Merleau-Ponty at the Gallery Véronique M. Fóti, 2020-03-01 Merleau Ponty's phenomenological ontology engages deeply with visual art and this aspect of his work remains significant not only to philosophers but also to artists art theorists and critics Until recently scholarly attention has been focused on the artists he himself was inspired by and wrote about chiefly C zanne Klee Matisse and Rodin Merleau Ponty at the Gallery expands and shifts the focus to address a range of artists Giorgio Morandi Kiki Smith Cy Twombly Joan Mitchell and Ellsworth Kelly whose work came to prominence in the second half of the twentieth century and thus primarily after the philosopher's death. Veronique M. F. ti does not confine her analyses to Merleau-Ponty's texts which now importantly include his late lecture courses but also engages directly with the art. Of particular concern to her is the art's ethical bearing especially as related to animal and vegetal life. The book's concluding chapter addresses the still widespread rejection of beauty as an aesthetic value. The Myth of Abstraction Andrea Meyertholen, 2021. An alternative genealogy of abstract art featuring the crucial role of 19th century German literature in shaping it aesthetically, culturally and socially. Once upon a time or more specifically in 1911 there was an artist named Wassily Kandinsky who created the world's first abstract artwork and forever altered the course of art history or so the traditional story goes. A good story but not the full story. The Myth of Abstraction reveals that abstract art was envisioned long before Kandinsky in the pages of nineteenth century German literature. It originated from the written word described by German writers who portrayed in language what did not yet exist as art. Yet if writers were already writing about abstract art why were painters not painting it? To solve the riddle this book features the work of three canonical nineteenth century authors: Heinrich von Kleist, Johann Wolfgang von Goethe and Gottfried Keller who imagine, theorize and describe abstract art in their literary writing, sometimes warning about the revolution it will cause not just in art but in all aspects of social life. Through close readings of their textual images and visual analyses of actual paintings, Andrea Meyertholen shows how these writers anticipated the twentieth century birth of abstract art by establishing the necessary conditions for its production, reception and consumption. The first study to bring these early descriptions of abstraction together and investigate their significance. A Companion to Contemporary Art Since 1945 Amelia Jones, 2009-02-09. A Companion to Contemporary Art is a major survey covering the major works and movements, the most important theoretical developments, and the historical, social, political, and aesthetic issues in contemporary art since 1945, primarily in the Euro-American context. Collects 27 original essays by expert scholars describing the current state of scholarship in art history and visual studies and pointing to future directions in the field. Contains dual chronological and thematic coverage of the major themes in the art of our time: politics, culture wars, public space, diaspora, the artist, identity, politics, the body, and visual culture. Offers synthetic analysis as well as new approaches to debates central to the visual arts since 1945, such as those addressing formalism, the avant-garde, the role of the artist, technology, and art and the society of the spectacle.

Contemporary Art and Classical Myth Jennie Hirsh, 2017-07-05. Contemporary art is deeply engaged with the subject of classical myth. Yet within the literature on contemporary art, little has been said about this provocative relationship. Composed of fourteen original essays, Contemporary Art and Classical Myth addresses this scholarly gap, exploring and in large part establishing the multifaceted intersection of contemporary art and classical myth. Moving beyond the notion of art as illustration, the essays assembled here adopt a range of methodological frameworks, from iconography to deconstruction, and do so across an impressive range of artists and objects: Francis Alys, Ghada Amer, Wim Delvoye, Luciano Fabro, Joanna Frueh, Felix Gonzales Torres, Duane Hanson, Yayoi Kusama, Roy Lichtenstein, Kara Walker, and an iconic photograph by Richard Drew, subsequently entitled The Falling Man. Arranged so as to highlight both thematic and structural affinities, these essays manifest various aspects of the link between contemporary art and classical myth, while offering novel insights into the artists and myths under consideration. Some essays concentrate on single works as they relate to specific myths, while others take a broader approach, calling on myth as a means of grappling with dominant trends in contemporary art.
