Consuming Places JOHN Urry,2002-03-11 John Urry has been discussing and writing on these and similar questions for the past fifteen years In Consuming Places he gathers together his most significant contributions Urry begins with an extensive review of the connections between society time and space The concept of society the nature of locality the significance of economic restructuring and the concept of the rural are examined in relationship to place The book then considers how places have been transformed by the development of service occupations and industries Concepts of the service class and post industrialism are theoretically and empirically discussed Attention is then devoted to the ways in which places are consumed Particular attention is devoted to the visual character of such consumption and its implications for place and people The implications for nature and the environment are also explored in depth The changing nature of consumption and the tensions between commodification and collective enthusiasms are explored in the context of the changing ways in which the countryside is consumed Cities and Consumption Mark Jayne,2006 This text investigates the mutual and dynamic relationship between urban development and consumption It uses case studies and illustrations from North America Europe and Asia Visual Consumption Jonathan E. Schroeder,2005 Visual Consumption draws from art history photography and visual studies to develop an interdisciplinary image based approach to understanding consumer behaviour

Mobile Lives Anthony Elliott,John Urry,2010-06-10 This book sets out with remarkable clarity and insight the contradictions of mobile societies and of mobile lives Such mobilities are full of dilemmas for individuals for corporations for states and in a way for the globe itself Mobile Lives is an up to date provocatively written book which examines social processes that are on the edge Person and Place Sabine C. Hess,2009 Concerned with contemporary notions of personhood and the relationship between persons and places this book presents a detailed insight into the Vanua Lavan s engagement with modernity and examines how they relate to the past make sense of the present and anticipate the future Marilyn Strathern s claim that the Melanesian person is a dividual by and large holds for the Vanua Lavan person But Vanua Lavans have also been exposed to and creatively engaged with what can be summarised under the term Western individualism The author draws together several themes discourses and conversations which concern Vanuatu specifically the Pacific as a wider geographic area but also theoretical fields in anthropology the relevance and expressions of sociality through kinship concepts of person issues about land and cosmology the kastom debate and questions about continuity and change In doing so she provides a snapshot of contemporary notions of personhood The Experiences of Film Location

Tourists Stefan Roesch, 2009 This book examines the on site experiences of film induced tourists at various film locations including locations from The Lord of the Rings Star Wars and The Sound of Music The study attempts to understand the needs and wants of film location tourists and also examines how to use films for destination marketing William Wordsworth and the Ecology of Authorship Scott Hess, 2012 In William Wordsworth and the Ecology of Authorship Scott Hess explores Wordsworth's defining role in establishing what he designates as the ecology of authorship a primarily middle class nineteenth century conception of nature associated with aesthetics high culture individualism and nation Instead of viewing Wordsworth as an early ecologist Hess places him within a context that is largely cultural and aesthetic The supposedly universal Wordsworthian vision of nature Hess argues was in this sense specifically male middle class professional and culturally elite factors that continue to shape the environmental movement today Mobilities: New Perspectives on Transport and Society John Urry, 2016-04-22 Bringing together the leading authors currently working at the intersection of social science and transport science this volume provides a companion to the well established and extensive international Transport and Society series Each chapter and the volume as a whole offers closer and richer consideration of the issues practices and structures of multiple mobilities which shape the current world but which have typically been overlooked or minimised What this approach seeks to do is not only draw attention to many new areas of research and investigation relating to mobile lives but also to point to new theories and methods by which such lives have to be researched and examined Such new theories and methods are relevant both to rethinking transport studies as such but are also recasting societal studies as transport so that it comes out of the ghetto and enters mainstream social science

Societies beyond Oil John Urry, 2013-01-10 What would a de carbonised society be like What are the implications of a general de globalisation for our social futures How will our high carbon patterns of life be restructured in a de energized world As global society gradually wakes up to the new reality of peak oil these questions remain unanswered For the last hundred years oil made the world go round and as we move into the century of tough oil this book examines some profound consequences It considers what societies would be like that are powering down what lessons can be learned from the past about de energized societies will there be rationing systems or just the market to allocate scarce energy Can virtual worlds solve energy problems What levels of income and wellbeing would be likely In this groundbreaking book John Urry analyzes how the twentieth century created a kind of mirage of the future that is unsustainable into even the medium term and envisions the future of an oil dependent world facing energy descent Without a large scale plan B how can the energizing of society possibly be going into reverse Real Virtuality Ulrich Gehmann, Martin Reiche, 2014-06-15 Increasingly the virtual became reality by a hybridization of the world as we knew it the process that went on in recent years is one of a technically assisted hybridization of both space and self the old world is becoming virtualized and functionalized to a degree never experienced before For the first time in human history we have reached a threshold where we have not only to re assert but to redefine ourselves as regards our fundamental terms of understanding what world means for us our base of existence and now an assemblage of mixed realities and connected what being human means With a Preface by Gerd Stern Urban Culture Chris Jenks,2004 This set includes key pieces from Peter Ackroyd Charles Baudelaire Walter Benjamin Homi Bhaba Charles Dickens Fredrick Engles Paul Gilroy Thomas Hobbes Max Weber George Simmel Ian Sinclair Edward W Soja Gayatri Spivak Nigel Thrift Virginia Woolf Sharon Zukin and many others The material is arranged thematically highlighting the variety of interests that coexist and conflict within the city Issues such as gender class race age and disability are covered along with urban experiences such as walking politics anthropology cultural history cultural geography art critical theory visual culture literary studies social policy and cultural studies http://www.loc.gov/catdir/enhancements/fy0650/2004044268_d.html Climate Change and Society John Urry,2011-06-20 This is the first book to develop a proper sociology of climate change and will be an excellent companion to Tony Giddens The Politics of Climate Change National Food Situation ,1973 Liquid Modernity Zygmunt Bauman,2013-07-10 In this new book Bauman examines how we have moved away from a heavy and solid hardware focused modernity to a light and liquid software based modernity This passage he argues has brought profound change to all aspects of the human condition The new remoteness and unreachability of global systemic structure coupled with the unstructured and under defined fluid state of the immediate setting of life politics and human togetherness call for the rethinking of the concepts and cognitive frames used to narrate human individual experience and their joint history This book is dedicated to this task Bauman selects five of the basic concepts which have served to make sense of shared human life emancipation individuality time space work and community and traces their successive incarnations and changes of meaning Liquid Modernity concludes the analysis undertaken in Bauman s two previous books Globalization The Human Consequences and In Search of Politics Together these volumes form a brilliant analysis of the changing conditions of social and political life by one of the most original thinkers writing today Marketing Research Report ,1952 Marketing Research Report United States.
