Modernism and Naturalism in British and Irish Fiction, 1880-1930 Simon Joyce, 2015 Through studies of individual writers this book reveals the inextricable connection between naturalism and literary modernism Modernism à la Mode Elizabeth M. Sheehan, 2018-10-15 Modernism la Mode argues that fashion describes why and how literary modernism matters in its own historical moment and ours Bringing together texts textiles and theories of dress Elizabeth Sheehan shows that writers including Virginia Woolf D H Lawrence W E B Du Bois Nella Larsen and F Scott Fitzgerald turned to fashion to understand what their own stylized works could do in the context of global capital systemic violence and social transformation Modernists engage with fashion as a mood a set of material objects and a target of critique and in doing so anticipate and address contemporary debates centered on the uses of literature and literary criticism amidst the supposed crisis in the humanities A modernist affect with a purpose no less By engaging modernism la mode that is contingently contextually and in light of contemporary concerns this book offers an alternative to the often untenable distinctions between strong or weak suspicious or reparative and politically activist or quietist approaches to literature which frame current debates about literary methodology As fashion helps us to describe what modernist texts do it enables us to do more with modernism as a form of inquiry perception and critique Fashion and modernism are interwoven forms of inquiry perception and critique writes Sheehan It is fashion that puts the work of early twentieth century writers in conversation with twenty personhood is suspended the incisive rendering of psychology and desire produced by externalizations of consciousness Certain first person texts highlight the constitutive tension between the functions of narrator and character joined in that first person while in third person texts a charismatic or impervious central voice can be shown nevertheless to hold the psychologies it empties from the characters it describes At stake is the particular way that modernist narrative responds to the question of literature's capacities for addressing psychic life In Virginia Woolf's Jacob's Room William Faulkner's As I Lay Dying Ford Madox Ford's The Good Soldier Eudora Welty's The Golden Apples Ronald Firbank's Concerning the Eccentricities of Cardinal Pirelli and James Purdy's Mourners Below this volume finds a paradoxical merger a humanizing effect achieved by narrative depersonalization and its evocations of psychology and desire
