Contemporaries From The 19th Century To The Present:

Contemporaries, from the 19th Century to the Present Alfred Kazin, 1982 Trends in Contemporary Italian Narrative 1980-2007 Gillian Ania, Ann Hallamore Caesar, 2009-05-05

The new Italian narrative that began to be spoken about in the 1980s was not associated with a single writer or movement but with an eclectic and varied production. The eight essays that make up this volume set out to give a flavour of the breadth and range of recent trends and developments. The collection opens with two essays on crime fiction. In the first Luca Somigli examines novels dealing with topical issues or recent history and which reveal a strong indigenous and regional tradition while in the second Nicoletta McGowan discusses the particular case of a noir by Claudia Salvatori. They are followed by essays on two of Italy's best known contemporary writers. Marina Spunta's essay explores the representation of space, place and landscape in the work of Gianni Celati and photographer Luigi Ghirri while Darrell O Connell analyses the fiction of Vincenzo Consolo and his struggle to find a means of representing an ethical stance within fiction. Two essays then examine the role of the anthology for young writers. Charlotte Ross and Derek Duncan in the context of lesbian and gay writing looking at identity politics and the problematics of categorization. Monica Jansen and Inge Lanslots in that of the Young Cannibals and their often unsettling non-literary language and orientation towards cinema, pop music and slang. The penultimate essay by Jennifer Burns discusses the literature of migrants to Italy focusing on questions of identity, memory, mobility and language while the final contribution by Gillian Ania is a study of apocalypse and dystopia in contemporary writing looking at novels by Vassalli, Capriolo, Avoledo and Pispisa. This volume examines Italian narrative from the 1980s to the present from the original viewpoint of genres, categories, trends rather than author-based analyses. It highlights the innovations of the last twenty years incorporating into the various themes well-known writers like Consolo, Celati and Vassalli with relative newcomers like Avoledo and Pispisa. The contributors to the volume, academics from the UK, Ireland, Canada, Belgium, cover a wide range of themes which have come to the fore during this period ranging from detective stories, both the giallo and the noir, to lesbian and gay writing, to immigration literature in Italian, to the study of apocalypse and dystopia. The themes are contextualized in the socio-political and cultural changes taking place in Italy and parallel to this, the temporal moments of the narratives are in turn related to their historical realities. This is a richly woven account which presents post-80s Italian narrative from a new and stimulating angle in eight lucid and informative essays which will be welcomed by all those interested in contemporary fiction in its cultural context. Professor Anna Laura Lepschy, Department of Italian University College London.

Contemporary Politics and Social Movements in an Isolated World: Emerging Research and Opportunities Stacey, Emily, 2021-10-29

As global leaders use more nationalistic rhetoric, they are supporting their words with policies that are dividing the population and bringing an end to the diverse multicultural and postmodern aspects of the era of globalization. This could have a lasting negative effect on international politics and cooperation on issues of grave concern such as global terrorism, climate change.

and global pandemics Contemporary Politics and Social Movements in an Isolated World Emerging Research and Opportunities discusses in detail the developing new world order in an era of politics that seemingly eschews globalization and international cooperation This text details the aftermath of the 2020 election and foreshadows the events to come based on the outcome of the election in the USA as well as the progression of politics afterwards Covering topics such as comparative politics isolationism and international communities this text is an essential resource for political science departments international relations scholars students professors politicians researchers and academicians Polygamous Families in Contemporary Society Irwin Altman, Joseph Ginat, 1996-07-26 This groundbreaking book examines marital relationships in contemporary Mormon polygamous families Alan S. Milward and Contemporary European History Fernando Guirao, Frances M.B. Lynch, 2015-10-14 Alan S Milward was a renowned historian of contemporary Europe In addition to his books as well as articles and chapters in edited books he also wrote nearly 250 book reviews and review articles some in French and German which were published in journals world wide Taken together they reveal a remarkable degree of theoretical consistency in his approach to understanding the history of Europe since the French Revolution This book brings together these previously unexamined pieces of historical analysis in order to trace and shed light on key intellectual debates taking place in the second half of the 20th century Many of these discussions continue to influence us today such as the role of Germany in Europe the economic social and political foundations of European integration the European rescue of the nation state the reasons for launching the single currency the conditions for retaining the allegiance of European citizens to the notions of nation and supra nation and ultimately the issue of democratic governance in a global environment In bringing together these reviews and review articles the book provides an introduction to the main scholarly achievements of Milward in his own words Fernando Guirao and Frances M B Lynch provide an introduction to the volume which both guides the reader through many of the academic debates embedded within the text while underlining their contemporary relevance By introducing and bringing together this hitherto overlooked treasure trove of historical analysis this book maps a close itinerary of some of the most salient intellectual debates of the second half of the 20th century and beyond This unique volume will be of great interest to scholars of economic history European history and historiography

What was Contemporary Art? Richard Meyer, 2013 Contemporary art in the early twenty first century is often discussed as though it were a radically new phenomenon unmoored from history Yet all works of art were once contemporary to the artist and culture that produced them In What Was Contemporary Art Richard Meyer reclaims the contemporary from historical amnesia exploring episodes in the study exhibition and reception of early twentieth century art and visual culture

The World: Literary Perspectives on the Global Contemporary William G. Welty, 2023-01-31 Much of the work done on the Post45 literary field carries an implicitly Americanist perspective Even the name of the field suggests a certain literary history with certain assumptions and blind spots about national spaces identities and histories But what would Post45 look like when considered from outside of the United States How do the current contours of the field exclude certain voices either in the United States or elsewhere in the world And how would such new perspectives shift the beginning and possible endpoint of that literary period What new narratives of the contemporary emerge if we begin telling the story in a different year or from a different national or global perspective This collection attempts to re frame the discussions in Post45 by engaging with non American writers texts and perspectives Additionally productive conversations emerge by attempting to think of canonical American writers like Mark Twain and Ishmael Reed from other national and global perspectives The authors consider both the ways texts themselves as well as their reception histories approach and challenge our understandings of the contemporary Ultimately the collection interrogates prevailing narratives of history culture identity and space within the Post45 field In so doing it re considers the historical periodization of the field which currently covers approximately 75 years of literary history The resulting essays thus work towards a new intertwined narrative about what defines the contemporary and how national and global literatures fit into that moment of world history
