Consuming Passions The Dynamics Of Popular Culture:

Consuming Passions Judith Williamson, 1986 Writing with wit and charm and intelligence Judith Williamson explores the forces that channel our tastes and structure our lives films books television advertisements photography music political movements and even the royal family      Looking for America Ardis Cameron, 2008-04-15 Looking for America The Visual Production of Nation and People is a groundbreaking collection that explores the visual in defining the kaleidoscope of American experience and American identity in the 20th century Covers enduringly important topics in American history nationhood class politics of identity and the visual mapping of others Includes editorial introductions suggested readings a primer on how to read an image and a guide to visual archives and collections Well illustrated book for those in American Studies and related fields eager to incorporate the visual into their teaching and telling of the American story      Gender Space Architecture Iain Borden, Barbara Penner, Jane Rendell, 2002-09-11 This significant reader brings together for the first time the most important essays concerning the intersecting subjects of gender space and architecture Carefully structured and with numerous introductory essays it guides the reader through theoretical and multi disciplinary texts to direct considerations of gender in relation to particular architectural sites projects and ideas This collection marks a seminal point in gender and architecture both summarizing core debates and pointing toward new directions and discussions for the future

The Social Construction of Democracy George Reid Andrews, Herrick Chapman, 1997-05 The recent revival of democracy across much of the globe and the fragility of many of the new regimes have inspired renewed interest in the origins of dictatorship and democracy in modern times This book assembles renowned specialists on Eastern and Western Europe the U S Latin America and Japan to explore why democracies have succeeded and why they have failed over the past 100 years      The Spectacular Modern Woman Liz Conor, 2004 Liz Conor explores the role of media technology in the emergence of the modern woman in the 1920s At once liberating confining the media images of women set standards of appearance that were closely tied to ideas about the roles a woman could fulfill from city girl to mannequin to flapper

Super/heroes Wendy Haslem, Angela Ndalians, C. J. Mackie, 2007 This collection explores contemporary superhero narratives including comic books and films in a wider mythic context Since the 1930s superheroes have come to dominate a variety of media formats Why are audiences so fascinated with heroes and what makes the idea of heroes so necessary in society      The Condition of Digitality Robert Hassan, 2020-01-10 David Harvey's The Condition of Postmodernity rationalised capitalism's transformation during an extraordinary year 1989 It gave theoretical expression to a material and cultural reality that was just then getting properly started globalisation and postmodernity whilst highlighting the geo spatial limits to accumulation imposed by our planet However this landmark publication author Robert Hassan argues did not address the arrival of digital technology the quantum leap represented by the move from an analogue world to a digital economy and the rapid creation of a global networked society Considering first the contexts of 1989 and Harvey's work then the idea of humans as analogue beings he argues this arising new human condition of digitality leads to alienation not only from technology but also the environment This condition he suggests is not an ideology of time and space but a reality stressing that Harvey's time space compression takes on new features including those of outward and inward globalisation and the commodification of all spheres of existence Lastly the author considers culture's role drawing on Rahel Jaeggi's theories to make the case for a post modern Marxism attuned to the most significant issue of our age Stimulating and theoretically wide ranging The Condition of Digitality recognises post modernity's radical new form as a reality and the urgent need to assert more democratic control over digitality Fashion at the Edge Caroline Evans, Caroline

Edwards, 2003-01-01 Caroline Evans analyses the work of experimental designers the images of fashion photographers and the spectacular fashion shows that developed in the final decade of the twentieth century to arrive at a new understanding of fashion's dark side and what it signifies Drawing on a variety of literary and theoretical perspectives from Marx to Benjamin Evans argues that fashion plays a leading role in constructing images and meanings during periods of rapid change She shows persuasively that fashion stands at the very centre of the contemporary where it voices some of Western culture's deepest concerns Studying British Cultures Susan Bassnett, 2004-06-01 British Studies and British Cultural Studies cover a wide range of facets of contemporary Britain Studying British Cultures An Introduction is a unique collection of essays which examine the most significant aspects of this quickly developing area of study analyzing the ways of teaching and reading British culture The work covers the contemporary and key issues including the terminological distinction between British Studies and British Cultural Studies the problem of national cultures and identities in contemporary Britain studying language and literature from a British Studies perspective models for studying the historical context of the development of ideas of Britishness studying contemporary Britain overseas The contributors are some of the key names in current debates surrounding British Studies and Susan Bassnett holds together their work with a substantial and accessible introduction Studying British Cultures An Introduction will be essential reading for students and teachers concerned with the study of contemporary Britain Visual Consumption Jonathan Schroeder, 2002-09-26 This book draws from art history photography and visual studies to develop an interdisciplinary image based approach to understanding consumer behaviour

Media/cultural Studies Rhonda Hammer, Douglas Kellner, 2009 This anthology is designed to assist teachers and students in learning how to better understand and interpret our common culture and everyday life With a focus on contemporary media consumer and digital culture this book combines classic and original writings by both leading and rising scholars in the field The chapters present key theories concepts and methodologies of critical cultural and media studies as well as cutting edge research into new media Sections on teaching media cultural studies and concrete case studies provide practical examples that illuminate contemporary culture ranging from new forms of digital media and consumer culture to artifacts from TV and film including Barbie and Big Macs soap operas Talk TV Facebook and YouTube The lively articles show that media cultural studies is an exciting and relevant arena and this text should enable students and citizens to become informed readers and critics of their culture and society

