D-Day West Sussex Ian Greig, Kim Carruthers Leslie, A. E. Readman, 1994
Normandy Landings 1944 Ian Greig, Kim Leslie, Alan Readman, 2005-01-01
Peter Jacobs, 2009-10-29 As part of the Aviation Heritage Trail series the airfields and interest in this book are concentrated in a particular area in this case Kent Surrey East Sussex Essex and Greater London The South east of England emerged from six years of war with a rich diversity of RAF bomber and fighter airfields used by the 2nd Tactical Air Force both before and after the D Day landings Much of this proud legacy is now threatening to disappear However the tourist can combine visits to an abundance of disused and active airfields country houses and museums with countless attractions imaginative locations and broadland and coastal hideaways that have no equal The airfields and other places of interest include Northolt Manston Sculthorp Dunsfold Swanton Morley Hunsdon Gravesend Detling Biggin Hill Kenley Redhill Gatwick Heston Hornchurch Chailey Coolham Horne West Malling and Newchurch This book looks at the history and personalities associated with each base what remains today and explores the favourite local wartime haunts where aircrew and ground crew would have sought well deserved entertainment and relaxation Other museums and places that are relevant will also be described and general directions on how to get them included

An Historical Atlas of Sussex Kim Leslie, Brian Short, 1999 Sussex East and West has been well served by fine cartographers over the past four centuries but this exciting work is no mere collection of historic maps All 70 maps are completely new and original presenting the history of Sussex in a way never previously attempted Prepared by leading experts they plot a huge diversity of subject matter ranging from prehistoric times to the present day and each is accompanied by a text which places it in context and reveals a remarkable amount of new research From the geological structure of Sussex to the Saxon settlement that gave the county its name and from 17th century inns to the patterns of employment and commuting in the late 20th century including such contemporary issues as the Health Service education and planning so much of the past and the life of the county that can be illuminated by a map has been included This major new work of reference is the result of a partnership between the University of Sussex the Sussex Archaeological Society and East and West Sussex County Councils The editors have worked closely with the University's Cartographic Department to produce maps of high quality and accuracy to ensure that this millennial volume is a landmark publication of which Sussex can be proud

The Battle of the Fields Brian Short, 2014 This book will appeal not only to historians and geographers but to many who maintain a deep interest in the British countryside and its past and to those who continue to share a fascination for the Second World War in particular the home front The Battle of the Fields tells the story of rural community and authority in Britain during the Second World War by looking at the County War Agricultural Executive Committees From 1939 they were imbued with powers to transform British farming to combat the loss of food imports caused by German naval activity and initial European mainland successes Their powers were sweeping and draconian When fully exercised against recalcitrant farmers dispossession in part or whole could and did result This book includes the most detailed analysis of these dispossessions including the tragic case of Ray Walden the Hampshire farmer who was killed by police after refusing to leave his farmhouse in 1940 The committees were deemed successful by Whitehall as harbingers of modernity mechanization draining artificial fertilizers reclamation of heaths marshes and woodlands We now deplore some of these changes but Britain did not starve in large part thanks to their efforts This book will appeal not only to historians and geographers but to many who maintain a deep interest in the British countryside and its past and to those who continue to share a fascination for the Second World War in particular the home front It will also demonstrate to all who are anxious about food security in the modern age how this question was dealt with 70 years ago BRIAN SHORT is Emeritus Professor of Historical Geography at the University of Sussex and formerly Dean of School and Head of the Department of Geography

WHEN THE LIGHTS GO ON AGAIN Michael Burt, 2019-10-22 This book tells the story of life during WW2 in and around Cowfold largely through the memories of eleven children with ages ranging from under five to teenager There are no stories here of bloodshed death and destruction Instead this is a story of making do with often very little of life in the village under the restrictions of blackout and rationing of childish wide eyed excitement at watching aerial combat and of rushing to the site of a crashed bomber or fighter in the hope of picking up souvenirs There are stories of fear at hearing the night time throbbing engine of German bombers or bombs and incendiaries exploding in the area and later of the dreaded Doodlebug This was the villagers front line the Home Front where achieving victory in farming the fields or responding to the Dig for victory campaign or just keeping calm and carrying on was no less important to the ultimate victory than the battles fought on land in the air and at sea The children played their part in this Home Front victory accepting the hardships and contributing to the war effort by helping with fund raising or collecting wild fruit for processing or helping with the harvests This book is a tribute to all those children and adults of Cowfold who endured six years of hardship shortages separation from fathers husbands sons and brothers and sisters and fear and yet who persevered and ultimately prevailed

