Constructions Of Race Place And Nation

Johan R. Edelheim

Constructions Of Race Place And Nation:

Constructions of Race, Place, and Nation Peter Jackson, Jan Penrose, 1993 Constructions of Race Place and Nation is intended for social and cultural geographers with an interest in race and place It should also be of interest to political geographers as well as social and political scientists with interests in nationalism and ethnic relations

The Cultural Construction of London's East End Paul Newland, 2008 Paul Newland's illuminating study explores the ways in which London's East End has been constituted in a wide variety of texts films novels poetry television shows newspapers and journals Newland argues that an idea or image of the East End which developed during the late nineteenth century continues to function in the twenty first century as an imaginative space in which continuing anxieties continue to be worked through concerning material progress and modernity rationality and irrationality ethnicity and Otherness class and its related systems of behaviour The Cultural Construction of London's East End offers detailed examinations of the ways in which the East End has been constructed in a range of texts including BBC Television's EastEnders Monica Ali's Brick Lane Walter Besant's All Sorts and Conditions of Men Thomas Burke's Limehouse Nights Peter Ackroyd's Hawksmoor films such as Piccadilly Sparrows Can't Sing The Long Good Friday From Hell The Elephant Man and Spider and in the work of Iain Sinclair

New Geographies of Race and Racism Caroline Bressey, 2016-04-29 In recent years geographers interested in ethnicity race and racism have extended their focus from examining geographies of segregation and racism to exploring cultural politics social practice and everyday geographies of identity and experience This edited collection illustrates this new work and includes research on youth and new ethnicities the contested politics of race and racism intersections of ethnicity religion and race and the theorisation and interrogation of whiteness Case studies from the UK and Ireland focus on the intersections of race and nation and the specificities of place in discourses of racialisation and identity A key feature of the book is its engagement with a range of methodological approaches to examining the significance of race including ethnography visual methodologies and historical analysis

Leisure and Tourism Landscapes Cara Aitchison, Nicola E. MacLeod, Nicola E Macleod, Stephen J. Shaw, 2014-05-01 Increasingly significant as mediators of spatial identity and meaning leisure tourism culture and heritage are only now beginning to be located within the rapidly evolving discourses of poststructuralist geographies Exploring the influence of leisure and tourism on the production representation and consumption of landscape the first half of this important book focuses on different ways of seeing or representing landscape whereas the second half examines different forms of productive consumption in leisure and tourism Both symbolic and material spaces of leisure and tourism are also examined in relation to urban and rural landscapes heritage landscapes gendered landscapes and landscapes of sexuality and desire With a multidisciplinary approach and a strong theoretical content which builds on poststructuralist theories this is undoubtedly an important addition to literature in the field

Postcolonialism Revisited Kirsti Bohata, 2009-06-15 Postcolonialism Revisited is a ground breaking book the first to explore and analyse Anglophone Welsh writing both literary and otherwise in the context of contemporary thinking about colonial and post colonial cultures Kirsti Bohata considers how far the paradigms of postcolonial theory may be usefully adopted and adapted to provide an illuminating exploration of Welsh writing in English while simultaneously considering the challenges that such writing might offer to the field of postcolonial theory In addition to dealing with a range of theorists in the field including Frantz Fanon Albert Memmi Charlotte Williams and Homi Bhabha the book looks at how Wales has been constructed as a colonized nation in nineteenth and twentieth century writing Themed chapters include the treatment of place in English and Welsh language writing of the 1950s and 1960s hybridity and assimilation the position of the Welsh as outsiders inside the women s movement in Wales during the fin de siecle and postcolonial understanding of linguistic power struggles A variety of forgotten writers have been unearthed in this study and are considered alongside more famous names such as R S Thomas Margiad Evans Arthur Machen Christopher Meredith and Rhys Davies Written in an accessible style

Postcolonialism Revisited will be required reading for those involved in the study of Welsh writing in English Tourist Attractions Johan R. Edelman, 2015 Tourist attractions constitute the metaphorical heart of tourism This book aims to both deconstruct and construct what tourist attractions are how we perceive them and how we can enhance our understanding of what attracts us as tourists The volume reaches beyond current ideas about the ways tourist attractions are created shaped and packaged It focuses on the importance and subjective nature of identity memory narrative and performance in the tourist experience to find new ways of analysing and managing tourist attractions The book will appeal to researchers and students in tourism and destination management and heritage and indigenous tourism Big Data? Martin Hand, Sam

Hillyard, 2014-11-07 This book examines and engages with the ambivalence of digitization illuminating the diverse ways in which researchers approach negotiate understand and interpret objects and practices of digital research Regions in Central Europe Sven Tägil, 1999 The subjective term region and its theoretical implications are considered in the opening chapters of this text The empirical section ranges in time from the appearance of the German stern duchies in the Middle Ages to cross border co operation in the Oder area today and geographically from Baden Wurttemberg in the west to Transylvania Carpatho Ruthenia and the Kaliningrad enclave in the east The contributors to the text highlight the complex problems of local identity and the centrality of culture in shaping notions of the region Leisure/Tourism Geographies

David Crouch, 2013-04-15 Leisure and Tourism Geographies considers leisure tourism as an encounter An encounter that exists between people between people and space and between people and their expectations experiences and desires The contributors explore diverse aspects of leisure and tourism ranging from the methodologies behind leisure practices to detailed case studies including Disneyland Paris tourism in sacred landscapes leisure practices in cyberspace leisure and yachting use of recreational holiday cottages National Parks local parks and gardens Presenting an exciting mix of attitudes and ideas concerning leisure and tourism this book documents a lively debate placing geography at its centre Marxism,