Sex, Work and Sex Work Joanna Brewis, Stephen Linstead, 2003-09-02 Sex is much more rife in the workplace than many would think according to this fascinating and controversial new book It argues that not only does sexuality pervade every aspect of organizations but also that organization pervades every aspect of our sexuality This two way conceptualization lends the book a two part structure covering firstly the ways in which organizational behaviour is shaped through issues such as male managers experience of violence organizational constructions of sexual harassment and professionals who work with sex offenders The second part of the book examines how sex is organized for commercial purposes and considers sex work as an industry which can be analyzed as any other with important insights for normal organizing Key features of the book include sections on organizing as sexual activity connecting desire the erotic the abject and organization the hidden penetration of organization processes by sexuality the dark side of sex and organization and the importance of transgression the double effect of discursive and material placing organizing sexuality within prostitution prostitution as a complex and varied industry Fascinating and informative this controversial book is a valuable source of information for postgraduates and researchers in the fields of business management and sexuality and gender studies

Coming Attractions Lisa Kernan, 2009-07-21 Movie trailers those previews of coming attractions before the start of a feature film are routinely praised and reviled by moviegoers and film critics alike They give away too much of the movie They re better than the films They only show the spectacular parts They lie They re the best part of going to the movies But whether you love them or hate them trailers always serve their purpose of offering free samples of a film to influence moviegoing decision making Indeed with their inclusion on videotapes DVDs and on the Internet trailers are more widely seen and influential now than at any time in their history Starting from the premise that movie trailers can be considered a film genre this pioneering book explores the genre s conventions and offers a primer for reading the rhetoric of movie trailers Lisa Kernan identifies three principal rhetorical strategies that structure trailers appeals to audience interest in film genres stories and or stars She also analyzes the trailers for twenty seven popular Hollywood films from the classical transitional and contemporary eras exploring what the rhetorical appeals within these trailers reveal about Hollywood s changing conceptions of the moviegoing audience Kernan argues that movie trailers constitute a long standing hybrid of advertising and cinema and as such are precursors to today s heavily commercialized cultural forms in which art and marketing become increasingly indistinguishable

Relocating Cultural Studies Valda Blundell, John Shepherd, Ian Taylor, 2013-04-15 This volume demonstrates how cultural studies has diffused from Britain into other English speaking countries and how its original concerns have been renegotiated and changed It is an unrivalled guide to international cultural studies

Arts for Change Beverly Naidus, 2009-04-01 Arts for Change presents strategies and theory for teaching socially engaged art with an historical and contemporary overview of the field The book features interviews with over thirty maverick artists faculty from colleges and universities in the United States Canada and Great Britain whose pedagogy is drawn from and informs activist arts practice The issues these teaching artists address are provocative and diverse Some came to this work through personal healing from injustice and trauma or by witnessing oppressions that became intolerable Many have taught for decades deeply influenced by social movements of the 1960s and 1970s yet because the work is controversial tenured positions are rare Society, Culture, and the State in Germany, 1870-1930 Geoff Eley, 1996 Bold new essays on Germany's critical Kaiserreich period Teratologies Jackie Stacey, 2013-07-23 Stories of cancer are full of monster and marvels the monstrousness of the disease and the treatments the marvels of the cures and the saved lives Still one of the most dreaded diseases to haunt our imaginations cancer is more than an illness it is a cultural phenomenon People who have cancer are bombarded with competing explanations of their conditions it is genetically inherited it is environmentally produced it is the result of their personality Teratologies A Cultural Study of Cancer investigates how this disease is perceived experienced and theorised in contemporary society It explores changing beliefs about the causes of and the cures for cancer in both biomedicine and its increasingly popular alternative counterparts Analysing conventional and alternative medical accounts self help manuals and patients personal stories Jackie Stacey takes a critical look at the place of heroes metaphors the self and the body in these competing bids to produce the authoritative definition of the meaning of cancer today Interspersed with these detailed textual investigations are discussions of broader issues such as the feminist debates about the history of science the place of consumer culture in health practices and the status of patients and of health professionals in postmodern society Combining autobiographical narratives with contemporary theoretical debates the author carves out a specifically feminist analysis of the cultural dimensions of cancer She brings accounts of her own illness under the critical lens of academic scrutiny and situates these personal stories within a discussion of contemporary cultural change Graphic Design as Communication Malcolm Barnard, 2013-07-04 What is the point of graphic design Is it advertising or is it art What purpose does it serve in our society and culture Malcolm Barnard explores how meaning and identity are at the core of every graphic design project and argues that the role and function of graphic design is and always has been communication Drawing on a range of theoretical approaches including those of Derrida Saussure Foucault and Barthes and taking examples from advertising magazines illustration website design comics greetings cards and packaging Graphic Design as Communication looks at how graphic design contributes to the formation of social and cultural identities Malcolm Barnard discusses the ways in which racial ethnic groups age groups and gender groups are represented in graphic design as well as how images and texts communicate with different cultural groups He also explores how graphic design relates to both European and American modernism and its relevance to postmodernism and globalisation in the twenty first century and asks why when graphic design is such an integral part of our society and culture it is not acknowledged and understood in the same way that art is Feeling Power Megan Boler, 2004-11-23 First published in 1999 Megan Boler combines cultural history with ethical and multicultural analyses to explore how emotions have been disciplined suppressed or ignored at all levels of education and in educational theory FEELING POWER charts the philosophies and practices developed over the last century to control social conflicts arising from gender class and race The book traces the development of progressive pedagogies from civil rights and feminist movements to Boler's own recent studies of emotional intelligence and emotional literacy Drawing on the formulation of emotion as knowledge within feminist psychobiological and post structuralist theories Boler develops a unique theory of emotion missing from contemporary educational discourses

Selling Shakespeare to Hollywood Emma French, 2006 Filmed Shakespeare criticism has largely centred on aesthetic critiques of filmic devices or on comparisons between the film and the source text Employing a new angle this book explores the reasons why contemporary filmed Shakespeare prompts cultural anxiety about high culture adaptation
