ancestry.com after finding letters written by her great grandfather to family in Amsterdam and has discovered family living there. Dominique and his family parents Hans and Veronique and sister Nortje. This is her mother's family. When Mr. Keene has to travel to Amsterdam on business, Nancy, Beth, and Hannah, who are on spring break, accompany him. We are treated to some history and descriptions of scenery. Nancy also knows quite a bit about famous paintings, especially by Vermeer and Van Gogh. At the art museum, they meet Sophie, the curator, who seems interested in Mr. Keene. Nancy promotes the attraction between the two until they become mutually interested, and then she seems jealous. Dominique, a cute guy her age, shows Nancy into a secret room they recently found that is full of old paintings. They have deduced that the Jewish people who lived in their house in the World War II era hid them away before being taken off to a concentration camp. His family has tried to trace the family, but they were all killed in the war. Nancy is sure that one of them is an unsigned Vermeer. Before they can do anything about it, the house is broken into and the painting stolen. Who knew about the secret room? The carpenters who fixed it when a wall was ruined with water. One guy at school, who Dominique told, the kids set up a sting to trap the thief, but before they execute it, Nancy figures out who the thief is and recovers the painting. The Vermeer is donated to an art museum; the other paintings that are also worth much money will be sold, and Hans and his family will make many euros. At the book's end, Nancy and her chums appear on a TV show to promote genealogy.
