapter outlines a Foucauldian Freirian student voice project offering ideas about how schools might tackle this Globalisation

Thomas Hylland Eriksen, 2003-06-20 Globalisation has had a massive impact on the teaching and practice of anthropology This book addresses the methodological problems that these changes have wrought The essays show how the focus has shifted from traditional studies of specific sites towards the movements and shifts associated with increasing migration and population flows the result of living in an increasingly globalised world Written by a range of distinguished anthropologists it offers innovative new approaches to the discipline in the light of these changes making it indispensable as a teaching text at higher levels and as mandatory reading for practitioners and researchers in a wide range of merging disciplines Topics explored include the methodology of studying on the internet global and spatial identities in the Caribbean shifting boundaries in coastal communities the anthropology of political life issues of law and the flow of human substances and the diffusion of moral values created by globalisation Crisis Reporters, Emotions, and Technology Johana

Kotířová, 2019-07-29 This open access book explores the emotional labour of crisis reporters in an original style that combines fictional and factual narrative Exploring how journalists make sense of their emotional experience and development in relation to their professional ideology it illustrates how media professionals learn to think and act within crisis situations Drawing on in depth interviews with journalists reporting on wars terror attacks and natural disasters the book rethinks traditional concepts in journalistic thought Finally it reflects on the specific contemporary vulnerabilities of industry professionals including the impact of new technologies specific forms of precarity and a particular strain of cynicism central to the industry Combining comprehensive empirical research with the fictional narrative of a journalist protagonist Crisis Reporters Emotions and Technology establishes an innovative approach to academic storytelling A Handbook of

Economic Anthropology Carrier, James G., 2022-05-13 This timely Research Agenda examines the ways in which public private partnerships PPPs in infrastructure continue to excite policy makers governments research scholars and critics around the world It analyzes the PPP research journey to date and articulates the lessons learned as a result of the increasing interest in improving infrastructure governance Expert international contributors explore how PPP ideas have spread transferred and transformed and propose a range of future research directions Anthropological Fieldwork

James Davies, Dimitrina Spencer, 2020-05-22 Anthropologists are affected by and affect others through emotional engagement

they manage emotions or allow them to unfold as vehicles of understanding The contributors to this volume argue that participant observation is an embodied relational process mediated by emotions If fieldwork is to attain its fullest potential emotional reflexivity must complement the wider reflexive task of anthropologists This makes particular demands on the training of anthropologists and the contributors to this volume propose new ways of practising emotional reflexivity such as radical empiricism that enhance anthropological knowledge Emotions in anthropology are explored from a variety of methodological and theoretical standpoints drawing on fieldwork in Nepal the UK Taiwan Russia India and the Philippines

Ethnography at Work Brian Moeran, 2020-05-27 Ethnography at Work follows the experiences of the author as a participant observer in the day to day running of a Japanese advertising agency The book reveals the intricate behind the scenes planning discussion negotiations and strategies needed to ensure that the agency's presentation to a potential client will be preferred over that of a rival firm The book shows how detailed ethnography can lead to an understanding of numerous different but interlocking theoretical issues It demonstrates how ethnography can travel beyond the academic realm and be used by business personnel to heighten their understanding of their companies organizational structures strategies and daily work practices Asking crucial questions about the role of the anthropologist in the field Ethnography at Work introduces students to ways in which anthropologists study social systems in business
