Lesbian Histories and Cultures Bonnie Zimmerman, 2000 To reflect this crucial fact The Encyclopedia of Lesbian and Gay Histories and Cultures has been prepared in two separate volumes to assure that both histories receive full unbiased attention and that a broad range of human experience is covered BOOK JACKET X, Y, Z, T Damien Broderick, 2004-01-01 Damien Broderick has had a major impact as an Australian SF writer since 1964 He is undoubtedly the leading Australian theorist of the SF genre Russell Blackford Van Ikin Sean McMullen Strange Constellations Now Broderick draws upon his skills as both critic and novelist to analyze science fiction of the last two decades and its earlier roots The book proposes sf as a distinctive form of writing the extreme narrative of difference then closely reads authors such as John Barnes Jamil Nasir Wil McCarthy Robert Grossbach and Poul Anderson While concentrating on exciting work published in the USA and Britain Broderick does not neglect his own country's contributions discussing sf by George Turner and other Australians His critical voice is wry entertaining and occasionally scathing Encyclopedia of Lesbian Histories and Cultures Bonnie

Zimmerman, 2013-08-21 Volume one of this two volume set focuses on lesbian history and culture beginning in 1869 when the study of homosexuality was said to have begun with the establishment of sexology It is intended as a reference for students and scholars in many fields as well as the general public Contemporary Lesbian Writers of the United States Sandra Pollack, Denise Knight, 1993-10-11 The first comprehensive biographical critical and bibliographical source on lesbian writers this reference book features essays on 100 contemporary writers of poetry fiction and drama in the United States Many had written as self identified lesbians at some point during the 1970 1992 period of coverage Each essay comprises a biography with personal history often derived from interviews an analysis of major works and themes an overview of the critical reception and bibliographies of primary works and of critical studies and reviews The volume introduction by Tucker P Farley situates contemporary lesbian literature in its historical and political contexts Appendices list publishers of lesbian writers and periodicals featuring lesbian writing An extensive bibliography provides nonfiction resources focusing on lesbian issues including works in psychology sexuality parenting health history and theory as well as literature A companion to Contemporary Gay American Novelists A Bio Bibliographical Critical Sourcebook edited by Emmanuel S Nelson Greenwood Press 1993 this work will be an important addition to college and university libraries supporting gay and lesbian and women's studies programs and literary curricula incorporating this material It will also be a valuable resource for public and school libraries and collections and specialists in American literature providing information and analysis for understanding the expanding literary canon What Do I Read Next?, 1998 The Dissolution of Place Professor Shelton Waldrep, 2013-02-28 Postmodern architecture with its return to ornamentality historical quotation and low culture kitsch has long been seen as a critical and popular anodyne to the worst aspects of modernist architecture glass boxes built in urban locales as so many interchangeable generic anti architectural cubes and slabs This book extends this debate beyond the modernist postmodernist rivalry to situate postmodernism as an already superseded concept that has been upended by deconstructionist and virtual architecture as well as the continued turn toward the use of theming in much new public and corporate space It investigates architecture on the margins of postmodernism those places where both architecture and postmodernism begin to break down and to reveal new forms and new relationships The book examines in detail not only a wide range of architectural phenomena such as theme parks casinos specific modernist and postmodernist buildings but also interrogates architecture in relation to identity specifically Native American and gay male identities as they are reflected in new notions of the built environment In dealing specifically with the intersection between postmodern architecture and virtual and filmic definitions of space as well as with theming and gender and racial identities this book provides ground breaking insights not only into postmodern architecture but into spatial thinking in general

Challenging the Black Atlantic John T. Maddox IV,2020-10-16 The historical novels of Manuel Zapata Olivella and Ana Maria Gon alves map black journeys from Africa to the Americas in a way that challenges the Black Atlantic paradigm that has become synonymous with cosmopolitan African diaspora studies Unlike Paul Gilroy who coined the term and based it on W E B DuBois s double consciousness Zapata in Chang el gran putas 1983 creates an empowering mythology that reframes black resistance in Colombia Haiti Mexico Brazil and the United States In Um defeito de cor 2006 Gon alves imagines the survival strategies of a legendary woman said to be the mother of black abolitionist poet Lu s Gama and a conspirator in an African Muslim led revolt in Brazil s Black Rome These novels show differing visions of revolution black community femininity sexuality and captivity They skillfully reveal how events preceding the UNESCO Decade of Afro Descent 2015 2024 alter our understanding of Afro Latin America as it gains increased visibility Published by Bucknell University Press Distributed worldwide by Rutgers University Press Guía bibliográfica para el estudio de la literatura de los Estados Unidos Carme Manuel Cuenca, 2011-11-28 Carme Manuel presenta en aquest volum una selecció de les principals publicacions editades per a l'estudi de la literatura dels Estats Units Encyclopedia of Lesbian and Gay Histories and Cultures Bonnie Zimmerman, George Haggerty, 2021-06-13 A rich heritage that needs to be documented Beginning in 1869 when the study of homosexuality can be said to have begun with the establishment of sexology this encyclopedia offers accounts of the most important international developments in an area that now occupies a critical place in many fields of academic endeavors It covers a long history and a dynamic and ever changing present while opening up the academic profession to new scholarship and new ways of thinking A groundbreaking new approach While gays and lesbians have shared many aspects of life their histories and cultures developed in profoundly different ways To reflect this crucial fact the encyclopedia has been prepared in two separate volumes assuring that both histories receive full unbiased attention and that a broad range of human experience is covered Written for and by a widerange of people Intended as a reference for students and scholars in all fields as well as for the general public the encyclopedia is written in user friendly language At the same time it maintains a high level of scholarship that incorporates both passion and objectivity It is written by some of the most famous names in the field as well as new scholars whose research continues to advance gender studies into the future Mundos Alternos Robb Hernandez, Tyler Stallings, Joanna Szupinska, 2017 Mundos Alternos looks at science fiction in the Americas through a transcultural perspective grounded in an understanding of Latinidad expressed through shared hemispheric experiences in language culture and visual expression If a Latin American science fiction is said to exist the texts in this volume interrogate where that Latin America and its science fiction imagination might be located In addition to focusing on specific regions in North Central and South America the book's essays cross time and space illuminating Soviet influence in Cuba the impact of American pop culture in Mexico and the cross pollination of European avant garde aesthetics in Brazil Mundos Alternos will be an indispensable resource for contemporary art curators working on Latin America science fiction scholars interested in visual interpretations of the genre and readers interested in science fiction art Latin America and the diaspora
