Contemporary British And Irish Fiction An Introduction Through Interviews:

Contemporary British and Irish Fiction, Volume 3 Jeff Soloway, 2019-02-01 Contemporary British and Irish Fiction Volume 3 is a collection of scholarly essays and recent reviews of the best of contemporary British and Irish literary fiction including the following titles Boy Snow Bird by Helen Oyeyemi Swing Time by Zadie Smith Transit A Novel by Rachel Cusk White Tears by Hari Kunzru Winter by Ali Smith Contemporary British Fiction and the Artistry of Space David Tames.2011-10-20 This study examines the importance of space for the way contemporary novelists experiment with style and form offering an account of how British writers from the past three decades have engaged with landscape description as a catalyst for innovation David James considers the work of more than fifteen major British novelists to offer a wide ranging and accessible commentary on the relationship between landscape and narrative design demonstrating an approach to the geography of contemporary fiction enriched by the practice of aesthetic criticism Moving between established and emerging novelists the book reveals that spatial poetics allow us to chart distinctive and surprising affinities between practitioners showing how writers today compel us to pay close attention to technique when linking the depiction of physical places to new developments in novelistic craft The Cambridge Companion to British Fiction, 1945-2010 David James, 2015-10-06 The Cambridge Companion to British Fiction since 1945 provides insight into the critical traditions shaping the literary landscape of modern Britain Contemporary Fiction and the Fairy Tale Stephen Benson, 2008-06-16 Students and teachers of fiction folklore and fairy tale studies will appreciate this insightful volume British Fiction of the 1990s Nick Bentley, 2007-05-07 Presenting a fresh perspective on the diverse writings that appeared in British fiction during the 1990s The History of British Women's Writing, 1970-Present this book brings together leading academics in the field Mary Eagleton, Emma Parker, 2016-04-29 This book maps the most active and vibrant period in the history of British women s writing Examining changes and continuities in fiction poetry drama and journalism as well as women s engagement with a range of literary and popular genres the essays in this volume highlight the range and diversity of women s writing since 1970 Bernard MacLaverty: New Critical Readings Richard Rankin Russell, 2014-04-10 The author of such works as Lamb Cal and Grace Notes Bernard MacLaverty is one of Northern Ireland's leading and most prolific contemporary writers Bringing together leading scholars from a full range of critical perspectives this is a comprehensive survey of contemporary scholarship on MacLaverty Covering all of his novels and many of his short stories the book explores the ways in which the author has grappled with such themes as The Troubles the Holocaust Catholicism and music Bernard MacLaverty Critical Readings also includes coverage of the film adaptations of his work Neo-Victorian Fiction and Historical Narrative L. Hadley, 2010-10-13 Placing the popular genre of neo Victorian fiction within the context of the contemporary cultural fascination with the Victorians this book argues that these novels are distinguished by a commitment to historical specificity and understands them within their contemporary context and the context of Victorian historical and literary narratives

