Chief Apostle M III One Purple Week; and Then - Harry Brazeel Wandell, 1853-1898 Love Letters: Great Literary Romances Steven Payne, 2012-05-31 In the hands of a genius a love letter can become a great even an immortal work of literature in its own right. Love Letters: Great Literary Romances examines the lives of great writers John Keats, Franz Kafka, Leonard Woolf, a celebrated composer Leo Janáček and two great lovers of mediaeval Europe Abelard and Heloise to see their turbulent and sometimes tormented romantic lives played out in the passionate declarations of love in the letters they wrote. The Mantra for winning cancer battle H.S.Kulkarni, 2019-01-12 Hebrew Word Study Chaim Bentorah, 2014-06-25 Many Christians long to study the Word of God in the original Hebrew. They will take Hebrew classes at a college, a synagogue or online and often become discouraged because these classes either teach them to speak Hebrew or spend considerable time teaching complex rules of grammar when all these Christians want to do is find God's heart and message in His Word. As a result these Christians usually give up and just go to the back of their Strong's Concordance, a lexicon or a Bible dictionary to look up a word. This book is written for the Christian who does not want to learn to speak Hebrew or spend long hours trying to understand complex rules of grammar. All they want is to know if there is a deeper meaning to certain Hebrew words. Even after looking up a word in their lexicon they are still left with a nagging feeling that there must be more. In most cases there is more and this book will give some guidelines in how to drill down into the very heart, soul and core of a Hebrew word. It will take you to a world beyond your lexicon and you do not need a PhD to do it. The only thing you will need is to love the Word of God and if you love it enough it will reveal its secrets. Hebrew is a language of the heart and if you love God enough He will reveal His heart to you through the ancient Hebrew language. The Familiar Essay, Romantic Affect and Metropolitan Culture Simon Peter Hull, 2018-06-11 Through close readings of diverse examples by Lamb, De Quincey, Hazlitt, Irving and Poe this book argues that the familiar essay in the Romantic period embodies a quintessentially metropolitan mode of affect. The generic traits of the essay: astuteness of observation, an ambulatory or paratactic movement of thought and an urbane tone of wry or ironic humour all predispose it to the expression of a detached, non-pathological state of mind. This is a mind conditioned by the quickened pace, assorted humanity and plenitude of spectacle which characterise urban and urbanised life. In making a valuable genre-based contribution to scholarship on the importance to Romantic studies of the city and metropolitan culture, the traditional concept of Romantic affect is reassessed. The book proposes a more complex and varied model than the simple binary one of a feeling reaction to Enlightenment reason. Partly enacted within its own formal parameters and partly through its disruptive and genre-transcending progeny, the essayistic figure, the familiar essay articulates a blithe and at times shocking and provocative discourse of an affect or a strategically and often satirical callousness. Therefore the overall concept of affect in this period needs to be understood not as a unified entity opposed to Enlightenment reason but a dialogue between concurrent opposing modes played out against a dichotomized geo cultural landscape of the country and the city. Essayistic un-affect emerges in the end as an apolitical phenomenon, a primary vehicle for the essayist's inherent scepticism, sometimes enabling outright ridicule and at other times a tentative questioning or probing of both orthodox thought and emerging ideas from the rarefied liberalist sensibility of the Lake poets to the hubristic vanity of the colonial adventurer and from the allure of hedonistic Old World decadence to the proscriptive strictures of moralistic art. A Blueprint of His Dissent Roger S. Platizky, 1989. A systematic examination of five poems by Tennyson revealing a subtle encoding by the poet of a multi-level criticism of Victorian mores. The dementia of Tennyson's mad speakers is shown to arise from problematic Victorian conflicts about faith, duty, death and the suppression of desire.
