Jayyusi, Renata Holod, Attilio Petruccioli, Andre Raymond, 2008 The purpose of this book is to draw attention to the sites of life politics and culture where current and past generations of the Islamic world have made their mark Unlike many previous volumes dealing with the city in the Islamic world this one has been expanded not only to include snapshots of historical fabric but also to deal with the transformation of this fabric into modern and contemporary urban entities Salma Khadra Jayyusi was awarded Cultural Personality of the Year by the Sheikh Zayed Book Award for her profound contribution to Arabic literature and culture in 2020 The paperback edition of The City in the Islamic World was published to celebrate the occasion Epigraphy and Islamic Culture Mohammad Yusuf Siddiq, 2015-11-19 Architectural inscriptions are a fascinating aspect of Islamic cultural heritage because of their rich and diverse historical contents and artistic merits These inscriptions help us understand the advent of Islam and its gradual diffusion in Bengal which eventually resulted in a Muslim majority region making the Bengali Muslims the second largest linguistic group in the Islamic world This book is an interpretive study of the Arabic and Persian epigraphic texts of Bengal in the wider context of a rich epigraphic tradition in the Islamic world While focusing on previously untapped sources it takes a fresh look into the Islamic inscriptions of Bengal and examines the inner dynamics of the social intellectual and religious transformations of this eastern region of South Asia It explores many new inscriptions including Persian epigraphs that appeared immediately after the Muslim conquest of Bengal indicating an early introduction of Persian language in the region through a cultural interaction with Khurasan and Central Asia In addition to deciphering and editing the epigraphic texts the information derived from them has been analyzed to construct the political administrative social religious and cultural scenario of the period The first survey of the Muslim inscriptions in India ever to be attempted on this scale the book reveals the significance of epigraphy as a source for Islamic history and culture As such it will be of interest to students and scholars of Asian Studies Asian History and Islamic Studies The City in South Asia Kenneth Ballhatchet, John Harrison, 2023-02-15 First published in 1980 The City in South Asia is a collection of papers which were presented at an inter disciplinary seminar on The City in South Asia pre modern and modern held at the School of Oriental and African Studies under the auspices of the Centre of South Asian Studies Some of the papers in this volume are comparative others are concerned with specific cities Allahabad Dacca Delhi Karachi Lucknow and Murshidabad They deal with three main themes the city and the state the city and society the city and the surrounding country The book is appropriately embellished with maps and contemporary illustrations and will be of interest to students of history ethnic studies and South Asian studies Towns and Cities of Medieval India Aniruddha Ray, 2016-09-13 This much anticipated volume looks at the historical evolution of towns and cities in medieval India from the early thirteenth to the late eighteenth century The selection is based on the availability of documents These include the narratives of European travellers in English French Italian Dutch and German with the exception of Ibn Battuta in mid fourteenth century and also Middle Bengali literature in case of towns in Bengal While the coastal towns and cities have been looked at the interior ones are also described on the basis of the writings of later historians and archaeologists Care has been taken to explain the rise growth and the decline of some towns and cities in which the changing courses of rivers had played a crucial role Attempts have been made to search other factors responsible for such eventualities The delineation of physical features within the city has been given due emphasis including the different quarters of the city and the manners and customs of the local population with reference to craft production and commercial links The morphological differences between the cities of eastern and those of the western or northern India have also been described This is clear from the observations of port towns described here All these would show that India was one of the most urbanized area in the medieval period before advent of the British

The Song of the Shirt Jeremy Seabrook, 2015 Oh Men with Sisters dear Oh Men with Mothers and Wives It is not linen you re wearing out But human creatures lives Stitch stitch stitch In poverty hunger and dirt Sewing at once with a double thread A Shroud as well as a Shirt from The Song of the Shirt by Thomas Hood 1843 Labour in Bangladesh flows like its rivers in excess of what is required Often both take a huge toll Labour that costs 1 66 an hour in China and 52 cents in India can be had for a song in Bangladesh 18 cents It is mostly women and children working in fragile flammable buildings who bring in 70 per cent of the country s foreign exchange Bangladesh today does not clothe the nakedness of the world but provides it with limitless cheap garments through Primark Walmart Benetton Gap In elegiac prose Jeremy Seabrook dwells upon the disproportionate sacrifices demanded by the manufacture of such throwaway items as baseball caps He shows us how Bengal and Lancashire offer mirror images of impoverishment and affluence In the eighteenth century the people of Bengal were dispossessed of ancient skills and the workers of Lancashire forced into labour settlements In a ghostly replay of traffic in the other direction the decline of the British textile industry coincided with Bangladesh becoming one of the world s major clothing exporters With capital becoming more protean than ever it wouldn t be long before the global imperium readies to shift its sites of exploitation in its nomadic cultivation of profit European Trade and Colonial Conquest Biplab

