Cycle Of Racial Oppression In Guyana:

The Cycle of Racial Oppression in Guyana Kean Gibson, 2003 This book is a description and analysis of racism in Guyana from the pre colonial era to the present time There has been oppression by Europeans Africans and currently East Indians The study argues that although all three ethnic groups have practiced oppression based on race the differences between them lie in culture Emphasis is placed on Hindu racism which has been reconstituted in the context of Guyana and bears a similarity to Western racism

Ethno-politics and Power Sharing in Guyana David Hinds, 2011 Hinds presents a useful guide at large for understanding the problem of governance democracy and society in ethnically divided countries and how to create a framework aimed at solving the problem

The Political-Mass Media-Racial Complex in Guyana Prem Misir, 2008 The new millennium juxtaposes different generations who were witnesses to the genesis of turmoil in Guyana Since the year 1992 in which democracy returned to Guyana opposition elements continue to be unreceptive to electoral defeats The disinclination to concede electoral loss since 1992 has become a normative historical behavior in the Guyanese context International observers have validated the four national elections in 1992 1997 2001 and 2006 as being free fair and transparent Today electoral defeat has a relationship with the infamous political mass media racial complex that constantly pursues the destabilization of the state and undermines nation building Essentially this complex is a community of irrationality engaging in a persistent dissemination of despair This book focuses on politics media and race The two main objectives of the work are demonstrating the modus operandi and the dysfunctional consequences of this community of irrationality through the political mass media racial complex and showing the rational behaviors that have held the society together since 1992 In the interest of building a strong nation it may be useful to work toward a transformation of this community of irrationality to a community of rationality

Memory and Myth Fiona Darroch, 2009 This book investigates the problematical historical location of the term religion and examines how this location has affected the analytical reading of postcolonial fiction and poetry The adoption of the term religion outside of a Western Enlightenment and Christian context should therefore be treated with caution Within postcolonial literary criticism there has been either a silencing of the category as a result of this caution or an uncritical and essentializing adoption of the term religion It is argued in the present study that a vital aspect of how writers articulate their histories of colonial contact migration slavery and the re forging of identities in the wake of these histories is illuminated by the classificatory term religion Aspects of postcolonial theory and Religious Studies theory are combined to provide fresh insights into the literature thereby expanding the field of postcolonial literary criticism The way in which writers remember history through writing is central to the way in which religion is theorized and articulated the act of remembrance can be persuasively interpreted in terms of religion The title Memory and Myth therefore refers to both the syncretic mythology of Guyana and the key themes in a new critical understanding of religion Particular attention is devoted to Wilson Harris s novel Jonestown alongside theoretical and historical material on the actual Jonestown tragedy to the mesmerizing effect of the Anancy tales on contemporary writers particularly the poet John Agard and to the work of the Indo Guyanese writer David Dabydeen and his elusive character Manu

Anthropologies of Guayana Neil L. Whitehead, Stephanie W. Alemán, 2009 This is an important collection that brings together the work of scholars from North America South America and Europe to reveal the anthropological significance of Guayana the ancient realm of El Dorado and still the scene of gold and diamond mining Beginning with the earliest civilizations of the region the chapters focus on the historical ecology of the rain forest and the archaeological record up to the sixteenth century as well as ethnography ethnology and perceptions of space The book features extensive discussions of the history of a range of indigenous groups such as the Waiwai Trio Wajapi and Palikur Contributions analyze the emergence of a postcolonial national society the contrasts between the coastlands and upland regions and the significance of race and violence in contemporary politics A noteworthy study of the prehistory and history of the region the book also provides a useful survey of the current issues facing northeastern Amazonia The essays

