Sotheran's Price Current of Literature Henry Sotheran Ltd, 1894

Baptist Theology James Leo Garrett, 2009 This title offers a comprehensive analysis of Baptist theology Embracing in one common trajectory the major Baptist confessions of faith the major Baptist theologians and the principal Baptist theological movements and controversies this book spans four centuries of Baptist doctrinal history Acknowledging first the pre 1609 roots patristic medieval and Reformational of Baptist theology it examines the Arminian versus Calvinist issues that were first expressed by the General Baptists and the Particular Baptists that dominated English and American Baptist theology during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries from Helwys and Smyth and from Bunyan and Kiffin to Gill Fuller Backus and Boyce and that were quickened by the awakenings and the missionary movement Concurrently there were the Baptist defense of the Baptist distinctives vis a vis the pedobaptist world and the unfolding of a strong Baptist confessional tradition Then during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries the liberal versus evangelical issues became dominant with Hovey Strong Rauschenbusch and Henry in the North and Mullins Conner Hobbs and Criswell in the South even as a distinctive Baptist Landmarkism developed the discipline of biblical theology was practiced and a structured ecumenism was pursued Missiology both impacted Baptist theology and took it to all the continents where it became increasingly indigenous Conscious that Baptists belong to the free churches and to the believers churches a new generation of Baptist theologians at the advent of the twenty first century appears somewhat more Calvinist than Arminian and decidedly more evangelical than liberal

Shadowing Ralph Ellison John S. Wright, 2009-09-18 In 1952 Ralph Ellison 1914-1994 published his novel Invisible Man which transformed the dynamics of American literature The novel won the National Book Award extended the themes of his early short stories and dramatized in fictional form the cultural theories expressed in his later essay collections Shadow Act and Going to the Territory In Shadowing Ralph Ellison John Wright traces Ellison's intellectual and aesthetic development and the evolution of his cultural philosophy throughout his long career The book explores Ellison's published fiction his criticism and correspondence and his passionate exchanges with and impact on other literary intellectuals during the Cold War 1950s and during the culture wars of the 1960s 1970s and 1980s Wright examines

Ellison's body of work through the lens of Ellison's cosmopolitan philosophy of art and culture which the writer began to construct during the late 1930s Ellison Wright argues eschewed orthodoxy in both political and cultural discourse maintaining that to achieve the highest cultural awareness and the greatest personal integrity the individual must cultivate forms of thinking and acting that are fluid improvisational and vitalistic like the blues and jazz Accordingly Ellison elaborated throughout his body of work the innumerable ways that rigid cultural labels categories and concepts from racial stereotypes and fashionable academic theories to conventional political doctrines fail to capture the full potential of human consciousness Instead Ellison advocated forms of consciousness and culture akin to what the blues and jazz reveal and he portrayed those musical traditions as the best embodiment of the evolving American spirit Ooit, elders Hans van Stralen, 2022-10-07

Verlangen het is een zo onmiskenbaar maar ook ongrijpbaar menselijk streven dat het wellicht alleen in poëtische taal kan worden uitgedrukt In deze bundel verkent de auteur allereerst het fenomeen verlangen Uit de daaropvolgende essays blijkt dat men in romantische poëzie van 1800 tot heden zeer uiteenlopende vormen van verlangen kan onderkennen Zo richt de ik figuur in de verzen van J C Bloem zich intensief op het verleden in de poëzie van Louise Glück en Ellen Warmond hunkert het ik naar veiligheid en bescherming In de gedichten van Ingeborg Bachmann wordt het verlangen indirect tastbaar in de afwijzing van besmette taal Gerard Reve's verzen kenmerken zich door een begeerte naar de Moeder en bepaalde personages in het werk van James Joyce verlangen naar bedrog Beeldgedichten van uiteenlopende auteurs suggereren dat erotische verlangens niet zaligmakend zijn Aan de hand van een gevarieerd poëtisch palet biedt Van Stralen een reeks verhelderende analyses en interpretaties gebaseerd op zijn deskundigheid als literatuurwetenschapper filosoof en theoloog Doubled

Plots Susan Strehle Mary Panizza Carden, 2009-09-28 In art myth and popular culture romance is connected with the realm of emotions private thought and sentimentality History its counterpart is the seemingly objective compendium of public fact In theory the two genres are diametrically opposed offering widely divergent views of human experience In this collection of essays however the writers challenge these basic assumptions and consider the two as parallel and as reflections of each other Looking closely at specific narratives they argue that romance and history share expectations and purposes and create the metaphors that can either hold cultures and institutions together or drive them apart The writers explore the internal contradictions of both genres as seen in works in which the elements of both romance and history are present The theme that flows throughout this collection is that romance literature and art frequently engage with or comment on actual historical events or histories Included among the contributions are discussions of romance and race in James Fenimore Cooper's The Last of the Mohicans the Rudolph Valentino film classic The Sheik the series of English Regency Romance novels the constructs of love and history in two of Alice McDermott's novels and a feminist reading of African American women's historical romances Moreover the essays approach romance and history from a variety of critical and political perspectives and examine a wide selection of romances from the 1800s to contemporary times They look at bestsellers and literary classics at texts by and for white audiences and at works created by writers on the margins of Western culture The anthology is a radical approach to romance a genre often dismissed as diversionary and reactionary It explores how well this genre serves for critical examinations of history     World Authors 1990-1995 Clifford Thompson,1999 Representing a broad range of ethnic diversity these in depth profiles present fascinating accounts of lives and careers the circumstances under which works were produced and their literary significance Each profile also includes critical evaluation a list of the author s principal works with date first published a list of major critical works and a portrait or photograph where available
