Michael, Andrekos Varnava, 2013-07-26 Cyprus Historical and Contemporary Studies Since the onset of Ottoman rule but more especially from the mid 18th Century the archbishops of the autocephalous Cypriot Orthodox Church have wielded a great deal of political power Most people of a certain age will remember the bearded monk who became a Greek nationalist politician and the first President of the Republic of Cyprus in 1960 Archbishop Makarios III Indeed his presence at Madame Tussaud s is a reminder of his stature But were all Cypriot archbishops such political and powerful Greek nationalists This study is unique in its exploration of the peculiar role of the archbishop ethnarch and as such offers valuable historical and political insights into the phenomenon This book offers a political history of religious authorities in the pre modern modern and post modern eras It examines how nationalist politics evolved and was co opted by religious authorities in order to re establish political hegemony from a secular European colonial power and the consequences this entailed after the end of the British empire Cyprus and International Peacemaking 1964-1986 Farid Mirbagheri, 2014-05-01 This book traces the international community s attempts to achieve a solution to the Cyprus problem from 1964 86 and analyzes why it has failed It also discusses the deep mutual distrust between Turks and Greeks throughout the Eastern Mediterranean which hampers all attempts to reach a satisfactory solution to this intractable problem Mirbagheri also examines the divergent policies of the key external players and how they have contributed to the current stalemate The Cyprus Question as an Issue of Turkish Foreign Policy and Turkish-American Relations, 1959-2003 Nasuh Uslu, 2003 This book mainly focuses on the Cyprus question as a pivotal issue of Turkish foreign policy and Turkish American relations The Cyprus question was a constant factor in US Turkish relations in the past and it still conditions the Turkish American alliance which is an important element of the present international relations The period covered in this book is from 1960 1975 After experiencing a perfect honeymoon period in the 1950s the durability strength and cohesion of the US Turkish alliance were tested by severe problems between 1960 and 1975 At the core of all the problems was there the Cyprus question affecting the general tendency of the relationship between the two countries and the attitude of policy makers of both states Finally the period covering from 1974 onward up to the present is generally studied with particular emphasis on Turkish American relations and a supplementary chapter at the end of the book gives the latest developments from the Turkish point of view Social Capital and Peace-Building Michaelene Cox,2008-11-11 Pt 1 Social capital as an instrument of violence pt 2 Social capital as a catalyst for peace pt 3 Ambiguities of social capital in peace and conflict British Imperialism and Turkish Nationalism in Cyprus, 1923-1939 Ilia Xypolia,2017-11-20 As Cyprus experienced British imperial rule between 1878 and 1960 Greek and Turkish nationalism on the island developed at different times and at different speeds Relations between Turkish Cypriots and the British on the one hand and Greek Cypriots and the British on the other were often asymmetrical with the Muslim community undergoing an enormous change in terms of national ethnic identity and class characteristics Turkish Cypriot nationalism developed belatedly as a militant nationalist and anti Enosis movement This book explores the relationship between the emergence of Turkish national identity and British colonial rule in the 1920s and 1930s The Global Promise of Federalism Grace Skogstad,David Cameron,Martin Papillon,Keith Banting,2013-01-01 This book honours the legacy of Richard Simeon one of the most prominent federalist scholars in the world and a long time member of the Department of Political Science at the University of Toronto Pathways from Ethnic Conflict John Coakley,2013-09-13 The book begins with an agenda setting introduction which will provide an overview of the central question being addressed such as the circumstances associated with the move towards a political settlement the parameters of this settlement and the factors that have assisted in bringing it about The remaining contributions will focus on a range of cases selected for their diversity and their capacity to highlight the full gamut of political approaches to conflict resolution The cases vary in the intensity of the conflict from Belgium where it is potential rather than actual to Sri Lanka where it has come to a recent violent conclusion in the geopolitical relationship between the competing groups from Cyprus where they are sharply segregated geographically to Northern Ireland where they are intermingled in the extent to which a stable constitutional accommodation has been reached ranging from the Basque Country with a large range of unresolved problems to South Africa which has achieved a significant level of institutional stability This book ranges over the world s major geopolitical zones including Asia the Middle East Africa and Europe and will be of interest to practitioners in the field of international security This book was published as a special issue of Nationalism and Ethnic Politics Perspectives on Negotiation Diane B. Bendahmane,John W. McDonald,1986 Women and Change in Cyprus Maria Hadjipavlou,2010-05-05 Following its entry into the EU in 2004 Cyprus has become a major migrant destination The influx of migrant workers has introduced a more complex ethnic dynamic into a country traditionally considered in light of its history of conflict between its Greek and Turkish ethnic nationals Maria Hadjipavlou argues that the focus on Cyprus national problem has long prevented Cypriot women to challenge Cyprus largely patriarchal and militaristic order to pursue women s rights and public visibility While many Cypriot women are now liberated from the home this is often due to female migrant domestic workers in effect reproducing patriarchal practices Hadjipavlou here examines the experiences of women from Greek Turkish Armenian Maronite and Latin communities and migrant domestic workers in the context of ethno national conflict ethnic divisions nationalism and militarism and argues for a multi communal feminist movement in Cyprus to better promote women s rights

Colonial Cyprus Maria Hadjiathanasiou, Andreas Karyos, Emiliou A. Solomou, 2024-12-12 An original innovative and timely study on the cultural history of Cyprus under British rule offering a new interpretative framework for studying the island s colonial past The book focuses on the often overlooked cultural dimensions of the island s colonial experience and demonstrates the crucial role culture played in shaping its historical trajectory and future This is the first volume to explore various aspects of the island s cultural life from 1878 when it transitioned from Ottoman to British rule until the establishment of the Republic of Cyprus in 1960 It features a series of thematic chapters by female authors focusing on photography architecture literature theatre art and collecting cultural policy advertising fashion antiquities and archaeology public gardens and sports clubs Individual chapters bring to light previously unpublished source material in Greek and English both written and visual from state and private archives Using cross disciplinary analytical tools from fields such as imperial and colonial history politics cultural studies and media and communication studies the authors provide new insights
