Development and Reality Construction Christiane Floyd, Heinz Züllighoven, Reinhard Budde, Reinhard Keil-Slawik, 2012-12-06 The present book is based on the conference Software Development and Reality Construction held at Schloß Eringerfeld in Germany September 25-30 1988 This was organized by the Technical University of Berlin TUB in cooperation with the German National Research Center for Computer Science GMD Sankt Augustin and sponsored by the Volkswagen Foundation whose financial support we gratefully acknowledge The conference was an interdisciplinary scientific and cultural event aimed at promoting discussion on the nature of computer science as a scientific discipline and on the theoretical foundations and systemic practice required for human oriented system design In keeping with the conversational style of the conference the book comprises a series of individual contributions arranged so as to form a coherent whole Some authors reflect on their practice in computer science and system design Others start from approaches developed in the humanities and the social sciences for understanding human learning and creativity individual and cooperative work and the interrelation between technology and organizations Thus each contribution makes its specific point and can be read on its own merit But at the same time it takes its place as a chapter in the book along with all the other contributions to give what seemed to us a meaningful overall line of argumentation This required careful editorial coordination and we are grateful to all the authors for bearing with us throughout the slow genesis of the book and for complying with our requests for extensive revision of some of the manuscripts     Building on Bion-- Branches Robert M. Lipgar, Malcolm Pines, 2003 The enduring influence of Bion's work is the central theme of this book Chapters by distinguished international contributors from the fields of psychoanalysis group analysis management consultancy and social science cover work with large groups Bion and the Tavistock conferences and his ideas about thinking learning dreams and mentality

Griffith, 2025-06-05 Truth and Social Reality A Metaphysical Inquiry presents a new theory of social truth and social construction The book weds truthmaker theory with recent work in social ontology arguing that social truths are true in virtue of socially constructed portions of the world It focuses on the construction of human social kinds like gender race class and disability The book offers novel accounts of social construction realism social kind pluralism social context the context dependency of social truth and social vagueness Overall Truth and Social Reality presents a realist picture of the social world on which there are objective truths about the way things are in the social world Social truth is not socially constructed despite being grounded in a socially constructed reality The theory it provides nonetheless captures the contingency alterability and vagueness of the social world and the context dependency of social truth The book also addresses the relationships between truth power and justice It argues that truth itself is not a tool of oppression as some maintain Rather truth and truth telling play an essential role in upending oppression and achieving justice Truth and Social Reality rebuts the cynicism of the post truth age by defending the possibility and value of social truth
