Contemporary Issues in Industry 5.0 Päivi Aaltonen, Emil Kurvinen, 2025-01-17 Industry 5.0 was first described in 2020 by the European Commission to describe the next wave of technologies including Virtual Simulation and Automated Robots to impact businesses and individuals It recognizes how these technologies can no more be counted as purely future tech but as realities that will begin to impact society as a whole This open access book describes this new world as Society 5.0 and explores the real impact of AI enabled business on society Beginning with a brief history of AI the current terms and its conceptual components visualisation data and algorithms this book then presents a collection of studies from leading scholars in the field of AI and Digital Business The first section focuses on the immediate challenges and strategic changes that will be required for businesses to successfully adapt to this new reality The second focuses on the opportunities of AI to businesses and society And the final section includes chapters on the future and the possibilities and challenges that lie beyond Industry 5.0 It will be of great interest to scholars and students of innovation strategy and digital business as well as all those engaged in research around cutting edge technologies and their impact on society Contemporary Marketing Solutions Roshan Panditharathna, Denis Hyams-Ssekasi, David Bamber, 2025-03-12 The function of marketing is regarded as a mechanism that provides practical and theoretical solutions to contemporary businesses worldwide In this edited book a cast of international contributors address new and emerging areas within marketing such as sustainable marketing the circular economy and how technologies drive and provide marketing solutions Rather than exploring the issues this book focuses on the solutions that these emerging areas provide for businesses An essential resource for researchers and students this book demonstrates how marketing activities are relevant to contemporary businesses offering a state of the art look at emerging trends Insights in: Organizational psychology Darren C. Treadway, Gabriele Giorgi, Monica Thiel, 2023-11-15

Contemporary Perspectives in Data Mining Kenneth D. Lawrence, Ronald K. Klimberg, 2025-06-20 The series Contemporary Perspectives in Data Mining is composed of blind refereed scholarly research methods and applications of data mining The series is targeted both at the academic community as well as the business practitioner Sexual Harassment, Psychology and Feminism Lisa Lazard, 2020-10-03 This book provides a feminist psychological analysis of contemporary resistance to sexual harassment in and around MeToo It explores how women's assumed empowerment in postfeminist and neoliberal feminist discourses has shaped understandings of sexual harassment and social responses to it This exploration is grounded in the trajectories of feminist activism and psychological theory about sexual harassment Lazard addresses the gendered binary of female victims and male perpetrators in contemporary victim politics and the treatment of perpetrators within postfeminist and neoliberal frames In doing so the author unpacks the cultural conditions which support or deny who gets to speak and be heard in MeToo politics This book will be a valuable resource not only for scholars and students from within the psychological sciences and gender studies but for the wider social sciences and anyone interested in the psychological grounding of the MeToo movement What Is the Role for Effective Pedagogy In Contemporary Higher Education? Carl Senior, Dilly Fung, Christopher Howard, Rowena Senior, 2018-10-05 The number of students entering into Higher Education HE continues to grow and as such the sector now stands at the threshold of a major shift in its philosophy No longer does the academic prerogative belong to a generation who valued learning for the sake of enlightenment Many contemporary undergraduate students enter their programmes of study with a primary desire to improve their position on the subsequent employability market Universities have been quick to meet this need and institutional offerings have followed suit enabling students to gain experience in a range of additional and subsidiary programmes that focus on the provision of value added benefits Here students are encouraged to develop expertise in a range of topics from entrepreneurship and enterprise to intellectual property and even leadership skills The first round of casualties that fall victim to such a shift are those programmes of study embedded within the humanities As is evidenced by the falling numbers of enrolling students the incoming cohort is less likely now to engage with such programmes while participation in programmes that have a clear employability component has never been so high To ensure that the HE sector continues to enable graduates to become effective citizens who contribute to the betterment of society a range of general questions need to be addressed What does it mean to be an authentic university in the modern era What are the real student expectations of HE and how are education providers framing and meeting these expectations Is a new breed of academic leadership needed that will both meet the expectations of the students and guide the aspirations of academic staff Finally do we need an opportunity to reflect on the effective design and delivery of curriculum Should the undergraduate student body play more of a role in the design of the curriculum or should the undergraduate student body play more of a role in the design of the curriculum or should they remain the recipients of a programme that has been designed by subject specialists The scope of this book is wide but it brings the design and delivery of higher education programmes under the empirical gaze of educational psychology That is to say all chapters centre on the impact of higher educational programmes on the student teacher relationship student learning achievement and identity It is therefore crucial to explore the psychological impact of higher education institutions and how these can then be used to inform innovative educational practice and policy
