Campbell,2025-03-31 Appealing to God or Man Contrasting Barrenness and Family Death Narratives in the Hebrew Bible and Ancient Near East argues for a reevaluation of barrenness type scenes in the Hebrew Bible and ancient Near East More specifically the argument is for a distinction women in family death narratives appeal to men while women in barrenness narratives appeal to God Even the male centric epics of the ancient Near East show that women interact with the divine more during barrenness crises e g the wife s prophetic dream in the Etana myth than during family death crises e g male divine narratives in Kirta and Aqhat This distinction not only clarifies the narrative tropes but emphasizes the role of women in these crises and intersects with discussions of household roles in the ancient Near East Male and female roles in marriage and fertility drive the responses of characters in these idealized narrative worlds especially in family death and barrenness narratives The Catholic University Bulletin ,1899 Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. narratives in detail comment on aspects of patriarchal wealth but do not offer an in depth analysis of this topic This book on Jacob s wealth shows that such an analysis is warranted In the Jacob story material possessions and their associated attitudes and actions are essential to understand the various relationship dynamics Often possessions are the cause of conflict but they also play a role in conflict resolution As a result this study contributes to a fuller understanding of the Jacob cycle

Images of Intolerance Sara Lipton,1999-09-28 Around the year 1225 an illuminated Bible was made for the king of France That work and a companion volume the two earliest surviving manuscripts of the Bible moralis e are remarkable in a number of ways they are massive in scope they combine text and image to an unprecedented extent and their illustrations almost unique among medieval images in depicting contemporary figures and situations comprise a vehement visual polemic against the Jews In Images of Intolerance Sara Lipton offers a nuanced and insightful reading of these extraordinary sources Lipton investigates representations of Jews economic activities the depiction of Jews scriptures in relation to Christian learning the alleged association of Jews with heretics and other malefactors in Christian society and their position in Christian eschatology Jews are portrayed as threatening the purity of the Body of Christ the integrity of the text of scripture the faith mores and study habits of students and the spiritual health of Christendom itself Most interesting however is that the menacing themes in the Bible moralis e are represented in text and images as aspects of Jewish perfidy that are rampant among Christians as well This innovative interdisciplinary study brings new understanding to the nature and development of social intolerance and to the role art can play in that development Australian National Bibliography ,1978
