Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on the Departments of Labor and Health, Education, and Welfare,1978 A Place to Belong Gerald L. Pocius,2000 A Place to Belong is a profusely illustrated intimate contemporary portrait of Calvert a three hundred year old fishing village on Newfoundland s southern shore Often using its residents own words Gerald Pocius describes in detail the continual creative encounters between past and present between individual and community that make up daily life in Calvert By accepted standards of tradition Calvert s culture is declining Old structures are regularly torn down or renovated antique household items are replaced with modern conveniences Pocius argues however that the tangible expressions of a culture can be misleading Calvert s essence is not in the things owned and used by its residents but in the spaces in which those things abide and in the attitudes values and obligations that delineate the order of those spaces From woodlands water and fields to yards gardens and homes Calvert s physical and social structure is governed by shared concerns about the community s livelihood and welfare As a resident of Calvert puts it Where you re working in the same space with people you know it s just not practical to be falling out with everyone The sense of community that pervades Calvert is best exemplified by its annual draw for fishing berths Because productivity varies among offshore fishing grounds there is no private ownership of fishing rights Rather a lottery instituted in 1919 ensures each family the same chances for periodic access to the best fishing berths The draw continues until all the fishing berths are awarded but it is common for a family to opt out once they have drawn enough good berths There are also instances of the most successful fishing operations sharing their catches From his observations of Calvert s people at work and leisure Pocius provides evidence to confirm the viability and durability of their culture He reveals that standard assumptions about culture are inadequate particularly those based on the primacy of artefacts and on sharp dichotomies between tradition and modernity Calvert he shows belies our notion that declining cultural values and social segmentation are unavoidable side effects of modernisation and a rise in material well being A Place to Belong will promote a constructive scepticism about the ways we perceive and interpret cultures and most important will remind us of what it really means to belong to a place

This Light of Mine Joseph M.

Stowell,2025-01-07 If the foundations are destroyed what can the righteous do Psalm 11 3 Followers of Christ have every right to be concerned about the troubling shifts in our culture On nearly every front things are different Much of what we see is a direct contradiction to divinely revealed truth and the convictions we hold dear At times we feel like we ve lost the battle for what s good and right The challenge for us now To respond in ways that communicate the gospel without alienating people who need to hear about the good news of Christ s redemptive work Unfortunately many of us have responded with a sense of hopelessness and despair Others have entwined evangelicalism with political alignments Both strategies have made our message less than attractive and have betrayed the hope we have to offer a world gone wrong This Light of Mine is a call to evangelicals to pivot from being consumed in a battle for our earthly kingdom and to embrace the privilege of advancing the kingdom of Christ Drawing from the Scriptures and the life of Jesus Joe Stowell provides a hope filled courageous response that empowers us to light up the darkness by living like Jesus in a non Jesus world Journal of Research of the
