Contemporary Art In The Light Of History:

Contemporary Art in the Light of History Erwin Rosenthal, 2013-08-01 Erwin Rosenthal's Contemporary Art in the Light of History originally published in 1971 is a small masterpiece of writing on the art of the twentieth century. A scholar of medieval art by training and a prominent antiquarian bookseller, Rosenthal, who died in 1981, was equally entranced by modern art, particularly abstraction. His three linked essays in this book, Contemporary Art in the Light of History, Art and Technology, and Art Theories and Manifestos, Old and New, set out a path to understanding modern art through its affinities with the art of the past. Rosenthal engages with some of the enduring aesthetic questions: How do new forms and new artistic vocabularies respond to the deepest human needs and impulses? What is the relationship between artistic theory and artistic expression? Nicolas Poussin's mythological landscapes, Paul Klee's graphic abstractions, Bridget Riley's op art compositions, these and many other examples from centuries of painting, sculpture, poetry, and music take us in these pages on a fascinating cultural journey with a sophisticated and lucid guide. Rosenthal's explorations of the theory and practice of twentieth-century artists bring us directly into the minds and studios of modern artists. What is more like his previous The Changing Concept of Reality in Art, already republished by Arcade, this book invites us into a great intimacy with the origins of art.

History in Contemporary Art and Culture Paul O'Kane, 2022-07-29 This unique book offers guidance for contemporary art practices in dialogue with history, story, memory, and tradition. Artist and lecturer Paul O'Kane uses innovative and creative means informed by a storytelling tradition as well as academic research to make connections between contemporary art history and the past. The aim of this book is to give readers a sense of the profundity of historical questions while making the challenge inviting, welcoming, and manageable. It is designed to set out an expansive, inclusive, and diverse range of potential directions and speculations from which students can develop personal paths of enquiry. This is achieved by writing and designing the text in an accessible way and providing a range of ways in. A series of carefully chosen references, examples, key texts, and possible essay questions are chosen and pitched at various levels and can be close read, discussed, digested, and responded to either verbally or in the form of a presentation or essay. Written primarily for a broad range of fine arts students, this book encourages readers to reconsider their studies and art practices in light of a historical perspective enhanced by creative contributions from artists, imaginative philosophers, and influential cultural commentators.

in Europe ,2012-06-22 Reflection on the history and practice of art history has long been a major topic of research and scholarship and this volume builds on this tradition by offering a critical survey of many of the major developments in the contemporary discipline such as the impact of digital technologies the rise of visual studies or new initiatives in conservation theory and practice Alongside these methodological issues this book addresses the mostly neglected question of the impact of national contexts on the development of the discipline Taking a wide range of case studies this book examines the impact of the specific national political institutional and ideological demands on the practice of art history The result is an account that both draws out common features and also highlights the differences and the plurality of practices that together constitute art history as a discipline Aesthetics and the Iconoclasm of Contemporary Art Žarko Paić,2021-08-25

The main themes and aims of this book are understanding aesthetics contemporary art and the end of the avant garde not from the traditional viewpoint of the metaphysics of the beautiful and the sublime but rather thru close connection to the techno genesis of virtual worlds This book tackles problems in contemporary art theory such as the body in space and time of digital technologies along with other issues in visual studies and image science Further intentions exhibit the fundamental reasons for the disappearance of the picture in the era of virtual reality starting from the notion of contemporary art as realized iconoclasm art has no world for its image The author argues that the iconoclasm of contemporary art has severe consequences This text appeals to philosophers of art and those interested in contemporary art theory The Vienna

School of Art History Matthew Rampley,2013-11-11 Matthew Rampley s The Vienna School of Art History is the first book in over seventy five years to study in depth and in context the practices of art history from 1847 the year the first teaching position in the discipline was created to 1918 the collapse of Austria Hungary It traces the emergence of art history as a discipline the establishment of norms of scholarly inquiry and the involvement of art historians in wider debates about the cultural and political identity of the monarchy The so called Vienna School plays the central role in the study but Rampley also examines the formation of art history elsewhere in Austria Hungary Located in the Habsburg imperial capital Vienna art historians frequently became entangled in debates that were of importance to art historians elsewhere in the Empire and Rampley pays particular attention to these areas of overlapping interest He also analyzes the methodological innovations for which the Vienna School was well known Rampley focuses most fully however on the larger political and ideological context of the practice of art history particularly the way in which art historical debates served as proxies for wider arguments over the political social and cultural life of the Habsburg Empire