Dasgupta,2005 This first of three volumes focuses on the evolution of Bengal's economy and society before colonisation beginning from pre historic days With no documented or authentic history of Bengal the author examines oral history bringing us a study that uncovers the roots of the many issues in the colonial and post colonial eras Urban History in India Mr. Rohit Manglik,2022-11-22 In this book we will study about the historical evolution of Indian cities colonial legacies and post independence urbanization History of Indian Nation : Medieval India Muzaffar H. Syed & Others,2022-02-20 History of Indian Nation India the cradle for one of the most ancient civilizations in the world has a long and rich history spanning thousands of years In fact the history of India begins with evidence of human activity millions of years ago The Indus Valley Civilization was the first major civilization Vedic Civilization witnessed the rise of major polities Almost the whole country was controlled by Mauryan Empire and it was again united under Gupta Empire Muslim rule in the subcontinent began when the Arabs conquered Sindh and Multan Then several invasions from Central Asia led to the formation of Muslim empires such as the Delhi Sultanate and the Mughal Empire Mughals conquered most of northern India and finally controlled the entire sub continent and Afghanistan Mughal Empire declined in the 18th century Then East India Company gained ascendancy over South Asia Dissatisfaction with Company rule led to an unsuccessful revolt in 1857 after which India was directly administered by the British Crown In the 20th century a nationwide struggle for independence was launched by Indian National Congress The subcontinent gained independence from Great Britain in 1947 but the country was partitioned into two dominions of India and Pakistan After Independence a new era began This comprehensive book comprising four volumes covers the entire history of the Indian Nation in a very compact manner This book is an asset for historians teachers students and general readers at par Monsoon as Method Lindsay Bremner,Beth Cullen,Christina Leigh Geros,Harshavardhan Bhat,Anthony Powis,2022-05-25 An edited volume by Monsoon Assemblages a European Research Council funded research project The book presents the methods that Monsoon Assemblages has evolved for engaging the monsoon a globally connected weather system as a coproducer of urban life and space in South and Southeast Asian cities It challenges views of climate as an inert backdrop to urban life instead suggesting that it is materially and spatially active in shaping urban politics ecologies infrastructures buildings and bodies It combines critical texts with cartography photography and ethnography to present the project's methodology and its outcomes and invites urban practitioners to think differently about space time representation and human and non human agency It offers intra disciplinary intra active methods for rethinking human and non human relations with weather in ways that meet the challenges of climate change and the Anthropocene The Mughals and the North-East Sajal Nag,2023-07-17 There is a perception that the region of north east India maintained its splendid isolation and remained outside the reach of the Mughals and did not have a pre colonial past The present book is an attempt to decenter and demolish the said perceptions and asserts that north east India had a medieval past through linkage with the dominant central power in India the Mughals

The eastern frontier of this Mughal Empire was constituted by a number of states like Bengal Koch Bihar Assam Manipur Dimas Jaintia Cachar Tripura Khasi confederation Chittagong Lushai and the Nagas Of these some areas like Bengal were an integral part of the Mughal Empire while others like Koch Bihar and Assam were in and out of the empire Tripura Manipur Jaintia and Cachar were frequently overrun by the Mughals whenever the State was short of revenue and withdrew soon without incorporating them in the state Despite not being a formal part of the Mughal Empire the society economy polity and culture of the north east India however had been majorly impacted by the Mughal presence The brief but effective advent of the Mughals had supplanted certain political and revenue institutions in various states It generated trade and commerce which linked it to the rest of India A number of wandering Sufi saints Islamic missionaries imprisoned Mughal soldiers and officers were settled in various states which resulted in a substantial Muslim population growth in the region Besides the population there are numerous Islamic and syncretic institutions cultures and shrines which dot the entire region

The Journal of Asian Studies ,1965 An essential resource for those interested in Asia Recognized as the leading publication in its field It features articles on the history arts social sciences and contemporary issues of East South and Southeast Asia as well as a large book review section Tale Of Four Indian Cities Vijay K. Seth,2024-10-10 Tale of Four Indian Cities presents a vivid picture of how the British political regime reorganized the structure of the Indian economy to suit its own objectives While doing so the regime also affected the geographical distribution of economic activities This resulted in the decline of native cities and the increased prosperity of colonial cities To reveal how British colonial power brought about such changes in the Indian subcontinents the book narrates the account of two pairs of native and colonial cities Dacca and Calcutta from the Indian Eastern coast and Surat and Bombay from the Western coast These were major centres of manufacturing shared a common history and experienced the consequences of three different political dispensations the Mughal Empire the East India Company and the British Raj Accessibly written the volume will be of great interest to students scholars and researchers of Indian colonial business and economic history It will also be of interest to the general reader Trade, Politics and Society Sushil Chaudhury,2016-09-13 The essays in the volume deal with a broad range factors integral to Indian history in the early modern era They unfold many facets of the trade politics and society of the country and offer new perspectives which will help dispel some long held misconceptions The first part of the book is concerned mainly with trade and commerce in Bengal while subsequent chapters provide an extensive survey of maritime trade in the Indian Ocean and the unique contribution of Armenian communities in Dhaka s commercial and social life of the eighteenth century Please note Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka
