The Consuming Flame Frank Wilson Kenyon,1970      The Consuming Flame Frank Wilson Kenyon,1970      George Eliot's English Travels Kathleen McCormack,2005-11-16 George Eliot s more than fifty long and short journeys within England took her to dozens of sites scattered around the country Revising the traditional notion that George Eliot drew her settings and characters only from the areas of her Warwickshire childhood Kathleen McCormack demonstrates that English travel furnished the novelist with a wide variety of originals for the composite characters and settings she would so memorably create McCormack traces the way in which George Eliot gathered material during her travels and also drafted long sections of the novels while away from her London home She argues that by examining the choices George Eliot made in transforming discarding or directly describing her English originals we might take a significant step forward in the interpretation of her writings Where other critics have tried to interpret characters as one to one renderings of living or dead models for example this study reveals more elaborate blendings of what George Eliot called the widely sundered elements that made up her fiction McCormack also reaches the fascinating conclusion that the novels were a form of coded communication between the author and people in her life including other prominent Victorians such as Edward Burne Jones Robert Lytton and Barbara Bodichon Presenting fresh biographical information and original insights into George Eliot s writing strategies George Eliot s English Travels promises a decisive shift in our understanding of one of the most important figures in Victorian literature      George Eliot Harold Bloom,2009 Presents a brief biography of George Eliot critical views and plot summaries of four of her novels and an index of themes and ideas      Everyone and Everything in George Eliot George Newlin,2006 Includes a thematic concordance of various aspects of life written about by George Eliot Using Eliot s own words this work presents all the characters in the novels and other fiction as well as useful plot and content summaries and bibliographic data It presents seven Eliot novels three novellas and two short stories      George Eliot and Intoxication K. McCormack,1999-11-22 Throughout George Eliot s fiction not only do a remarkable number of her characters act under the influence of unwise consumption of alcohol and opium but drugs also recur often as metaphors and allusions Together they create an extensive pattern of drug disease references that represent socio political problems as diseases in a social body and solutions to those problems especially solutions that depend on some kind of written language as volatile remedies that retain the potential to either kill or cure      George Eliot Kathleen Adams,1972      George Eliot Gordon S. Haight,T. VanArsdel,1982-06-18      George Eliot's The Mill on the Floss Harold Bloom,1988      Everyone and Everything in George Eliot: The complete nonfiction, the taxonomy, and the topicon George Newlin,2006 In this book all the fiction nonfiction and poetry of popular Victorian author George Eliot is chronicled in one definitive reference In addition to the seven Eliot novels three novellas and two short stories all sixty eight works of non fiction are covered and all poetry long and short is included Using Eliot s own words Newlin presents all the characters in the novels and other fiction as well as useful plot and content summaries and bibliographic data All of Eliot s short poems are included complete and her longer poetical pieces are extensively summarized and extracted In addition the set includes two short essays by Eliot which have been unknown to scholarship until now There is also a chronology of the works set against a chronology of Eliot s life This comprehensive reference includes a thematic concordance of every aspect of life written about by Eliot Complete with more than 60 illustrations many from the earliest editions of the Eliot works it is the ultimate reference to the full body of George Eliot s literary output Biography Ira B.