Southern and West Country Airfields of the D-Day Invasion Air Force Peter Jacobs, 2013-03-19 As part of the Aviation Heritage Trail series the airfields and interest in this book are concentrated in a particular area in this case West Sussex Hampshire Dorset Wiltshire and Cornwall The South and South west of England emerged from six years of war with a rich diversity of RAF bomber and fighter airfields used by the 2nd Tactical Air Force both before and after the D Day landings Much of this proud legacy is now threatening to disappear However the tourist can combine visits to an abundance of disused and active airfields country houses and museums with countless attractions imaginative locations broad land and coastal hideaways that have no equal The airfields and other places of interest include Hartford Bridge Lasham Westhamptonett Merston Odiham Holmsley South Funtington Hurn Ford Tangmere Ibsley Perranporth Thruxton Thorney Island Appledram Selesy Needs Oar Point Zeals Lee on Solent and Bognor Regis This book looks at the history and personalities associated with each base what remains today and explores the favorite local wartime haunts where aircrew and ground crew would have sought well deserved entertainment and relaxation Other museums and places that are relevant will also be described and general directions on how to get them included

D-Day to VE Day Anton Rippon, Nicola Rippon, 2024-07-30 Covers the final year of World War II in Europe On the evening of Monday 5th June 1944 the people of Britain went to bed with a sense of great events impending They knew that any day now would come news of the battle that would forever alter the course of their lives and the lives of their children and their grandchildren The following day s morning newspapers and early radio news bulletins were full of the fall of Rome to the Allies which had been announced the day before But then at 9 33 am on that Tuesday came the brief announcement Allied naval forces supported by strong air forces had begun landing Allied armies on the coast of France D Day had finally dawned D Day to VE Day tells the story of the last year of the Second World War in Europe from the Normandy landings and on through the hard slog to that long awaited day 8th May 1945 when Britain broke out the bunting rolled out the barrel and celebrated victory over Hitler The air raid sirens were silenced the lights could be switched on again and the boys would be coming home In many homes festivities were muted because the war in the Far East was still to be won but for a few short hours at least the nation could afford to let its hair down and dance in the streets Using contemporary accounts interviews newspaper reports and official documents of those final months D Day to VE Day looks at life in Britain during those vital months at the events that brought an end to war in Europe and at the redrawing of national borders that would shape a new world order

Villages of Britain Clive Aslet, 2011-08-15 Villages of Britain is the history of the countryside told through five hundred of its most noteworthy settlements Many of Britain s villages are known for their loveliness of course but their role in shaping the nation over the centuries is relatively untold drowned out by the metropolitan bias of history A consummate storyteller Clive Aslet deftly weaves the worlds of agriculture politics the arts industry folklore science ecology fashion and religion into one irresistible volume The Bedfordshire works that a century ago manufactured half a billion bricks a year the Cheshire municipality striving to become the country s first carbon neutral community the Derbyshire estate where the cottages represent the gamut of European architecture the Gloucestershire community founded by Tolstoyans who still live by anarchic principles the Leicestershire town where pub walls are embedded with Jurassic era fossils the Morayshire settlement where Hogmanay is celebrated eleven days late the Pembrokeshire fishing hamlet that inspired Dylan Thomas the Somerset village that was built on the back of the trade in Peruvian bird droppings the Suffolk village that is rejecting modernity by reconstructing a windmill for grinding flour the Surrey woodland that fosters Europe s most ancient trees all these are places that have made a unique contribution to the narrative of this country Follow Clive Aslet in visiting all five hundred villages and you will have experienced the history of these islands from a uniquely rural perspective

D-Day 50, 1994 The Iron Manufacturer's Guide to the Furnaces, Forges and Rolling Mills of the United States J. Peter Lesley, 1859 Six ships, one name Stephen Le

Vine,2025-10-01 This book relates the nautical history and stories of ships in the 19th and 20th centuries whose only connection is that they all shared the name Eastbourne a seaside town in Sussex in the south of England Their stories reveal incidents covering many ports cities and oceans worldwide encompassing 1878 through to 1984 Without a port of harbour until the building of a modern marina in 1993 for over 150 years the town had had the honour of six ships bearing its name both Royal Navy and merchant navy The book tells of these vessels everyday comings and goings across the oceans We discovered fire collisions running aground and one ship having her propellers removed but staying in service for many more years These were very diverse vessels including a fishing trawler general cargo ships and Royal Navy warships We follow them carrying on trade in peacetime WW1 and WW2 with details about the D Day Normandy Landings preparations and shipping convoys opening a historical window onto the broader events of the time The book also covers a Royal Navy frigate s involvement in the fishing dispute with Iceland known as the Cod Wars of 1958 1973 Over the years the town was proud that these ships carried its name as they crossed the high seas protecting us in wartime and bringing food and essential goods in often dangerous weather conditions

War Brides Melynda Jarratt,2009-05-25 For thousands of young British girls the influx of Canadian soldiers conscripted to Britain during the Second World War meant throngs of handsome young men The result was over 48 000 marriages to Canadian soldiers alone and a mass emigration of British women to North America and around the world in the 1940 s For many brides the decision to leave their family and home to move to a country thousands of miles away with a man they hardly knew brought forth ensuing happiness For others the outcome was much different and the darker side of the story reveals the infidelity domestic violence poverty alcoholism and divorce that many lived through War Brides draws on original archival documents personal correspondence and key first hand accounts to tell the amazing story of the War Brides in their own words and shows the love passion tragedy and spirit of adventure of thousand of British women