Mysticism and Modern Theory Suke Wolton, 2016-07-27 Fashionable new theories tend to reject universal reason in favour of pluralism and locality Marxism Mysticism and Modern Theory examines some of these theories and argues that they are the mystified expression of the current political and economic impasse Today's relativistic outlook reveals a minimalist and atomized viewpoint a retreat from the goal of rational understanding Marxism Mysticism and Modern Theory sets out in this critique the case for developing a new humanism to extend rationality

Gender and U.S. Immigration Pierrette Hondagneu-Sotelo, 2003-08-01 Resurgent immigration is one of the most powerful forces disrupting and realigning everyday life in the United States and elsewhere and gender is one of the fundamental social categories anchoring and shaping immigration patterns Yet the intersection of gender and immigration has received little attention in contemporary social science literature and immigration research This book brings together some of the best work in this area including essays by pioneers who have logged nearly two decades in the field of gender and immigration and new empirical work by both young scholars and well established social scientists bringing their substantial talents to this topic for the first time

Globalizing South China Carolyn Cartier, 2011-07-26 This insightful account demonstrates that capitalism in China has a history and a geography and combines perspectives from both to demonstrate that regional economic restructuring in South China is far from an economic miracle's Find out more information about the RGS IBG journals by following the links below AREA <http://www.blackwellpublishing.com/journal.asp?ref=0004-0894> The Geographical Journal <http://www.blackwellpublishing.com/journal.asp?ref=0016-7398> Transactions of the Institute of British Geographers <http://www.blackwellpublishing.com/journal.asp?ref=0020-2754>

Ethnic and Racial Studies Today Martin Bulmer, John Solomos, 2013-10-18 This important collection addresses recent developments in the teaching studying and presentation of race across many disciplines including sociology politics social geography cultural studies and philosophy Drawing on the latest research in all these areas the authors provide a comprehensive account of key controversies and debates and pinpoint new directions in research and scholarship that are likely to shape the study of race and ethnicity well into the next century

Geographies of New Femininities Nina Laurie, Claire Dywer, Sarah L. Holloway, Fiona Smith, 2014-06-03 Geographies of New Femininities examines the emergence of contemporary constructions of femininity in a global context It asks whether these femininities are new and suggests that current celebrations of diversity in the lived experience and performance of women's identities are largely Euro centric Through four in depth case studies Geographies of New Femininities illustrates how constructions of femininities across the world reflect gender inequalities embedded within global local geographies of social and economic change The analysis brings together key themes in geography and feminist studies showing how globalisation and the fracturing of identities are influencing research on gender Throughout the book the authors explore spaces of opportunity and oppression for women and highlight the geographies associated with the negotiation of gender identities Geographies of New Femininities moves between empirical and theoretical debate using first hand accounts to work through methodological issues relating to gender and geography It is deliberately written in an accessible style to encourage students to engage with up to date research on gender Geographical Thought Anoop Nayak,Alex Jeffrey,2025-06-30 This new second edition of Geographical Thought remains a clear and accessible introduction to the key ideas and figures in human geography A renewed focus on climate justice is layered throughout the book segueing into a new chapter on decolonising geography Each of the chapters has been refreshed using the latest scholarship in the field cutting edge theory and contemporary case studies From animal geographies to Black geographies the current text is brimming with new theories concepts and ideas Across three distinctive parts Geographical Foundations Geography at the Intersections and Plural and Relational Geographies this book provides an essential introduction to the theories that have shaped the study of societies and space Opening with an exploration of the founding concepts of human geography in the nineteenth century academy Nayak and Jeffrey examine the range of theoretical perspectives that have emerged within human geography over the last century from feminist and Marxist scholarship through to postcolonial and non representational theories Each chapter contains insightful lines of argument that encourage readers towards independent thinking and critical evaluation The supporting materials include a glossary visual images further reading suggestions and dialogue boxes This book is an invaluable guide for students new to the discipline seeking an introduction to the theories and ongoing debates as well as those looking to deepen their understanding of human geography Encyclopedia of Human Geography Barney Warf,2006-05-16 Publisher description Culture, Power, and Difference Ann Levett,1997 With the eyes of the world watching South Africa this book provides a unique window on the transition to democracy through an analysis of the practice of power in language Handbook of Cultural Geography Kay Anderson,2003 The editors of this genuinely brilliant book seem to dare the reader to argue with them from the first page I would encourage everyone interested in cultural geography or in the cultural turn within a whole set of human geographies to do likewise ANNALS OF THE ASSOCIATION OF AMERICAN GEOGRAPHERS A richly plural and impassioned re presentation of cultural geography that eschews everything in the way of boundary drawing and fixity A re visioning of the field as a set of engagements with the world it contains a vibrant atlas of ever shifting possibilities Throbbing with commitment and un disciplined in the most positive sense of that term it is exactly what a handbook ought to be Professor Allan Pred Department of Geography University of California at Berkeley Ten sections with a detailed editorial introduction the Handbook of Cultural Geography presents a comprehensive statement of the relation between the cultural imagination and the geographical imagination Emphasising the intellectual diversity of the discipline the Handbook is a textured overview that presents a state of the art assessment of the key questions informing cultural geography while also looking at resonances between cultural geography and other disciplines National Identity and Democracy in Africa Mai Palmberg,1999 Province of South Africa