Guyana Kirk Smock, Claire Antell, 2018-08-07 This new third edition of Bradt's Guyana remains the only guidebook available to this South American gem a jungle clad country teeming with exotic wildlife Thoroughly researched easy to use and interesting to read Bradt's Guyana is written and updated by writers who have lived in and promoted Guyana for many years and is an ideal companion for all travellers from wildlife watchers to fishermen anthropologists to conservationists and voluntourists Guyana is a destination on the rise described justifiably by the tourist board as South America Undiscovered This new edition of Bradt's Guyana has been updated to include all the latest developments ranging from how to see harpy eagles at Warapoka to new culinary experiences local tour operators 4x4 self drive and new hotels Truly off the beaten track Guyana is one of the most fascinating and least known countries in the Americas It is also the only English speaking country in South America The jewel in its crown is the mouth droppingly beautiful Kaieteur Falls which is nearly five times the height of Niagara and the world's tallest single drop waterfall Culturally Caribbean its capital Georgetown is a curious melting pot of quaint Dutch and British colonial architecture steel drums boisterous nightlife rum shops with world class rum cricket and tropical sea breezes It is also the gateway to the lush interior which is full to the brim with fascinating flora and fauna including monkeys black caiman harpy eagles giant anteaters otters and the mighty jaguar With Bradt's Guyana discover all of this plus where to stay in community lodges and see the rainforest through the eyes of Amerindian guides where to watch turtles nesting on the beach how to explore the moody Essequibo river the largest between the Orinoco and the Amazon and how to visit the million acre rainforest reserve of Iwokrama for the ultimate authentic wildlife experience This third edition of Bradt's Guyana is the key book to plan an expedition into its densely forested lush interior often accessible only by boat or small aircraft before taking some time to lime in a hammock in one of its tropical waterfront resorts

Governance, Conflict Analysis and Conflict Resolution Cedric Hilburn Grant, R. Mark Kirton, 2007 Decades after our contemporary international system witnessed the end of the Second World War the events that followed in its aftermath has fashioned an international system characterized by global conflict in the guise of the Cold War Although wars were part of the struggle between the two rival super powers the US and USSR their main theatre was the Third World and hostilities during the Cold War era were global It is against this backdrop that Governance Conflict Analysis and Conflict Resolution addresses conflict in the Caribbean and elsewhere exploring the linkages between conflict and development The book is divided into eight sections and offers diverse views on conflict conflict resolution and governance Part 1 Governance and Conflict Management in a Global Context Part II Management and resolution of Conflict in the Regional Context Part III Perspectives on Social Stratification Political Rivalry and Ethnic Insecurities Part IV High Intensity Conflicts Part V The Management and Resolution of Territorial Conflicts Part VI Poverty Economics and Conflict Management Part VII Advancing Conflict Resolution through Education and Part VIII Civil Society Governance and Social Consensus

Transoceanic Dialogues Véronique Bragard, 2008 This work offers a close reading of literary works in French and in English by women writers whose ancestors originally came to the Caribbean or across the Indian Ocean as indentured labourers

Racism Albert J. Wheeler, 2005 Of all mankind's vices racism is one of the most pervasive and stubborn Success in overcoming racism has been achieved from time to time but victories have been limited thus far because mankind has focused on personal economic gain or power grabs ignoring generosity of the soul This bibliography brings together the literature

Perspectives on Contemporary Ethnic Conflict Santosh C. Saha, 2006-01-01 The existing traditions of inquiry into ethnic conflict can be classified into four categories essentialism instrumentalism constructivism and institutionalism All four traditions have a distinguished lineage but none can really account for the worldwide spread of ethnic violence We need to move from the local to the macro or global This book using methodology from sociology history and politics will present the complexities of ethnic conflict in terms of linguistics religion territory and tribes in various regions These brilliant essays look at some of the most conflicted sites in the world where ethnic violence has been created and played out Burma Indonesia Rwanda Burundi Nigeria the Sudan Mexico and Guyana Divided into two parts Perspectives on Contemporary Ethnic Conflict is a rich text for scholars of conflict studies focusing on the sources and dynamics of ethnic violence and providing descriptions of ethnic conflict across the globe

Guyana Junction. Globalisation, localisation, and the production of East Indianness Johannes Gerrit de Kruijf, 2006

International Election Observation in the Commonwealth Caribbean Lisa Ann Vasciannie, 2017-09-15 This book examines the practice of international election observation in a Caribbean context It presents a survey of the Commonwealth Caribbean perspective and a concise case study of Guyana between 1964 and 2015 This research traces the roots of election observation and how this practice became integrated into the landscape of Caribbean electoral politics More specifically the study examines the process by which election observers have become key actors in elections in the Commonwealth Caribbean One of the issues the book contemplates is why Caribbean countries accept the imposition of observation within the context of sovereignty The case of

Guyana and other Anglophone Caribbean states shows the costs of not having observers have been multidimensional and have eclipsed concerns of respecting state sovereignty

The Encyclopedia of Caribbean Religions Patrick Taylor, Frederick I. Case, 2013-04-30 The Encyclopedia of Caribbean Religions is the definitive reference for Caribbean religious phenomena from a Caribbean perspective Generously illustrated this landmark project combines the breadth of a comparative approach to religion with the depth of understanding of Caribbean spirituality as an ever changing and varied historical phenomenon Organized alphabetically entries examine how Caribbean religious experiences have been shaped by and have responded to the processes of colonialism and the challenges of the postcolonial world Systematically organized by theme and area the encyclopedia considers religious traditions such as Vodou Rastafari Sunni Islam Sanatan Dharma Judaism and the Roman Catholic and Seventh day Adventist churches Detailed subentries present topics such as religious rituals beliefs practices specific historical developments geographical differences and gender roles within major traditions Also included are entries that address the religious dimensions of geographical territories that make up the Caribbean Representing the culmination of more than a decade of work by the associates of the Caribbean Religions Project The Encyclopedia of Caribbean Religions will foster a greater understanding of the role of religion in Caribbean life and society in the Caribbean diaspora and in wider national and transnational spaces

The Long Space Peter Hitchcock, 2009-12-01 The resurgence of world literature as a category of study seems to coincide with what we understand as globalization but how does postcolonial writing fit into this picture Beyond the content of this novel or that what elements of postcolonial fiction might challenge the assumption that its main aim is to circulate native information globally The Long Space provides a fresh look at the importance of postcolonial writing by examining how it articulates history and place both in content and form Not only does it offer a new theoretical model for understanding decolonization's impact on duration in writing but through a series of case studies of Guyanese Somali Indonesian and Algerian writers it urges a more protracted engagement with time and space in postcolonial narrative Although each writer Wilson Harris Nuruddin Farah Pramoedya Ananta Toer and Assia Djebar explores a unique understanding of postcoloniality each also makes a more general assertion about the difference of time and space in decolonization Taken together they herald a transnationalism beyond the contaminated coordinates of globalization as currently construed

Beyond the Legacy of the Missionaries and East Indians Jerome Teelucksingh, 2019-11-26 In Beyond the Legacy of the Missionaries and East Indians Jerome Teelucksingh offers a revisionist perspective of the role of the Presbyterian Church in Trinidad He is particularly interested in social mobility as regards the Indo Caribbean diaspora in the era following the First World War He argues that the Presbyterian Church in the Caribbean was particularly interested in women's rights As such he examines the dynamic between local expertise and Canadian missionary work in such social uplift processes

Food and Identity in the Caribbean Hanna Garth, 2013-05-08 This compelling collection of original essays explores food and identity in the Caribbean focusing on contemporary political and economic changes which impact upon culinary identities Caribbean Quarterly ,2006 Migration, Mining, and the African Diaspora B. Josiah,2011-11-07 From the late 1800s African workers migrated to the mineral rich hinterland areas of Guyana mined gold diamonds and bauxite diversified the country s economy and contributed to national development Utilizing real estate financial and death records as well as oral accounts of the labor migrants along with colonial officials and mining companies information stored in National Archives in Guyana Great Britain and the U S Library of Congress the study situates miners into the historical structure of the country s economic development It analyzes the workers attraction to mining from agriculture their concepts of order and progress and how they shaped their lives in positive ways rather than becoming mere victims of colonialism In this contentious plantation society plagued by adversarial relations between the economic elites and the laboring class in addition to producing the strategically important bauxite for the aviation era of World Wars I II for almost a century the workers braved the ecologically hostile and sometimes deadly environments of the gold and diamond fields in the quest for El Dorado in Guyana European Review of Latin American and Caribbean Studies ,2007 Fragments of Bone Patrick Bellegarde-Smith,2005 The bones of Pierre Toussaint the first proposed African American Catholic saint were disinterred and spread around in the New World In his introduction Patrick Bellegarde Smith suggests the same is true of the religious practices that peoples of African descent and victims of the Atlantic slave trade brought with them Fragments of Bone examines the evolution of these religions as they have been adapted and recontextualized in various New World environments The essays in Fragments of Bone discuss African religions as forms of resistance and survival in the face of Western cultural hegemony and imperialism The collection is unique in presenting the voices of scholars primarily outside of the Western tradition speaking on the issues they as practitioners regard as important Bellegarde Smith himself a priest in the Haitian Vodou religion brings together thirteen contributors from different disciplines genders and nationalities
