Evaluation in Child and Family Services Tiziano Vecchiato, Anthony N. Maluccio, Cinzia Canali, As child and family interventions assume greater international application it will be helpful to examine the various ways in which service innovations are being evaluated As demonstrated in the seminar from which these chapters resulted only by sharing our specific professional interests our too frequent problems in measurement our despair in implementing complicated studies and our successes can we advance the evaluation of human services and their outcomes This volume considers a variety of programs and issues in the field of child and family services While different perspectives are evident among the authors in terms of their focus and or emphasis there is common concern about the value of examining each program or service so as to maximize its impact as well as its potential for dissemination Intervention research should spur and motivate cross national efforts not only among researchers but also among social workers and other practitioners from diverse professions engaged in the delivery of human services Such collaboration would contribute to the ultimate goals of achieving greater clarity about the specifics of best practices in child and family services protocols for assessing outcomes and ways of improving service delivery How then can researchers and policymakers in diverse settings within diverse countries improve practice and service delivery on behalf of children and families What particular program findings can be generalized to improve services How can we share and implement new solutions The contributions to this volume address such questions from varying international perspectives Contributors provide answers and generate discussion points for consideration by practitioners as well as researchers The book is a must for social work parishioners in areas involving the delivery of goods as well as services Tiziano Vecchiato is scientific director of the Fondazione Emanuela Zancan Padua Italy Anthony N Maluccio is professor of social work at Boston College Graduate School of Social Work Chestnut Hill Massachusetts Cinzia Canali is research associate at the Fondazione Emanuela Zancan Padua Italy Residential Interventions for Children, Adolescents, and Families Gary M. Blau, Beth Caldwell, Robert E. Lieberman, 2014-06-05 Now more than ever there is a need to ensure that best practices are being used in residential programs As the focus on costs and outcomes increase residential programs must clearly demonstrate that the interventions provided are efficient and effective Readers will learn how to Create strength based empowering and healing environments Better engage and partner with children adolescents and families in meaningful ways Support those who have experienced trauma and loss and to prevent and eliminate the use of restraint and seclusion Respect and include cultural indices in practices Train mentor supervise support and empower staff about how to deliver promising and best practices and evidence informed and evidence based interventions and Track long term outcomes and create funding strategies to better support sustained positive outcomes This book encourages readers to think strategically about how agencies communities and systems can identify and implement actions that lead to positive change and how to work more collaboratively to improve the lives of children and adolescents who have experienced emotional and behavioral life challenges and their families □□□□ □126□ □□□□□□□□□□, 2009-07-01 □□□□□□157□ □□□□□□□□□□□□□□□□, 2017-03-01 Child Welfare for the Twenty-first Century Gerald P. Mallon, Peg McCartt Hess, 2005-09-14 This up to date and comprehensive resource by leaders in child welfare is the first book to reflect the impact of the Adoption and Safe Families Act ASFA of 1997 The text serves as a single source reference for a wide array of professionals who work in children youth and family services in the United States policymakers social workers psychologists educators attorneys guardians ad litem and family court judges and as a text for students of child welfare practice and policy Features include Organized around ASFA's guiding principles of well being safety and permanency Focus on evidence based best practices Case examples integrated throughout First book to include data from the first round of National Child and Family Service Reviews Topics discussed include the latest on prevention of child abuse and neglect and child protective services risk and resilience in child development engaging families connecting families with public and community resources health and mental health care needs of children and adolescents domestic violence substance abuse in the family family preservation services family support services and the integration of family centered practices in child welfare gay and lesbian adolescents and their families children with disabilities and runaway and homeless youth The contributors also explore issues pertaining to foster care and adoption including a focus on permanency planning for children and youth and the need to provide services that are individualized and culturally and spiritually responsive to clients A review of salient systemic issues in the field of children youth and family services completes this collection Child Welfare: Child placement and children away from home Nick Frost, 2005 This collection focuses on child welfare in its specific sense welfare and social interventions with children and young people undertaken by State bodies or NGO's The term child welfare is deployed differently in diverse international settings In the United Kingdom child welfare tends to refer to individualised programmes for children who have experienced problems in their lives In India to take a contrasting example it can also refer to major housing and nutrition programmes This collection takes an inclusive approach to international perspectives The collection is completed by a new general introduction by the editor individual volume introductions and a full index Titles also available in this series include Medical Sociology November 2004 4 Volumes 495 and the forthcoming collection Health Care Systems 2005 3 Volumes c 395 Resources in Education, 1999-10
