Consuming Religion Christian Faith And Practice In A Consumer Culture:

Consuming Religion Vincent J. Miller, 2005-08-18 Contemporary theology argues Miller is silent on what is unquestionably one of the most important cultural issues it faces consumerism or consumer culture While there is no shortage of expressions of concern about the corrosive effects of consumerism from the standpoint of economic justice or environmental ethics there is a surprising paucity of theoretically sophisticated works on the topic for consumerism argues Miller is not just about behavioral excesses rather it is a pervasive worldview that affects our construction as persons what motivates us how we relate to others to culture and to religion Consuming Religion surveys almost a century of scholarly literature on consumerism and the commodification of culture and charts the ways in which religious belief and practice have been transformed by the dominant consumer culture of the West It demonstrates the significance of this seismic cultural shift for theological method doctrine belief community and theological anthropology Like more popular texts the book takes a critical stand against the deleterious effects of consumerism However its analytical complexity provides the basis for developing more sophisticated tactics for addressing these problems

Religion in Consumer Society François Gauthier, 2016-04-08 Presenting an overview of an emerging field in the study of contemporary religion this book together with a complementary volume Religion in the Neoliberal Age explores issues of religion neoliberalism and consumer society Claiming that we have entered a new phase that implies more than the recasting of state religion relations the authors examine how religious changes are historically anchored in modernity but affected by the commoditization mediatization neoliberalization and globalization of society and social life Religion in Consumer Society explores religion as both shaped by consumer culture and as shaping consumer culture Following an introduction which critically analyses studies on consumer culture and integrates scholarship in the sociology of religion this book explores the following topics how consumerism and electronic media have shaped globalized culture and how this is affecting religion the dynamics and characteristics of often overlooked middle class religion and how these relate to globalization and differences between developed and emerging countries emerging trends and how we understand phenomena as different as mega churches and holistic spiritualistic journeys and how the pressures of consumer culture act on religious traditions indigenous and exogenous the politics of religious phenomena in the Age of Neoliberalism and the hybrid areas emerging from these reconfigurations of religion and the market Outlining changes in both the political institutional and cultural spheres the contributors offer an international overview of developments in different countries and state of the art representation of religion in the new global political economy

The Sacraments and Consumer Culture Timothy Brunk, 2020 What does consumerism have to do with the sacraments We live in cultures where our senses of meaning identity and purpose are often found in what we purchase Apart from the question of hedonism there is the question of how we orient ourselves in an environment in which we end up marketing our very selves In this book Timothy Brunk examines how this consumer culture has had a corrosive effect on the seven sacraments of the Catholic Church He also assesses how sacramental worship can provide resources for responsible Christian discipleship in today's consumer culture Encyclopedia of Consumer Culture Dale Southerton, 2011-09-15 The Encyclopedia of Consumer Culture is the first reference work to outline the parameters of consumer culture and provide a critical scholarly resource on consumption and consumerism Sacraments and Justice Doris Donnelly, 2014 Sacraments and Justice describes the social implications of worship the history of each sacrament and reveals how the seven sacraments link to social justice publisher's description The Human in a Dehumanizing World Coblentz, Jessica, Horan, OFM, Daniel P., 2022-04-20 CTS annual volume focusing on dehumanization and theological anthropology in such areas as sexual harassment racial justice and decolonization The Selling of 9/11 D. Heller, 2016-09-23 The Selling of 9/11 argues that the marketing and commodification of the terrorist attacks of September 11 2001 reveal the contradictory processes by which consumers in the United States and around the world use communicate and construct national identity and their sense of national belonging through cultural and symbolic goods Contributors illuminate these processes and make important connections between myths of nation practices of mourning theories of trauma and the politics of post 9/11 consumer culture Their essays take critical stock of the role that consumer goods media and press outlets commercial advertising marketers and corporate public relations have played in shaping cultural memory of a national tragedy The Power to Comprehend with All the Saints Wallace M. Alston, Cynthia A. Jarvis, 2009-08-26 How does a theologically substantive ministry come into being And how does a theological orientation to the vocation make a difference in pastoral practice The Power to Comprehend with All the Saints brings pastor theologians together to answer these and other key questions about the integrity of their vocation These pastoral voices speak wisdom that will enrich both the academy and the church

Islam, Marketing and Consumption Aliakbar Jafari, Özlem Sandikci, 2016-01-13 In recent years a critically oriented sub stream of research on Muslim consumers and businesses has begun to emerge This scholarship located both within and outside the marketing field adopts a socio culturally situated approach to Islam and investigates the complex and multifaceted intersections between Islam and markets This book seeks to reflect various unheard and emerging critical voices from within the Muslim world and provide a series of critical insights on how if and why Islam matters to marketing theory and practice It questions the existing assumptions and polarising discussions which underpin the portrayal of Islam as the other of Modernity while acknowledging that Muslims themselves are partially responsible for creating stereotyped representations of Islam and the Muslim This wide ranging and insightful collection will advance emerging critical perspectives and provide new insights that will influence the generation and application of knowledge in the context of Muslim societies It will open up fresh conversations for scholars in marketing as well as the broader humanities and social sciences Quivering Families Emily Hunter McGowin, 2018-05-01 American evangelicals are known for focusing on the family but the Quiverfull movement intensifies that focus in a significant way Often called Quiverfull due to an emphasis on filling their quivers with as many children as possible Psalm 127 5 such families are distinguishable by their practices of male only leadership homeschooling and prolific childbirth Their primary aim is multigenerational faithfulness ensuring their descendants maintain Christian faith for many generations Many believe this focus will lead to the Christianization of America in the centuries to come Quivering Families is a first of its kind project that employs history ethnography and theology to explore the Quiverfull movement in America The book considers a study of the movement s origins its major leaders and institutions and the daily lives of its families Quivering Families argues that despite the apparent strangeness of their practice Quiverfull is a thoroughly evangelical and American phenomenon Far from offering a countercultural vision of the family Quiverfull represents an intensification of longstanding tendencies The movement reveals the weakness of evangelical theology of the family and underlines the need for more critical and creative approaches