The Novel Now Richard Bradford, 2009-02-04 The Novel Now is an intelligent and engaging survey of contemporary British fiction Discusses familiar names such as Martin Amis Ian McEwan Salman Rushdie and Angela Carter and compares them with more recent authors including David Mitchell Ali Smith A L Kennedy Matt Thorne Nicola Barker and Toby Litt Incorporates original coverage of subgenres such as chick lit lad lit gay fiction crime fiction and the historical novel Discusses the ways in which notions of regional identity and tribalist views have surfaced in UK and Irish fiction and howpost Imperial sensibility has become a feature of the British novel Situates contemporary fiction within its socio cultural Narrative Desire and Historical Reparations Timothy Gauthier, 2013-10-15 This book examines and explains the obsession with history in the contemporary British novel It frames these historical novels as expressions of narrative desire highlighting the reciprocal relationship between a desire to disclose and to rid ourselves of anxieties elicited by the past Scrutinizing representative novels from Byatt McEwan and Rushdie contemporary fiction is revealed as capable of advocating a viable ethical stance and as a form of authentic commentary Our anxieties often exist in response to what might be perceived as the oppression or eradication of values whether this is through the modern repudiation of Victorian principles Byatt the Western rethinking of Enlightenment narratives in light of the Holocaust McEwan or pluralism threatened by religious fundamentalism Rushdie Each of these novelists differentially employs postmodern artifice sometimes as a way to reject the notion of historical construction sometimes to advocate for it but always to bring us closer to what the author believes are significant values and truths rather than relativism The representative qualities of these novels serve to highlight themes concerns and anxieties present in many of the works of each author and by extension those of their contemporaries The Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Fiction, 3 Volume Set Brian W. Shaffer, 2011-01-18 This Encyclopedia offers an indispensable reference guide to twentieth century fiction in the English language With nearly 500 contributors and over one million words it is the most comprehensive and authoritative reference guide to twentieth century fiction in the English language Contains over 500 entries of 1000 3000 words written in lucid jargon free prose by an international cast of leading scholars Arranged in three volumes covering British and Irish Fiction American Fiction and World Fiction with each volume edited by a leading scholar in the field Entries cover major writers such as Saul Bellow Raymond Chandler John Steinbeck Virginia Woolf A S Byatt Samual Beckett D H Lawrence Zadie Smith Salman Rushdie V S Naipaul Nadine Gordimer Alice Munro Chinua Achebe J M Coetzee and Ng g Wa Thiong o and their key works Examines the genres and sub genres of fiction in English across the twentieth century including crime fiction Sci Fi chick lit the noir novel and the avant garde novel as well as the major movements debates and rubrics within the field such as censorship globalization modernist fiction fiction and the film industry and the fiction of migration diaspora and exile Critical Perspectives on Pat Barker Sharon Monteith, 2005 These essays cover the work and career of Pat Barker providing insight into her novels from Union Street 1982 through the Regeneration trilogy 1991 95 to Double Vision 2003 The essays are organized into Writing Working Class Women Dialogueunder Pressure Men at War The Talking Cure and Regenerating the Wasteland Evading Class in Contemporary British Literature L. Driscoll,2009-06-22 This trenchant book argues that the cultural attempt to erase class during the period from Margaret Thatcher to Tony Blair has only generated its return as a troubling subterranean element in British literature and theory Driscoll critiques the way postmodern theory idealizes contemporary British literature as a space of fluid flexible decentered subjects arguing that beneath this ideology are clear evasions of class Offering critical readings of canonized middle class authors from Martin Amis to Graham Swift Driscoll makes the compelling argument that the contemporary British novel assisted by class blind postmodern literary theory consistently works to control the problem of class Getting to Good Friday Marilynn Richtarik, 2023 Getting to Good Friday uses literary texts by writers with connections to Northern Ireland including Brian Friel Deirdre Madden and Colum McCann to illustrate peace process developments in the lead up to the Good Friday Agreement arguing that creative writers were both responding to contemporary events and trying to influence them The International Reception of Emily Dickinson Domhnall Mitchell, Maria Stuart, 2011-10-27 Emily Dickinson's poetry is known and read worldwide but to date there have been no studies of her reception and influence outside America This collection of essays brings together international research on her reception abroad including translations circulation and the responses of private and professional readers to her poetry in different countries The contributors address key translations of individual poems and lyric sequences Dickinson's influence on other writers poets and culture more broadly biographical constructions of Dickinson as a poet the political cultural and linguistic contexts of translations and adaptations into other media It will appeal to all those interested in the international reception of Dickinson and nineteenth century American literature more widely

Collective Traumas Conny Mithander,2007 Collective Traumas is about the traumatic European history of the 20th century war genocide dictatorship ethnic cleansing and how individuals communities and nations have dealt with their dark past through remembrance historiography and legal settlements Memories and especially collective memories serve as foundations for national identities and are politically charged Regardless whether memory is used to support or to challenge established ideologies it is inevitably subject to political tensions Consequently memory history and amnesia tend to be used and abused for different political and ideological purposes From the perspectives of historical literary and visual studies the essays focus on how the experiences of war and profound conflict have been represented and remembered in different national cultures and communities This volume is a vital contribution to memory studies and trauma theory Collective Traumas is a result of the multidisciplinary research project on Memory Culture that was initiated in 2002 at Karlstad University Sweden A previous publication with Peter Lang is Memory Work The Theory and Practice of Memory 2005

Shape-shifting Tales Valentina Castagna,2010 This book provides an analysis of the representation of women s bodies and their monstrous metamorphoses in selected short stories by contemporary English writer Mich le Roberts The author explores the relationship between traditional fairy tales such as the Grimm Brothers and Charles Perrault s the lives of female saints and Roberts's counter narratives focusing on the analysis of images of sublimed fleshliness and of acts of monstrous violence on the body The book takes into account relevant Women's Studies criticism regarding the mother daughter relationship as Roberts's stories question the role of mother figures in traditional fairy tales and hagiography and at the same time rework the concept of motherhood itself Pat Barker John Brannigan, 2005 This book offers readings of Barker's innovations in narrative form her revisionist perspectives on history class and gender and her preoccupation with themes of trauma haunting and terror It also analyzes the reasons for her success and significance as a novelist The chapters draw on contemporary theories of critical realism gender and social identities memory and narrative in order to outline the debates with which Barker's work has consistently engaged The Science Fiction Handbook Nick Hubble, Aris Mousoutzanis, 2013-11-28 As we move through the 21st century the importance of science fiction to the study of English Literature is becoming increasingly apparent The Science Fiction Handbook provides a comprehensive guide to the genre and how to study it for students new to the field In particular it provides detailed entries on major writers in the SF field who might be encountered on university level English Literature courses ranging from H G Wells and Philip K Dick to Doris Lessing and Geoff Ryman Other features include an historical timeline sections on key writers critics and critical terms and case studies of both literary and critical works In the later sections of the book the changing nature of the science fiction canon and its growing role in relation to the wider categories of English Literature are discussed in depth introducing the Reciprocal Haunting: Pat Barker's Regeneration Trilogy Karen Patrick reader to the latest critical thinking on the field Knutsen,
