What is Africanness? Contesting nativism in race, culture and sexualities Charles Ngwena,2018-01-01 What is Africanness Contesting nativism in race culture and sexualities by Charles Ngwena 2018 ISBN 978 1 920538 82 8 Pages 306 Print version Available Electronic version Free PDF available About the publication What is Africanness Contesting nativism in culture race and sexualities by Charles Ngwena Professor of Law at the Centre for Human Rights Faculty of Law University of Pretoria is a peer reviewed monograph aiming to contribute to the ongoing scholarly conversation in and beyond South Africa about who is African and what is African It aims to implicate a reductive sameness in the naming of Africans nativism by showing its teleology and effects and offers an alternative understanding of how Africans can be named or can name themselves The book develops an epistemology for constructing the hermeneutics of Africanness today long after the primal colonial moment and its debasing racialising ideology It interrogates the making of Africa in colonial discourses and the making of an African race and African culture s and sexuality ies in ways that are not just historically conscious but also have a heuristic capacity to contest nativism from the outside as well as from within The arguments in this book go beyond problematising African identity by addressing an existential gap in theory for explicating African social identity The book develops an interpretive method a hermeneutics for locating and deciphering African identifications in ways that are historically conscious and conjunctural The hermeneutics look to the present and the future in addition to the past so that African identifications are not nailed to a mast but remain invested with mobility and the capacity to mutate radically and make new and unexpected beginnings

Comments Charles Ngwenya s timely and original book is a wonderful read rich in theory and insight and an essential companion for those interested in exploring the multiplicity of histories cultures and subjectivities that constitute the diversity of Africanness and African identities

Professor Cathi Albertyn School of Law University of the Witwatersrand Editor South African Journal on Human Rights This is a brilliant exploration of liberating and affirming ways to speak of African identities and sexualities reminding us there can be creative beauty where pain and dispossession have resided

Rudo Chigudu Centre for Human Rights University of Pretoria This is a masterpiece Not only does the author capture the discourse and debates on Africanness he aptly examines them before offering his views on decentring the race of Africanness with the important recognition of Africa as land of diverse identifications
