Writing Plural Worlds in Contemporary U.S. Poetry J. Keller, 2009-08-03 This book reveals how poets within the U S multi ethnic avant garde give up the goal of narrating one comprehensive rooted view of cultural reality in favour of constructing coherent accounts of relational local selves and worlds The Cambridge Introduction to Twentieth-Century American Poetry Christopher Beach, 2003-10-23 The Cambridge Introduction to Twentieth Century American Poetry is designed to give readers a brief but thorough introduction to the various movements schools and groups of American poets in the twentieth century It will help readers to understand and analyze modern and contemporary poems The first part of the book deals with the transition from the nineteenth century lyric to the modernist poem focussing on the work of major modernists such as Robert Frost T S Eliot Ezra Pound Wallace Stevens Marianne Moore and W C Williams In the second half of the book the focus is on groups such as the poets of the Harlem Renaissance the New Critics the Confessionals and the Beats In each chapter discussions of the most important poems are placed in the larger context of literary cultural and social history Encyclopedia of American Poetry: The Twentieth Century Eric L. Haralson, 2014-01-21 The Encyclopedia of American Poetry The Twentieth Century contains over 400 entries that treat a broad range of individual poets and poems along with many articles devoted to topics schools or periods of American verse in the century Entries fall into three main categories poet entries which provide biographical and cultural contexts for the author s career entries on individual works which offer closer explication of the most resonant poems in the 20th century canon and topical entries which offer analyses of a given period of literary production school thematically constructed category or other verse tradition that historically has been in dialogue with the poetry of the United States Encyclopedia of the New York School Poets Terence Diggory, 2009 An A to Z reference to writers of the New York School including John Ashbery who is often considered America s greatest living poet Examines significant movements in literary history and its development through the years

The Facts on File Companion to American Poetry Burt Kimmelman, Temple Cone, Randall Huff, 2008 An introduction to American poets poetry and literary movements from colonial times to the 21st century

Dark Airs Brendan Cooper, 2009 In discussions of American poetry since World War II the work of John Berryman has become increasingly neglected and marginalized Critics have overwhelmingly chosen to favour the notion that he is an academic establishment poet whose career can comfortably be described as a move from New Critical traditionalism towards self absorbed confessionalism This study shows how such a narrow understanding of Berryman's work is reflective of a broader critical inclination towards a codification of the literary canon as a duel between competing factions of a formalist establishment mainstream and an experimentalist countercultural avant garde By examining the extent to which Berryman's poetry engages with the complex religiopolitical climate of Cold War American culture this study exposes the inadequacy of the paradigm of mainstream traditionalism in relation to his work In doing so it opens up threads of comparative possibility between his work and that of poets ordinarily segregated from him by divisive conceptions of the literary canon As such this volume provides a reconsideration of Berryman's work that simultaneously asks broader questions about the nature of the American poetic canon and established definitions of postmodern poetry

The Songs We Know Best Karin Roffman,2017-06-13 The first biography of an American master The Songs We Know Best the first comprehensive biography of the early life of John Ashbery the winner of nearly every major American literary award reveals the unusual ways he drew on the details of his youth to populate the poems that made him one of the most original and unpredictable forces of the last century in arts and letters Drawing on unpublished correspondence juvenilia and childhood diaries as well as more than one hundred hours of conversation with the poet Karin Roffman offers an insightful portrayal of Ashbery during the twenty eight years that led up to his stunning debut Some Trees chosen by W H Auden for the 1955 Yale Younger Poets Prize Roffman shows how Ashbery s poetry arose from his early lessons both on the family farm and in 1950s New York City a bohemian existence that teemed with artistic fervor and radical innovations inspired by Dada and surrealism as well as lifelong friendships with painters and writers such as Frank O Hara Jane Freilicher Nell Blaine Kenneth Koch James Schuyler and Willem de Kooning Ashbery has a reputation for being enigmatic and playfully elusive but Roffman s biography reveals his deft mining of his early life for the flint and tinder from which his provocative later poems grew producing a body of work that he calls the experience of experience an intertwining of life and art in extraordinarily intimate ways

American Literary Scholarship James Leslie Woodress,1965

Paradox for Life Review James J. Magee,2013-10-21 Paradox for Life Review explains how older adults levels of self esteem become the lens through which they review their reminiscences It shows how three bases for self esteem the epigenetic self the family scripted self and the metaphysical self affect the accuracy of this lens It then describes how life review groups have used paradoxes drawn from poetry drama word play intergenerational family dynamics Eastern and Western mystical traditions and personal life experiences to enable members to discover new lenses for accepting their history with compassion and wisdom The book uses the reminiscences of forty two older adults to illustrate the positive influence of these paradoxes in integrating their personal history with a sense of purpose for their future

Approaching Cultures Through English ,2007

Defensive Measures Lee Upton,2005 Much of our strongest poetry that learned its lessons from early modernism lives by its defensive measures that is by means of reversing inverting and challenging in covert ways a dominant perceptual mode Defensive Measures explores strategies by which poets claim their distinctiveness and argues that poetry is the one literary form that most insistently demands a defense It demands a defense it would seem because it is perpetually in crisis not only in regard to its utility and its aesthetic appeal or the vigor of its renunciation of such an appeal but in regard to its generic existence Upton defines a generative conception of defense and examines in a new light the poetry of Lorine Niedecker Elizabeth Bishop Louise Gluck and Anne Carson In writing about Bishop Upton puts this well regarded poet in a new framework aligning her work with that of three poets whose aesthetics might be viewed as antithetical to her own
